

A C A T H A

WORDS TRANSLATED FROM THE GERMAN BY

Charles G. Meland Esq.

Music Composed by F. A. B. T. Arranged for the

Piano Forte

by

MAX ZORER.

Piano.

Guitar.

25 Cts. nett.

NEW YORK

Published by FIRTH, POND & C^o 4 Franklin Sq.

Entered according to Act of Congress, 21, 1849 by Firth, Pond & C^o in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Southern District of New York.

A G A T H E .

Arranged by, MAX ZORER.

VOICE. Andantino. Dolce.

PIANO p

FORTE. f

When the swans their feath-ers plume , For the
 When the swal- - - - lows homewards fly , When the land..... where myr-tles bloom; When the eve - - - - ning red grows last..... pale ro - - ses die ; When the Night - - - in gale with 465

dim And the woods in shad-ows swim, Asks my cries To the Night - - - in-gale re-plies, Asks my ppp

heart &c Ritor - - - - - tan - - - heart with pain-ful start, Ask my heart with pain-ful

mf

- do. a tempo.
start, Shall we nev - - - - - er

pp

meet a - - - - gain? Part - - - ing! oh

465

part - - - ing part - - ing is pain,

Part - - - ing! oh part - - - ing part - - ing is

Rit or - - - tan - - - do.

a tempo.
pain.

tutti.
f

Oh poor heart what e'er befall
 There is rest for thee and all
 That on earth which fades away
 Comes again in bright array.
 Know my heart though keen the smart,
 We shall some day meet again
 If parting and absence be sorrow and pain