Moderato

Do you re-
With-in that mem-ber, love, our part-ing? 'Twas in the twi-light, long years agar-den, love, we'll wan-der, A-mong the ros-es a-long the go When we to-gether stood, in sor-row, Our vows re-way, And man-y hap-py hours we'll squan-der And no one peat - ing so soft and low. The twink - ling stars with sil - ver there, dear, shall tell me, nay; But hand in hand with glanc - es gleam - ing Kept watch a - bove us the even - ing through The lov - ing We will be hap - py for ev - er - more. So earth was hushed to list - en, dear, To this, my song to you. What tho' hear - me while I sing to you As in the days of yore.

man-y are the years that we must part, dear,— And no mat-ter what the dear-y wait-ing seems ——— We al-ways may u-nite when e'er we wish, dear,— With-in the ros-y gar-den of our dreams. ——— — What tho' man - y wear - y miles may stretch be - tween, dear, — Still a - cross the hills and val - leys and the streams — My heart will fly to you, and ev - er will be true And we'll meet in the Gar - den of Dreams. —
