

589

Handwritten musical score for Symphony No. 73, consisting of 18 staves. The notation is in a historical style, featuring various clefs (soprano, alto, tenor, bass, and piano), time signatures, and complex rhythmic patterns. The manuscript is written on aged, slightly stained paper. A circular library stamp is visible on the left side, and the number '589' is written below it. The score is densely written with notes, rests, and other musical symbols.

This is a page of handwritten musical notation, likely a score for a multi-instrument ensemble. The page is numbered '1a' in the top left corner. It contains approximately 18 staves of music, written in a historical style with various clefs and key signatures. The notation includes notes, rests, and dynamic markings such as 'piano' and 'forte'. There are several instances of crossed-out or heavily scribbled-out sections of the score, particularly in the middle and lower-middle portions. The paper is aged and shows some staining and wear along the edges.

Handwritten musical score on ten staves. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and clefs. The staves are numbered 1 through 10 on the right margin. The music is written in a historical style, likely from the 18th or 19th century. The paper is aged and shows some staining.
