Brighter than the Sun

a Cantata for Christmas

for soprano, tenor & bass soloists, choir and instrumental ensemble

Composer's note

This cantata, which takes as its theme the Annunciation, contains arrangements of four medieval carols for SATB choir with instrumental accompaniment and for which I have provided singing translations with the intention of making these beautiful pieces more accessible to contemporary choirs and audiences. The remaining movements are original and contain a triptych of scenes from the medieval Mystery Plays with the text freely adapted for musical purposes; the central scene contains a setting of Mary's Magnificat (text from the Book of Common Prayer). In addition, there are two short instrumental sonatas and a setting for female voices of the 13th century lyric known as Hymn to the Virgin.

The work was created as a companion piece to the composer's English arrangement of Schütz' The Christmas Story for a concert first given by the Newbury Chamber Choir in December 2011, and revised in 2019.

1. Carol (Gabriel, from heaven's king)
2. Sonata (The Darkness)
3. Scene: Mary and Gabriel (The Annunciation)

2. Sonata: The darkness

102

 $\text{♩} = 44$

Org.

Measures 102-109 of the Sonata. The score is for Organ. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 2/2. The music features a melodic line in the right hand with various ornaments and a supporting bass line in the left hand. A dynamic marking of p (piano) is present at the beginning.

110

Measures 110-116 of the Sonata. The melodic line continues with more ornaments and rests. The bass line provides harmonic support with sustained notes and some movement.

117

Measures 117-121 of the Sonata. The melodic line features a series of ornaments. A dynamic marking of f (forte) appears at the end of the system.

122

Measures 122-132 of the Sonata. The music consists of sustained chords in both hands, with some movement in the bass line. A dynamic marking of f (forte) is present.

133

Measures 133-143 of the Sonata. The music features sustained chords in both hands. A dynamic marking of p (piano) is present at the end of the system.

144

Measures 144-150 of the Sonata. The melodic line in the right hand moves more actively, while the left hand continues with sustained chords. The piece concludes with a final chord.

The Visitation

ELIZABETH

Welcome! mild Mary,
Come in! Come near!

MARY

God bless Elizabeth,
My own cousin dear!

ELIZABETH

I am so joyful
To see thee now here.

(seeing Mary's bump)

You bring joyful tidings - that I can see.
The mother of Kings
is come unto me.

MARY (weeping)

Who am I to be blessed with this birth?

ELIZABETH

Comfort, my dear, thou shouldst have mirth.
For when the child in my womb heard the sound of your voice
it leaped and it cried
'In my Lord I rejoice.'

(kneeling)

Grace-full be thou,
heavenly bride,
and the fruit of thy body
be blessed far and wide.

(Mary sings the Magnificat)
