This image shows a page from a hymnal or songbook, containing musical notation for a hymn. The music is written on ten systems of staves, each system consisting of two staves joined by a brace on the left. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), indicated by a single flat symbol at the beginning of the first staff. The time signature is common time (C), represented by a large 'C' at the start of the first staff. The lyrics are printed below the staves, corresponding to the melody. The lyrics include: "he hath done", "O give thanks give", "Give thanks unto the Lord give", "Give thanks un-to the", "Give thanks give thanks give thanks unto the Lord give", "Give thanks give thanks give thanks un-to the", "Give thanks unto the Lord give", "Give thanks un-to the", "thanks unto the Lord And call up-on his", "Lord give thanks And call up-on his name", "thanks unto the Lord And call up-on his name - -", "Lord give thanks And call up-on his name", "thanks unto the Lord And call up-on his name his name", "Lord give thanks And call up-on his name", "thanks unto the Lord And call up-on his name", "Lord give thanks And". There are also some numerical figures (6 4, 5 3, 6 4, 5 3, 6, 5 5, 5 5) written below the bottom staff, which might be figured bass notation or simply numbers indicating measure counts or fingerings. The notation includes various musical symbols such as whole notes, half notes, quarter notes, eighth notes, and rests, connected by beams and slurs. Bar lines divide the measures throughout the piece.
