

BOWER OF PRAYER. 11s. Anapaestic.

Arr'd by WM. HAUSER, M. D.

1. To go from my home, and from kin - dred to part,— To break up my friendships, af - fects not my heart Like leav - ing that knelt by the ev - er - green there, And pour'd out my soul to the Sa - vior in pray'r, to the Sa - vior in pray'r!

2. The early, sweet notes of the lov'd nightingale
My hours of devotion would faithfully tell;
Would call me to duty, while birds in the air
Sang anthems of praises as I went to prayer.

6. His love and His pow'r He will daily impart,
To strengthen my mind, and to gladden my heart;
And when on my death-bed, He'll be with me there,
And take me to heaven, in answer to prayer.

4. How sweet were the zephyrs, perfumed by the pine,
The ivy, the balsam, the wild exgantine!
But sweeter, far sweeter, the pleasures which, there,
I often have tasted while off'ring my prayer.

5. But soon I must bid my lov'd bower adieu,
And leave for a region that's distant and new.
Yet, (O blessed thought!) I've a Friend ev'rywhere,
Who will, in all places, give ear to my prayer.

7. There, high in the mansions of glory and joy,
My soul shall be blest with delightful employ—
Be freed from all sorrow, and anguish and care,
And bask in His smile who has answered my prayer.

SWEET PRAYER.

MISS LUTHER.

- When torn is thy bosom by sorrow and care,
Be it ever so simple, there's nothing like prayer;
It eases, soothes, softens, subdues, yet sustains,
Gives vigor to hope, and puts passion in chains.
- When forced from the friends we hold dearest to part,
What fond recollections yet cling to the heart!
Past converse, past scenes, past employments are there,
O how hurtfully pleasing till hallowed by prayer!
- When Pleasure would woo us from Piety's arms,
The siren sings sweetly, or silently charms—
We listen, love, longer, are caught in the snare;
But, looking to Jesus, we conquer by prayer.
- While strangers to prayer we are strangers to bliss;
Heav'n pours its full streams thro' no medium but this;
And, till we the seraphs' full ecstasy share,
Our chance of bliss must be guarded by prayer.

CHORUS.— Prayer, prayer, sweet, sweet prayer!
Be it ever so simple, there's nothing like prayer.

SAW YE MY SAVIOR? 5s & 7s. Trochaic & Dactylic.

3. Jesus hung bleeding,
Jesus hung bleeding,
Thro' dreadful hours in pain;
And the solid rocks were rent,

When the Jews crucified the God-man.

4. Darkness prevailed,
Darkness prevailed,
Darkness prevai'd o'er the land;
And the sun refus'd to shine,
When the Majesty Divine
Was derided, insulted, and slain.

5. When it was finish'd,
When it was finish'd,
And the atonement was made,
He was taken by the great,
And embalm'd in spices sweet,
And was in a new sepulchre laid.

6. Hail, mighty Savior!
Hail, mighty Savior!
Prince and the Author of peace!
Soon He burst the bonds of death,
And in triumph left the earth;
He ascended to mansions of bliss.

7. There interceding,
There interceding,
I'leading that sinners may live:
Crying, "Father, I have died,

REV. C. WESLEY, 1763.

1. Gentle Jesus, meek and mild,
Look upon a little child!
Pity my simplicity;
Suffer me to come to Thee.
2. Fain I would to Thee be brought;
Dearest Lord, forbid it not!
Give me, dearest Lord, a place,
In the kingdom of Thy grace.
3. Lamb of God, I look to Thee,
Thou shalt my example be;
Thou art gentle, meek and mild;
Thou wast once a little child.
4. Fain I would be as Thou art;
Give me Thy obedient heart;
Thou art pliful and kind;
Let me have Thy loving mind.
5. Let me, above all, fulfil
God my heav'nly Father's will,
Never His good Spirit grieve,
Only to His glory live.
6. Loving Jesus, gentle Lamb,
In Thy gracious hands I am;
Make me, Savior, what Thou art,
Live, Thyself, within my heart.

This noble hymn was written by Bishop HEBER, in 1819, to aid the cause of Christian missions. It was sung for the first time in the cathedral of St Asaphs, England, when his father-in-law, the Dean of that place, preached a missionary sermon. In due time the piece floated to Savannah Ga., where LOWELL MASON wrote to it his immortal tune, the "Missionary Hymn." Thus, in God's good providence, the Episcopal bishop and the Presbyterian bank clerk became forever united. "God moves in a mysterious way His wonders to perform."—W. H.

3. There shall friends never part,
Nor shall farewells be spoken;
There'll be balm in the heart
That with anguish was broken:
From affliction set free,
And from God never to sever,
With His glory shall see,
And enjoy Him forever.

 Then, like a faithful soldier,

 And fight the hosts of Satan,
 Until I gain the heav'nly field.
3. I'm on my way to Zion,
 Still guided by my Savior's hand :
 Oh come along, dear sinners,
 And see Emmanuel's happy land :
 To all who stay behind me
 I bid a long, a long farewell ;
 Come now, or you'll repent it,
 When you shall reach the gates of hell,
4. The vale of tears surrounds me,
 And Jordan's current rolls before !
 Oh ! how I stand and tremble
 To hear the dismal waters roar !
 Whose hand shall then support me,
 And keep my soul from sinking there ?
 From sinking down to darkness,
 And to the regions of despair ?
5. This stream shall not affright me,
 Altho' 't is deeper than the grave ;
 If Jesus stand beside me,
 I'll smoothly ride on Jordan's wave.
 His word has calm'd the ocean,
 His lamp has cheered the gloomy vale.
 Oh shall this Friend be with me,
 While thro' the gates of death I sail !
6. Come, then, thou King of terrors,
 And with thy dagger lay me low !
 I'll sooner reach those regions
 Where everlasting pleasures grow :
 O Christians, I must leave you,
 No more to join your social band,
 No more to stand beside you,
 Till at the judgment bar we stand.
7. Soon the archangel's trumpet
 Shall rock the globe from pole to pole,
 And all the wheels of nature
 Shall in a moment cease to roll :
 Then we shall see the Savior,
 With shining ranks of angels, come
 To execute His vengeance,
 And take His faithful servants home.
8. Then, sinners, you'll be driven
 Down to the lake of fire and pain,
 To scream in flaming sulphur,
 And never to return again ;
 Then, sinners, you'll remember
 Who warned you of that dreadful end :
 The smoking of your torment
 Forever upward shall ascend.

The musical score consists of three staves of music in common time (indicated by a 'C') and a key signature of one flat (indicated by a 'F#'). The first two staves are in treble clef (G), and the third staff is in bass clef (F).

Lyrics:

- 3. Money was not what he wanted,
Tho' by begging used to live;
But he ask'd, and Jesus granted,
Alms which none but He could give:
- 4. "Lord, remove this grievous blind-
ness,
Let my eyes behold the day!"
Straight he saw; and, won by kindness,
Follow'd Jesus in the way.
- 5. O! methinks I hear him praising,
Publishing to all around,
"Friends, is not my case amazing?
What a Savior I have found!
- 6. "Oh! that all the blind but knew Him,
And would be advis'd by me;
Surely they would hasten to Him;
He would cause them all to see."

2. Oh what madness! Oh what folly!
That my heart should go astray,
After vain and foolish trifles;
Trifles only of a day!
This vain world, with all its pleasures,
Soon, ah! soon will be no more:
There's no object worth admiring,
But the God whom we adore.
3. See the happy spirits waiting
On the banks beyond the stream,
Sweet responses still repeating,
"Jesus! Jesus!" is their theme:
Hark! they whisper; lo! they call me,
"Sister spirit, come away!"
Lo! I come; earth can't contain me;
Hail! ye realms of endless day.

Seraphs, lend your glittering wings!
Love absorbs my ransom'd powers,
Heav'ny music round me rings:
Worlds of light, and crowns of glory,
Far above you azure sky,
Tho' by faith I now behold you,
I'll enjoy you soon on high.

Into every trembling breast!
Let us all in Thee inherit,
Let us find that second rest;
Take away our pow'r of sinning,
Alpha and Omega be!
End of faith, as its beginning;
Set our souls at liberty.

3. Come, almighty to deliver,
Let us all Thy life receive;
Suddenly return and never,
Nevermore Thy temples leave;
Thee we would be always blessing;
Serve Thee as Thy hosts above;
Pray, and praise Thee, without ceasing,
Glory in Thy perfect love.

4. Finish, then, Thy new creation,
Pure and spotless let us be;
Let us see Thy great salvation,
Perfectly restored in Thee:
Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heav'n we take our place,
Till we cast our crowns before Thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

* This second verse is not found in the revised copy of John Wesley's hymn book, as published in London, in 1874. Some older copy must have contained it from which Dr. Sumners quoted it into the So. Meth. H.-B. "Take away our bent of sinning," in both the So. Meth. H.-B. and the English edition of 1874, was, at first, according to David Cramer, of Baltimore, "Take away our pow'r of sinning." And this is sound doctrine. (See 1 John, iii, 9.—W. H., Sept. 24th, 1877.)

God's free bounty glorify;
True belief, and true repentance,—
Every grace that brings you nigh;
Without money,
Come to Jesus Christ and buy.

He doubt is no a - ble, more:

3. Let not conscience make you linger,
Nor of fitness fondly dream:
All the fitness He requireth
Is, to feel your need of Him;
This He gives you,
'T is the Spirit's glimm'ring beam.

4. Come, ye weary, heavy-laden,
Bruised and mangled by the fall;
If you tarry till you're better,
You will never come at all:
Not the righteous,
Sinners Jesus came to call.

1. 2.

5. Agonizing in the garden,
Lo! your Maker prostrate lies;
On the bloody tree behold Him!
Hear Him cry, before He dies,
"It is finished!"
Sinners, will not this suffice?

6. Lo! th' incarnate God, ascending,
Pleads the merit of His blood;
Venture on Him, venture freely;
Let no other trust intrude:
None but Jesus
Can do helpless sinners good.

7. Saints and angels, joined in concert,
Sing the praises of the Lamb,
While the blissful seats of heaven
Sweetly echo with His name:
Hallelujah!
Sinners here may do the same.

Some for Cephas; none agree:
Jesus, let us hear Thee call us;
Help us, Lord, to follow Thee!
Then we'll rush thro' what encumbers,
Over every hindrance leap,
Undismayed by force or numbers:
Come, Good Shepherd, feed thy sheep!

4. Come, good Lord, with courage arm us!
Persecution rages here:
Nothing, Lord, we know can harm us,
While our Shepherd, Christ, is near:
Glory! glory! to Jesus!
At His name our spirits leap:
He both comforts us and frees us:
The Good Shepherd feeds His sheep.

3. Lord, in us there is no merit;
We've been sinners from our youth:
Guide us, Lord, by Thy good Spirit,
Which shall teach us all the truth:
On Thy gospel word we'll venture,
Till in death's cold arms we sleep;
Love our Lord, and Christ, our Savior:
Oh, Good Shepherd, feed Thy sheep!

6. Hear the Prince of our salvation
Saying, "Fear not, little flock:
I myself am your foundation;
Ye are built upon this Rock;
Shun the paths of vice and folly;
Scale the mount, altho' tis steep;
Look to me, and be ye holy!
I delight to feed my sheep."

5. Christ alone, whose merit saves us—
Taught by Him we'll own His name:
Sweetest of all names is Jesus;
How it doth our souls inflame!
Glory! glory! glory! glory!
Give him glory, He will keep:
He will clear your way before you:
The Good Shepherd feeds His sheep.

Weep, believe, and sin no more.

NOTE.—This long and most glorious hymn, which I quote entire from the Wesleyan Meth. Hymn-Book, London edition of 1874, is cut up into several pieces in the So. Meth. Hymn-Book. Americans are always in such a hurry to dash from one thing to another they will not stay at one thing long enough to get ^{the} wood of it. —H. H.

SILAS M. HISSHM. Some harmonic changes by WM. HAUSER, M. D.

1. See how great a flame aspires, Kin-dled by a spark of grace! Je-sus' love the na-tions fires,

2. To bring fire on earth He came; Kin-dled in some hearts it is: Oh, that all might catch the flame,

Set a the king-doms in a blaze.

All par-take the glo-rious bliss!

3. When He first the work begun,
Small and feeble was His day:
Now the word doth swiftly run,
Now it wins its widening way.
6. Jesus, mighty to redeem,
He alone the work hath wrought;
Worthy is the work of Him,
Him who spake a world from nought.
4. More and more it spreads and grows,
Ever mighty to prevail;
Sin's strongholds it now o'erthrows,
Shakes the trembling gates of hell.
7. Saw ye not the cloud arise,
Little as a human hand?
Now it spreads along the skies,
Hangs o'er all the thirsty land.
5. Sons of God, your Savior praise!
He the door hath opened wide;
He hath giv'n the word of grace;
Jesu's word is glorified.
8. Lo! the promise of a show'r
Drops already from above;
But the Lord will shortly pour
All the spirit of His love.

And freely enter in.
3. Tho' dark and drear the passage
That leadeth to the gate,
Yet grace attends the message,
To souls that watch and wait;
And, at the time appointed,
A messenger comes down,
And guides the Lord's anointed,
From cross to glory's crown.
4. There sighs are lost in singing;
They're blessed in their tears:
Their journey heavenward winging,
They leave on earth their fears;
Death like an angel seemin,g,
"We welcome thee!" they cry:
Their face with glory beaming,
'Tis life for them to die.

WM. HAUSER, M. D., April 30th, 1870.

Wm. Hauser's Whist.

1. O - ver the riv - er they beck - on me, Lov'd ones who've pass'd to the oth - er side; The gleam of their snow - y robes I see,

2. There's one with ring-lets of sun - ny gold, Eyes the re-flec-tion of heav'n's own blue: He cross'd in the twi - light grey and cold,

But their voi - ces are lost in the dash-ing tide.

And the pale mist bid him from mor - tal view.

3. We saw not the angels who met him there,
The gates of the city we could not see —
Over the river; yes, over there,
My brother stands ready to welcome me.
4. Over the river the boatman pale,
Carried another, the household pot;
Her bright curls waved in the evening gale;
Sweet darling Minnie! I see her yet.
5. She crossed on her bosom her dimpled hands,
And fearlessly entered the phantom bark;
We watched it glide from the silver sands,
And all our sunshine grew strangely dark.
6. We know she is safe on the other side,
Where all the ransomed and angels be;
Over the river, the mystic stream,
My childhood's treasures are waiting me.
7. For none return from those quiet shores,
Who cross with the boatman cold and pale;
We hear the dip of the golden oars,
We catch a gleam of the snowy sail,—
8. And let they've passed from our weeping heart —
They cross the stream, and are gone for aye!
We cannot sunder the veil apart
That hides from our vision the gates of day.
9. We only know that their bark no more
Shall sail with ours on life's stormy sea;
Yet somehow I hope, on that unseen shore,
They watch, and beckon, and wait for me.
10. And I sit and think, when the sunset's gold
Is flushing the river, the hill and shore,
I shall one day stand by the water cold,
And list to the sound of the boatman's oar.
11. I shall watch for the gleam of the flapping sail,
I shall hear the boat as it gains the strand;
I shall pass from sight, with the boatman pale,
To the better shore of the spirit land.
12. I shall know the loved who have gone before;
And joyfully sweet shall the meeting be
When, over the river, the peaceful stream,
The angel of death shall carry me.

SING HALLELUJAH, PRAISE THE LORD. 8s & 6s. Iambic.

237

From REV. PETER WÖLÉ's "Moravian Tune-Book."

1. Sing hal - le - lu - jah! Praise the Lord! Sing, with a cheer - ful voice! Ne'er cease to praise, O ran - som'd host;
 Ex - alt our God with one ac - cord, And in His name re - joice! Praise Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost,

D.C. Un - til, in end - less realms of light, Your prais - es shall u - nite!

2. There we, to all eternity,
 Shall join th' angelic lays;
 And sing, in perfect harmony,
 To God our Savior's praise:
 He hath redeemed us by His blood,
 And made us kings and priests to God;
 For us, for us, the Lamb was slain:
 Praise ye the Lord! Amen!

3. Sing hallelujah! Praise the Lord,
 All ye who love His word:
 Sing praises to the Triune God;
 Praise ye the Sovereign Lord:
 The Savior's blood was shed for us,
 To save us from the bitter curse
 That sin inflicts on all our race:
 Praise ye the Lord! Amen!

2. Earth is all vanity,
 False as 't is fleeting;
 Grief is in all its joy,
 Smiles with tears meeting:
 Youth's brightest hopes decay,
 Pass, like morn's gems, away,
 Too fair on earth to stay,
 Where all is fleeting.

3. When in their lonely bed
 Loved ones are lying;
 When joyful wings are spread,
 To heaven flying;
 Would we to sin and pain
 Call their souls back again,
 Weave around their hearts the chain
 Severed in dying?

4. No, dearest Jesus, no;
 To thee, their Savior,
 Let their free spirits go,
 Ransomed forever;
 Heirs of unending joy,
 Theirs is the victory;
 Thine let the glory be,
 Now, and forever!

2. Years ago, her gentle voice
Fill'd my heart with pleasure;
And life's lot was full of joys,
With this single treasure:
But no joy earth now can give,
Tempting with the wish to live,
And I linger but to grieve
For the dear lost treasure.

3. All alone she calmly sleeps,
Underneath the willow;
And the hare-bell mutely weeps
Tears upon her pillow:
But her face still brightly beams,
Coming to me in my dreams—
Like an angel's still it seems—
Bending o'er my pillow.

2. Could my tears forever flow,
Could my zeal no languor know,
These for sin could not atone;
Thou must save, and Thou alone:
In my hand no price I bring,
Simply to Thy cross I cling.

3. While I draw this fleeting breath,
When my eyes shall close in death,
When I rise to worlds unknown,
And behold Thee on Thy throne,
Rock of ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee!

1. Glory be to God above!
God from whom all blessings flow:
Make we mention of His love;
Publish we His praise below!

2. Called together by his grace,
We are met in Jesu's name;
See, with joy, each other's face;
Followers of the bleeding Lamb.

3. Let us, then, sweet counsel take,
How to make our calling sure:
Our election how to make
Past the reach of hell, secure.

4. Build we each the other up;
Pray we for our faith's increase,
Solid comfort, settled hope,
Constant joy, and lasting peace..

5. More and more let love abound:
Let us never, never rest,
Till in Jesus we are found,
Of our Paradise possest.

6. He removes the flaming sword;
Calls us back, from Eden driv'n;

2. Come to the happy land,
 Come, come away!
 Why will you doubting stand?
 Why yet delay?
 O we shall happy be,
 When, from sin and sorrow free,
 Lord, we shall live with Thee,
 Blest, blest for aye.*

3. Bright, in that happy land,
 Beams every eye;
 Kept by the Father's hand,
 Love cannot die:
 O, then, to glory run!
 Be a crown and kingdom won!
 And, bright above the sun,
 We'll reign for aye.

Praise! praise for aye!

 Could I think a tempest nigh ?

3. Little then myself I knew,
 Little thought of Satan's pow'r ;
 Now I find their words were true ;
 Now I feel the stormy hour !
 Sin has put my joys to flight ;
 Sin has changed my day to night.

4. Satan asks, and mocks my woe,
 " Boaster, where is now your God ?"
 Silence, Lord, this cruel foe,
 Let him know I 'm bought with blood :
 Tell him, since I know Thy name,
 Tho' I change, Thou art the same.

5. Savior shine and cheer my soul !
 Bid my dying hopes revive !
 Make my wounded spirit whole,
 Far away the tempter drive :
 Speak the word, and set me free ;
 Let me live alone to Thee !

They have left my Saylor too;
Human hearts and looks deceive me,
Thou art not like them, untrue;
And whilst Thou shalt smile upon me,
God of wisdom, love and might,
Foes may hate, and friends disown me;
Show Thy face and all is bright.
3. Go, then, earthly fame and treasure;
Come, disaster, scorn, and pain:
In Thy service pain is pleasure,
With Thy favor loss is gain.
I have called Thee Abba, Father,
I have set my heart on Thee;
Storms may howl, and clouds may gather,
All must work for good to me.
4. Man may trouble and distress me,
I will but drive me to Thy breast;
Life with trials hard may press me,
Heaven will bring me sweeter rest.
O, 't is not in grief to harm me
While Thy love is left to me;
O, 't were not in joy to charm me,
Were that joy unmix'd with Thee.
5. Soul, then know thy full salvation,
Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care;
Joy to find in every station,
Something still to do and bear:
Think what Spirit dwells within thee;
Think what Father's smiles are thine;
Think that Jesus died to win thee;
Child of heaven canst thou repine?

2. Strive we, in affection strive:

Let the purer flame revive,
Such as in the martyrs glow'd,
Dying champions for their God.
We for Christ, our Master, stand,
Lights in a benighted land:
We our dying Lord confess,
We are Jesus' witnesses.

3. Witnesses that Christ hath died:

We with Him are crucified:
Christ hath burst the bonds of death;
We His quick'ning Spirit breathe.—
Christ is now gone up on high;
Thither all our wishes fly:—
Sits at God's right hand above;
There with Him we reign in love!

4. Come, Thou high and lofty Lord!

Lowly, meek, incarnate Word:
Humbly stoop to earth again:
Come, and visit abject man!
Jesus, dear expected Guest,
Thou art bidden to the feast:
For Thyself our hearts prepare:
Come, and sit, and banquet there!

5. Jesus, we Thy promise claim:

We are met in Thy great name:
In the midst do Thou appear,
Manifest Thy presence here!
Sanctify us, Lord, and bless;
Breathe Thy Spirit, give Thy peace:
Thou Thyself within us move;
Make our feast a feast of love.

6. Make us all in Thee complete;

Make us all all for glory meet—
Meet t' appear before Thy sight,
Partners with Thy saints in light.
Call, O call us each by name,
To the marriage of the Lamb:
Let us lean upon Thy breast;
Love be there our endless rest!
