4. Great spoils I shall win
From death, hell, and sin,
Midst outward affliction
Shall feel Christ within:
And when I'm to die,
"Receive me!" I'll cry;
For Jesus hath lov'd me,
I cannot tell why.

5. But this I do find,
We two are so join'd
He'll not live in glory
And leave me behind:
So, this is the race
I'm running thro' grace,
Henceforth, till admitted
To see my Lord's face.

6. And now I'm in care
My neighbors may share
These blessings; to seek them
Will none of you dare?
In bondage, oh why,
And death will you lie,
When one here assures you
Free grace is so nigh?

BEYOND THE RIVER.

First verse, REV. JNO. ATKINSON.

HENRY E. ENGLE, of West Virginia.

1. We shall meet be - yond the riv - er, By and by, by and by; With the toil - some jour - ney done,
 And the dark - ness will be o - ver, By and by, by and by;

2. Down with all of earth's delusion, By and by! by and by!
 War and strife, and sin's confusion, By and by! by and by!
 We shall rest our pilgrim feet, By and by! by and by!
 On the shores where lov'd ones meet, By and by! by and by!
 There to dwell in bliss complete,
 3. Hallelujah! hallelujah! Glory be to God on high!
 Glory to the Lamb forever! Glory be to God Most High!
 Glory to the Holy Spirit! Witnesser of Jesus' merit:
 Glory, thro' the earth and heaven, To the Triune God be giv'n!

JESUS THE GOOD SHEPHERD.

MISS DOROTHY ANN THRUPP, 1830.

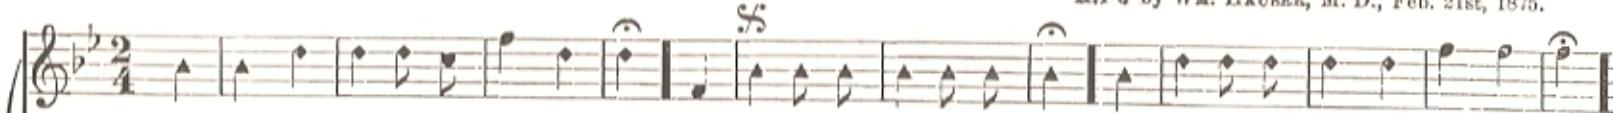

1. Savior, like a shepherd lead us;
Much we need Thy tender care:
In Thy pleasant pastures feed us,
For our use Thy fold prepare.
2. We are Thine; do Thou befriend us;
Be the Guardian of our way:
Keep Thy flock; from sin defend us;
Seek us when we go astray.

THE GOSPEL JUBILEE.

From Eng. "Congregational Hymn-Book." W. WILLIAMS.

1. O'er the gloomy hills of darkness
Look, my soul, be still and gaze!
All the promises do travail
With a glorious day of grace:
Blessed jubilee,
Let Thy glorious morning dawn!
2. Let the Indian, let the Negro,
Let the rude barbarian see
That Divine and glorious conquest,
Once obtain'd on Calvary:
Let the gospel
Loud resound from pole to pole!
3. Kingdom's wide, that sit in darkness,
Grant them, Lord, the glorious light
And, from Eastern coast to Western,
May the morning chase the night!
And redemption
Freely purchased, win the day.
4. May the glorious day, approaching,
Thine eternal love proclaim;
And the everlasting gospel
Spread abroad Thy holy name,
O'er the borders
Of the great Imanuel's land!
5. Fly abroad, thou mighty gospel!
Win and conquer, never cease;
May Thy lasting, wide dominion,
Multiply and still increase!
Sway Thy sceptre,
Savior, all the world around!

2. Now we feel the Advent glory:
While the Savior seems to tarry,
We will comfort one another,
And be trusting in His name:
Are your garments ready?
Are your garments ready?
Are your garments ready?
For the marriage of the Lamb!

3. We are all a band of strangers,
Traveling thro' a world of dangers;
But King Jesus leads us onward,
And we'll conquer ev'ry foe:
Come, and join our army,
Come, and join our army,
Come, and join our army,
And defend the Savior's cause.

4. In the midst of opposition
We will keep the same position,
And be waiting for the promise:
For the breaking of the day:
Then we'll have deliv'erance,
Then we'll have deliv'erance,
Then we'll have deliv'erance,
Who've enlisted for the war.

5. By faith we can discover
Our warfare 'll soon be over,
Then we'll gladly hail each other
Upon Canaan's happy shore:
When we pass over Jordan,
When we pass over Jordan,
When we pass over Jordan,
We will live to die no more.

6. O ye saints of God, take courage!
Ye shall soon be free from bondage,
For the Savior leads the army,
And you'll surely gain the day:
When we gain the victory,
When we gain the victory,
When we gain the victory,
We will lay our armor by.

7. Come, then, all ye valiant soldiers,
And be armed with truth and cour-
Moust conquer ev'ry nation [age];
Who opposes this holy war:
Let us die in the army,
Let us die in the army,
Let us die in the army,
And we'll reign above the sky.

8. In the days of earth's dominion,
Christ has promised men Kingdom;
'Tis not left to other nations,
And shall never be destroyed:
It shall stand forever,
It shall stand forever,
It shall stand forever,
And the saints possess the land.

9. We will keep the ark in motion,
While we're sailing o'er the ocean;
And we'll keep ourselves all ready
To proclaim the heav'nly King:
When we meet the Sa-vior,
When we meet the Sa-vior,
When we meet the Sa-vior,
Then, how happy we shall be!

WM. HAUSER, M. D., May 31st, 1878.

1. Sinners come, one and all;
Come to the Savior!
Heed at once Jesus' call,
Now seek His favor!
Your hearts will then repose,
Safe from each blast that blows,
In this dark vale of woes,
Ever; yes, ever.

Then joys Divine will thrill;
Then bliss each soul fill;
And fears of parting chill,
Never; no, never.

2. Then shall love freely flow,
Pure as life's river;
Then shall sweet friendship glow,

THE OLDEST CHRISTIAN HYMN.

Copied from Baltimore Ep. Meth.

In Paed., Book III., of Clement of Alexandria, is given, in Greek, the most ancient hymn of the primitive Christians. It is there asserted (150 years after the apostles) to be of much earlier origin. It may have been sung by the "beloved disciple," before he ascended to his reward. The following imperfect version will give some idea of its spirit:

to-ri-ous, Come, and reign o-ver us, An-cient of days!

word suc-cess; Spir-it of ho-li-ness, On us de-scend!

1. Shepherd of tender youth,
Guiding in love and truth,
Through devious ways;
Christ, our triumphant King!

We come Thy name to sing;

And here our children bring,

To shout Thy praise.

2. Thou art our holy Lord,

The all subduing Word,

Healer of strife!

Thou didst Thyself abuse,

That, from sin's deep disgrace

Thou mightst save our race,

And give us life.

3. Thou wisdon'st great High Priest!

Thou hast prepared the least

Of holy love!

And in our mortal pain

None call on Thee in vain;
Help Them dost not disdain—
Help from above,

4. Ever be Thou our Guide,
Our Shepherd and our pride,
Our staff and song!
Jesus! Thou Christ of God!
By Thy perpetual word,
Lead us where Thou hast trod,
Strike our with strong!

6. So now, and till we die,
Sound we Thy praise on high,
And joyful sing:
Infants, and the glad throng,
Who to Thy church belong,
Unite and swell the song
To "thirst our King!"

3. Little children, let us sing
Praises to our heav'nly King;
He will take us to our home on high:

Where our friends, who've gone before,
Suffer pain and grief no more,
And where streams of joy are flowing by.—Cho.

A stranger to the gospel hope,
The sense of sin forgiv'n;
I would not, Lord, my soul deceiv'e,
Without the inward Witness live,
That antepast of heav'n.

Would He not testify of Thee,
Is Jesus reconciled?
And should I not, with faith, draw nigh,
And boldly Abba, Father, cry,
And know myself a child?

INDIAN'S FAREWELL. 6 lines, 7s.

Three Indian students at Dartmouth College, N. H., were the origin of this piece.

Arr'd by WM. WALKER and WM. HAUSER, M. D.

1. When shall we all meet a - gain? When shall we all meet a - gain? Oft shall glow- ing hope ex - pire, Oft shall wea - ried love re - tire,
 2. Tho' in dis - tant lands we sigh, Parch'd be-neath a hos - tile sky, Tho' the deep be-tween us rolls, Friendship shall u - nite our souls;
 3. When our burnished locks are gray, Chinined by many a toll-spent day, When, around the youthful pine, Moss shall creep, and ivy twine, Long may the loved bower remain,
 Ere we all shall meet again!
 4. When the dreams of life are fled, When its wasted lamps are dead, When, in cold oblivion's shade, Beauty, wealth, and fame are laid, Where immortal spirits reign,
 There may we all meet again!

Oft shall death and sor - row reign, Ere we all shall meet a - gain.
 And in Fan - cy's wide do-main, Oft shall we all meet a - gain.

A P R A Y E R.

By "ISOLINE," of Val Dosta, Ga.

1. When, before my spirit's eye,
Dreams and fancies flicker by,
If earth's scenes, so bright and gay,
Tempt my soul from Thee to stray,
By Thy Spirit may I be Drawn, my Savior, nearer Thee!
2. If, around my chequered way,
Aught would fill me with dismay,
If temptations, like a flood,
Seek to drive me from my God ;
Even that moment, let me flee
Nearer Jesus, nearer Thee !
3. Thou dost know my feeble frame :
(Thou unchangeable, the same,)
Thou didst feel the tempter's power,
In his darkest, fiercest hour :
Thou didst die, that I might be,
By Thy cross, drawn near to Thee.
4. May Thy love constrain my heart ;
Let me ne'er from Thee depart :
Ne'er Thy Holy Spirit grieve ;
Ne'er the living waters leave ;
Hold me, Savior ! let me be
Every evening nearer Thee !

2. I love to meet among them now,

Before Thy gracious feet to bow,

Tho' vilest of them all :

But can I bear the piercing thought :

What if my name should be left out,

When Thou for them shalt call ?

3. Prevent it, Lord, by Thy rich grace !

Be Thou my soul's sure hiding place,

In this, th' accepted, day !

Thy pard'ning voice oh let me hear,

To still my unbelieving fear ;

Nor let me fall, I pray !

4. Let me among Thy saints be found,

RICHFIELD. 9s & 6s.

MISS LIZZIE HELME, Providence, R. I.

1868.

PROF. WM. E. CHUTE, in Richfield, Hennepin Co., Minn., April, 1870.

The musical score consists of three staves of music in common time, key signature of one sharp, featuring a soprano vocal line, a basso continuo line, and a bass vocal line. The vocal parts are written in a cursive musical notation system.

1. There is no night in heav'n; no sleep-ing; There no sor - row there; no weep-ing: No gath'-ring shades, no skies be cloud-ed;

2. There is no pain in heav'n, nor an-guish; No wea - ry pil - grims faint, or lan-guish: No moan-ing winds are ev - er sigh-ing

No strick - en hearts in gloom enshrouded; 'Tis sweet to dream of heav'n!

Sad dirg - es for the dead, or dy - ing: How sweet to think of heav'n!

3. There are no graves in heav'n, no dying; No cherish'd ones on sick-beds lying; No midnight watchings dark and dreary; No travelers way-worn and weary: 'Tis sweet to dream of heav'n!

4. Faith looks beyond the tomb's dark portals, And views, with joy, the blest immortals, Who tread those plains and fields Elysian: How sweet the thought! How blest the vision! Eternal bliss in heav'n!

THE LAND BEYOND THE CLOUDS. 10s & 7s. Iambic.

3. We may not know how sweet its balmy air,
How bright and fair its flowers;
We may not hear the songs that echo there,
Thro' those enchanting bowers.
4. The city's shining tow'rs we may not see,
With our dim, mundane vision;
For Death, the silent warder, keeps the key,
That opes the bright Elysian.
5. But sometimes, when adown the Western sky
The fiery sunset lingers,
The golden gates swing inward, tunefully,
Unlocked by unseen fingers.
6. And while they stand a moment, half ajar,
Gleams, from the inner glory,
Stream brightly thro' the azured vault afar,
And half reveal its story.
7. O land unknown! O land of love Divine!—
Father All-wise, Eternal,
Guide, guide these wand'ring, way-worn feet of mine,
To those sweet valleys vernal!

2. The God of Abrah'm praise,
At whose supreme command
From earth I rise, and seek the joys
At His right hand :
I all on earth forsake,
Its wisdom, fame, and pow'r ;
And Him my only portion make,
My shield and tow'r.

3. The God of Abrah'm praise,
Whose all sufficient grace
Shall guide me all my happy days
In all His ways :
He calls a worm His friend !
He calls Himself my God !
And He will save me to the end,
Thro' Jesus' blood.

4. He by Himself hath sworn,
(On His oath depend,)
I shall, on angel wings upborne,
To heav'n ascend :
I shall behold His face,
I shall His pow'r adore,
And sing the wonders of His grace
Forever more.

With peace and plenty blest;
A land of sacred liberty,
And endless rest.
There milk and honey flow;

And oil and wine abound;
And trees of life forever grow,
With mercy crown'd.

3. There dwells the Lord our King,
The Lord our righteousness,
Triumphant o'er the world and sin,
The Prince of peace;
On Zion's sacred height,

His Kingdom still maintains;
And, glorious with His saints in light,
Forever reigns.

4. He keeps His own secure,
He guards them by His side,
Arrays in garments white and pure
His spotless bride:
With streams of sacred bliss,

With groves of living joys,
With all the fruits of Paradise,
He still supplies.

Third part. THOMAS OLIVERS, of England, 1772.

Air by GOULD. Parts arr'd by WM. HAUSER, M. D.

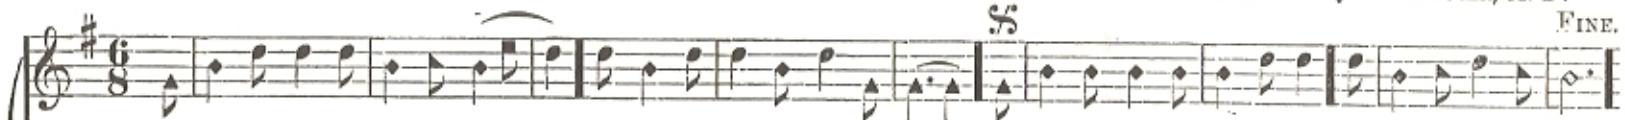

1. The God who reigns on high, The great arch-an-gels sing, And, "Ho - ly! ho - ly! ho - ly!" cry, All mighty King! Who was, and is, the same,

2. Before the Savior's face
The ransom'd nations bow ;
O'erwhelmed at His Almighty grace,
Forever new :
He shows His prints of love ;
They kindle to a flame,
And sound, thro' all the worlds above,
The slaughtered Lamb.

3. The whole triumphant host
Give thanks to God on high ;
"Hail, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost!"
They ever cry.
Hail, Abra'm's God, and mine !
(I join the heavenly lays,)
All might and majesty are Thine,
And endless praise !

The storms of life will soon be o'er,
And I shall find the peaceful shore
Of everlasting rest.
O happy day! O joyful hour, [tow'r
When, freed from earth, my soul shall
Beyond the reach of Satan's pow'r,
To be forever blest!

4. The' dire afflictions press me sore,
And death's black billows roll before,
Yet still, by faith, I see the shore,
Beyond the swelling flood.
The heav'nly Canaan, sweet and fair,
Before my raptured eyes appears;
It makes me almost think I'm there,
In yonder bright abode.

3. My soul anticipates the day,—
I'd joyfully the call obey,
Which comes to summon me away
To seats prepared above:
There I shall see my Savior's face,
And dwell in His beloved embrace,
And taste the fulness of His grace,
And sing redeeming love.

5. To earthly cares I'd say farew'l,
And triumph over death and hell,
And go where saints and angels dwell,
To praise th' Eternal Three.
I'll join with those who've gone before,
Whasing and shout their suff'ringso're,
Where pain and parting are no more,
To all eternity.

D.S.

6. Allelu, ye scenes of noise and snow,
And all this region here below,
Where naught but disappointments grow!
A better world's in view;
My Savior calls—I haste away,
I would not here forever stay;
Hail! ye bright realms of endless day;
Vain world, once more adieu!

1. None is like Jesh - u - run's God, So great, so strong, so high:

God, th' Al - might - y God, is thine:

2. Thee the great Jehovah deigns
 To succor and defend;
 Thee th' Eternal God sustains,
 Thy Maker and Thy Friend:
 Israel, what hast thou to dread?
 Safe from all impending harms,
 Round thee, and beneath, are spread
 The everlasting arms.

3. God is thine; disdain to fear
 The enemy within;
 God shall in thy flesh appear,
 And make an end of sin:
 God the man of sin shall slay,
 Fill thee with triumphant joy;
 God shall thrust him out, and say,
 "Destroy them all! destroy!"

4. All thy struggle then is o'er,
 And wars and fightings cease;
 Israel then shall sin no more,
 But dwell in perfect peace:
 All his enemies are gone;
 Sin shall have in him no part:
 Israel now shall dwell alone,
 With Jesus in his heart.

5. In a land of corn and wine
 His lot shall be below;
 Comforts there, and blessings join,
 And milk and honey flow:
 Jacob's well is in his soul;
 Gracious dews his heav'n's distil,
 Fill his soul, already full,
 And shall forever fill.

6. Blest, O Israel art thou!
 What people is like thee?
 Sav'd from sin, by Jesus, now
 Thou art, and still shalt be;
 Jesus is thy seven-fold shield;
 Jesus is thy flaming sword,
 Earth, and hell, and sin, shall yield
 To God's Almighty word.

 And lead me to Jesus for peace—
 The Rock that is higher than I.
 Speak, Savior! for sweet is Thy voice;
 Thy presence is fair to behold:
 Attend to my sorrows and cries—
 My groanings that cannot be told.

3. If sometimes I strive, as I mourn,
 My hold on Thy promise to keep,
 The billows more fiercely return
 And plunge me again in the deep:
 While harassed, and cast from Thy sight,
 The tempter suggests, with a roar,
 "The Lord has forsaken thee quite,
 Thy God will be gracious no more."

4. Yet, Lord, if Thy love hath design'd
 No covenant blessing for me,
 Ah, tell me, how is it I find
 Some pleasure in waiting for Thee?
 Almighty to rescue Thou art;
 Thy grace is my shield and my tow'r:
 Come, succor and gladden my heart;
 Let this be the day of Thy pow'r.

are come,
And when to Jordan's flood we are come—
Jehovah rules the tide,
And the waters He'll divide,
And the ransomed host shall shout, "we are come! we are come!"
And the ransomed host shall shout, "we are come!"

6. Then friends shall meet again, who have loved,
who have loved.
Then friends shall meet again, who have loved,
Our embraces will be sweet,
At the dear Redeemer's feet,
When we meet to part no more, who have loved, who have loved,
When we meet to part no more, who have loved.

7. Then with all the happy throng we'll rejoice,
we'll rejoice,
Then with all the happy throng we'll rejoice,
Shouting, "Glory to our King!"
While the vaults of heaven ring;
And thro' all eternity we'll rejoice, we'll rejoice,
And thro' all eternity we'll rejoice.

Air, I suspect, by the late REV. WM. ARNOLD, of Ga. Arr'd by WM. HAUSER, M. D.

1. O how hap - py are they, Who the Sa - vior o - bey, And have laid up their treas - ure a - bove! Tongue can - not ex - press

2. That com - fort was mine, When the fa - vor Di - vine I first found in the blood of the Lamb; When my heart it be - liev'd,

The sweet com - fort and peace Of a soul in its ear - li - est love.

What a joy I re - ceiv'd! What a hea - ven in Je - sus - 's name.

3. 'Twas a heaven below
My Redeemer to know;
And the angels could do nothing more
Than fall at his feet,
And the story repeat,
And the Lover of Sinners adore.

4. Jesus all the day long
Was my joy and my song:
Oh that all His salvation might see!
He hath loved me, I cried,
He hath suffered and died,
To redeem such a rebel as me!

5. On the wings of His love
I was carried above
All sin, and temptation, and pain;
I could not believe
That I ever should grieve,
That I ever should suffer again.

6. I rode on the sky,
Freely justified I,
Nor did envy Elijah his seat;
My soul mounted higher,
In a chariot of fire,
And the moon it was under my feet.

7. O the rapturous height
Of that holy delight,
Which I felt in the life-giving blood!
Of my Savior possess'd
I was perfectly bless'd,
As if filled with the fulness of God!

1. How hap - py are we, Who in Je - sus) a - gree To ex - pect His re - turn from a - bove! We sit un - der His vine,

2. How pleas - ant and sweet, In His name when we meet, Is His fruit to our spir - it - ual taste! We are ban - quett - ed here,

3. Invited by Him,
We drink of the stream
Ever flowing in bliss, from the
the throne!
Who in Jesus believe
We the Spirit receive
That proceeds from the Father and Son.

6. We remember the word
Of our crucified Lord
When He went to prepare us a place:
"I will come in that day,
And transport you away,
And admit to a sight of My face."

And de - light-ful - ly join In the praise of His ex - cel - lent love,

On an - gel - - cal cheer, And the joys that e - ter - nal - ly last.

4. The unspeakable grace
He obtained for our race,
And the Spirit of faith His im -
parts:
Then, then we conceive,
How in he - ven they live,
By the kingdom of God in our hearts.

7. With earnest desire
After Thee we aspire,
And long Thy appearing to see;
Till our souls Thou receive,
In Thy presence to live,
And be perfectly happy in Thee.

5. True believers have seen
The Savior of men,
As His head He on Calvary bow'd:
We shall see Him again,
When, with all His bright
train,
He descends on the luminous
cloud.

8. Come, Lord, from the skies,
And command us to rise,
Ready made for the mansions
above;
With our Head to ascend,
And eternity spend
In a rapture of heavenly love.

REV. C. WESLEY.

The plaintive notes of this tune came to heart, with the accompanying hymn, 1842. WM. HAUSER, M. D.

1. Ah! where am I now? When was it, or how, That I fell from my hea - ven of grace? I am brought in - to thrall, I am

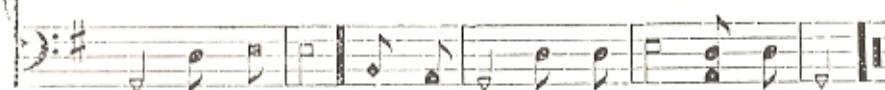

2. Hard - ly yet do I know How I let my Lord go, So in - sen - si - bly start - ing a - side; When the tempt - er came in With his stripp'd of my all, I am ban - ish'd from Je - sus - 's face, own sub - tle sin, And in - feet - ed my spir - it with pride.

3. But I felt it too soon,
That my Savior was gone,
Swiftly vanishing out of my sight;
My triumph and boast
On a sudden were lost,
And my day it was turn'd into night.

4. Only pride could destroy
That innocent joy,
And make my Redeemer depart
But whate'er was the cause,
I lament the sad loss,
For the veil is come over my heart.

5. "Ah! wretch that I am!"
I can only exclaim,
Like a devil, tormented within;
My Savior is gone,
And has left me alone,
To the fury of Satan and sin.

6. Nothing now can relieve;
Without comfort, I grieve:
I have lost all my peace and my power;

No access do I find
To the Friend of mankind;
I can ask for His mercy no more.

7. Tongue cannot declare
The torment I bear,
While no end to my troubles I see:
Only Adam could tell,
On the day that he fell,
And was turned out of Eden like me.

8. Driven out from my God,
I wander abroad;
Thro' a desert of sorrow I rove:
How great is my pain,
That I cannot regain
My Eden of Jesus's love!

9. I never shall rise
To my first paradise,
Or come my Redeemer to see.
But I feel a faint hope
That at last He will stoop,
And His pity will bring Him to me.

fa - vor, Who come at His call; Oh, come to the Sa - vior! His grace is for all.

4. Oh, let me command
My Savior to you;
The publican's Friend,
And Advocate too;
For you He is pleading
His merits and death;
With God interceding
For sinners beneath.

5. Then let us submit
His grace to receive;
Fall down at His feet,
And gladly believe;
We all are forgiven,
For Jesus's sake;
Our title to heaven,
His merits, we take.

DR. WATTS. Ps. 122.

WM. HAUSER, M. D. The 4th verse of this psalm was the inspiration of this tune, perhaps about 1858.

TRUST IN GOD.

WATTS—Ps. 136.

- Give thanks to God most high,
The universal Lord;
The sovereign King of kings:
And be His grace adored!
His power and grace
Are still the same;
And let His name
Have endless praise.
- How mighty is His hand!
What wonders hath He done!
He formed the earth and seas,
And spread the heavens alone.
Thy mercy, Lord,
Shall still endure;
And ever sure
Abides Thy word.
- He saw the nations lie
All perishing in sin,
And pit'd the sad state
The ruined world was in:
- Thy mercy, Lord,
Shall still endure;
And ever sure
Abides Thy word.
- He sent His only Son,
To save us from our woe,
From Satan, sin, and death,
And every hurtful foe.
His power and grace
Are still the same;
And let His name
Have endless praise.
- Give thanks to God aloud,
To God the heavenly King;
And let the spacious earth
His works and glories sing
Thy mercy, Lord,
Shall still endure;
And ever sure
Abides Thy word.

2. Re - joice! the Sa - vior reigns, The God of truth and love;
When He had purg'd our stains He took His seat a - bove: Chorus.

saints re - joice! Re - joice! a - gain I say, Re - joice!

3. His kingdom cannot fail ;
He rules o'er earth and heav'n ;
The keys of death and hell,
Are to our Jesus giv'u :
Lift up the heart, lift up the voice,
Rejoice aloud, ye saints, rejoice !
Rejoice again I say, rejoice !
4. He all His foes shall quell,
Shall all our sins destroy,
And ev'ry bosom swell
With pure seraphic joy :
Lift up the heart, lift up the voice,
Rejoice aloud, ye saints, rejoice !
Rejoice aloud, ye saints, rejoice !
5. Rejoice in glorious hope !
Jesus the Judge will come,
And take His servants up,
To their eternal home :
We soon shall hear th' archangel's voice ;
The trump of God shall sound, rejoice !
The trump of God shall sound, rejoice !

X GATHERING CLOUDS. L. P. M.

REV. GEO. W. BETHUNE, D.D., Dutch Reformed minister. The last thing he ever wrote; on the day before his death. Arr'd by WM. HAUSER, M.D.,

1. When time seems short, and death is near, And I am press'd with doubt and fear,
And sins, an o - ver - flow - ing tide, As - sail my peace on ev - 'ry side, This thought my ref - uge still shall be:

I know the Sa - vior died for me, I know the Sa - vior died for me.

2. His name is Jesus, and He died—
For guilty sinners crucified;
Content to die, that He might win
Their ransom from the death of sin.
No sinner worse than I can be,
Therefore I know He died for me.

3. If grace were bought, I could not buy;
If grace were coined, no wealth have I;
By grace alone I draw my breath,
Held up from everlasting death;
Yet, since I know His grace is free,
I know the Savior died for me.

4. I read God's holy word, and find
Great truths that far transcend my mind,
And little do I know beside
Of thought so high, and deep, and wide.
This is my best theology,
I know the Savior died for me.

5. My faith is weak, but 'tis Thy gift;
Then castst my helpless soul uplift,
And say, "Thy bonds of death are riven,
Thy sins by Me are all forgiven,
And thou shalt live from guilt set free,
For I, thy Savior, died for thee."

CONFIDENCE. H. M. Iambic.

Arr'd by WM. HAUSER, M. D.

REV. C. WESLEY, 1742.

J P Barrett, 1824.

1. A - rise, my soul, a - rise! Shake off thy guilt - y fears! } Be - fore the throne my sure - ty stands,
The bleed - ing Sac - ri - fice In my be - half ap - pears: }

2. He ev - er lives a - bove, For me to in - ter - cede; } His blood a - tones for all our race,
His all re - deem - ing love, His pre - cious in blood to plead: }

My name is writ - ten on His hands.

And sprin - kles now the throne of grace.

3. Five bleeding wounds He bears,
Receiv'd on Calvary ;
They pour effectual prayers,
They strongly speak for me: [cry,
“Forgive Him! Oh forgive!” they
“Nor let that ransom'd sinner die!”

4. The Father hears Him pray,
His dear anointed One ;
He cannot turn away
The presence of His Son :
His Spirit answers to the blood,
And tells me I am born of God.

5. My God is reconciled,
His pard'ning voice I hear ;
He owns me for His child,
I can no longer fear :
With confidence I draw nigh,
And, “Father, Abba, Father!” cry.

1. Come a - way to the skies, And re - joice in the day thou wast born; On this fes - ti - val day, Come ex -
My be - lov - ed a - rise,

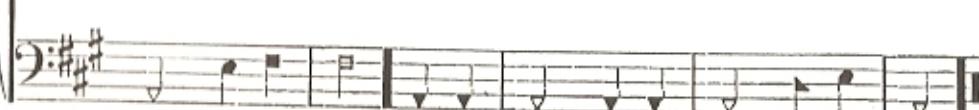

1. We have laid up our love, Tho' our bod - ies con - tin - ue be - low: The re - deem'd of the Lord, We re -
And our treas - ures, a - bove, ult - ing a - way, And with sing - ing to Zi - on re - turn.

mem - ber His word, And with sing - ing to Par - a-dise go.

3. With singing we praise The original grace,
By our heavenly Father bestow'd;
Our being receive From His bounty, and live
To the honor and glory of God.
4. For Thy glory we are Created to share,
Both the nature and kingdom Divine:
Created again, That our souls may remain
In time and eternity Thine.
5. With thanks we approve The design of Thy love,
Which hath joined us in Jesus's name;
So united in heart, That we never can part,
Till we meet at the feast of the Lamb.
6. There, there at His feet, We shall suddenly meet,
And be parted in body no more!
We shall sing to our lyres, With the heavenly choirs,
And our Savior in glory adore.
7. Hallelujah we sing, To our Father and King,
And His rapturous praises repeat:
To the Lamb that was slain, Hallelujah again,
Sing all heaven, and fall at His feet!
8. In assurance of hope, We to Jesus look up,
Till His banner, unfurled in the air,
From our graves we shall see, And cry out, "It is He!"
And fly up to acknowledge Him there.
