

I. SONGS OF SEEKING.

"Songs of Seeking, day by day,
 Sung while wearying on the way, —
 Feeble cries of one who knows
 Nor whence he comes, nor whither goes.
 Yet of his own free will doth wear
 The bloody Cross of those who fare
 Upward and on, in sad accord,
 The footsore Seekers of the Lord."

Molto Allegro.  $\text{♩} = 138$ .

The musical score is written for piano and consists of five systems of music. The first system begins with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature. It features a series of chords and melodic lines with dynamic markings of f, pp, and sf. A lunga marking is placed above a long note. A Ped. (pedal) marking is present below the staff. The second system continues the piece with similar dynamics and includes another lunga marking. The third system shows a change in dynamics to pp and ff, with a sf marking. The fourth system starts at measure 53, marked molto rit. and a tempo, with a tempo of  $\text{♩} = 69$  and the instruction espressivo. The fifth system concludes the piece with a f dynamic marking.
