AN ANCIENT CHRISTMAS CAROL.

BY

R. L. DE PEARSALL, Esq.,

(Of Willsbridge.)

London: NOVELLO, EWER AND CO., 1, Berners Street (W.), and 85, Poultry (E.C.)

The original melody employed, as a Cantus firmus, in the following composition, is to be found in an old German book published in the year 1570,—which, from its title and contents, appears to have contained the ritual of the Protestant Congregations of Zweibrücken and Neuburg. Even there it is called “A very ancient song (waltes Lied) for Christmas-eve;” so that there can be no doubt that it is one of those old Roman Catholic melodies which Luther, on account of their beauty, retained in the Protestant service. It was formerly sung in the processions which took place on Christmas-eve, and is so still in those remote parts of Germany where people yet retain old customs. The words are rather remarkable, being written half in Latin and half in the upper German dialect. I have translated them to fit the music, and endeavoured to preserve, as much as I could, the simplicity of the original. Of the melody there can be but one opinion; namely, that which in spite of religious animosity, secured its approbation of the Protestant reformers, and that of the German people during many centuries. The music in the following passages was written for and performed by the Choral Society at Carlsruhe.

R. L. P.

The original words are as follows:—

1. In dulci jubilo, Nun singet und sei fro !	2. O Jesu parvule Nach dir ist mir so Weh !	3. O patris charitas ! O nati lenitatis !	4. Ubi sunt gaudia Nirgend mehr denn da !
Unsers herzen winne Leit in præsepio	Troest mir mein Gemüte O puer optime !	Wir waren all verlorne Per noscrimina	Da die Engel singen Nova cantica
Und leuchtet als die Sonne Matris in gremio.	Durch alle deine Güte O princeps gloria !	So hat er uns erworben Coelorum gaudia.	Und die Schellen klingen In regis curia !
Chor. Alpha es et, O!	Chor. Trahe me post te !	Chor. Ein wer wir da !	Chor. Ein wer wir da !

ACCOMP.

* This composition, in its original form, requires eight solo voices and a chorus for its proper performance. As many of the solo parts are merely duplicates of those given to the chorus, I have reduced the whole to a composition for four voices, taking especial care, in the passages really written for eight voices, to adopt the composer's parts with as little alteration as possible. I have added a pianoforte condensation of the score for use at rehearsal.
