ADVERTISEMENT.

MANY friends have expressed a wish, to have a collection of the best and most common psalm tunes, printed in a shape to be bound with the Christian Lyre, for use in family worship and in prayer meetings. The present collection was made to meet this wish. It contains more than one hundred tunes; and the compiler flatters himself that he has selected the best, and those most used, in churches generally. The music is given in two parts only, as those who require other harmony will of course make use of professedly scientific works. It is believed, that the base here given will be found agreeable to our best standards. In its separate form, the Supplement may be a cheap and convenient companion to the Hymn Book at church. In multitudes of cases, it would doubtless answer every needed purpose for singing schools, and save much expense in purchasing larger works. Bound in the volume with the Christian Lyre, to which it is supplementary, it will complete that work into a system of sacred music for social and private singing.

THE ORDER.

The tunes are classed in four parts—S. M., C. M., L. M., and P. M. And those of each class are arranged in alphabetical order, so that all necessity for an index is avoided.

THE PRICE.

The Supplement, separate, is twenty-five cents, single.
Added to either volume of the Lyre, or to the two volumes bound in one, it will be twelve and a half cents.

---

THE CHRISTIAN LYRE.

THE Christian Lyre was commenced in November, 1830, as a monthly repository of music and hymns, for social worship. Vol. I., containing six No's, or 216 pages, was completed the first of April, and Vol. II. the first of October, 1831. At that time, there had been published no less than NINE EDITIONS of Vol. I., each edition consisting of 2000 copies.

The price is sixty-two and a half cents for each volume. The two volumes bound in one, for one dollar. The Supplement added for twelve and a half cents.
