THE SEA-KING TEMPTER.

WORDS BY CHARLES O.C.

MUSIC BY G.F. BENKERT.

The Sea King, who is firmly believed in by the Swedish peasantry, and also known to other northern nations, as Necken or Water God, is said to possess uncommon powers of charming. Tempting (as he does) many a fair peasant girl to leave her mountain home for his palace neath the wave. Twilight is the hour which he prefers to wander forth, and is then, only seen by the luckless maid with whom he is enamored. He tells her flattering tales of the beauteous home which awaits her — the wealth of the sea are his gifts, added to which, his ardent love induces her to accompany him. Old story.

ALLEGRETTO.

VOICE.  PIANO
FORTE.

The first system of music features a voice line with a treble clef and a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). The piano accompaniment consists of two staves: the upper staff has a treble clef and the lower staff has a bass clef. The time signature is 2/4. The piano part includes a melodic line in the right hand and a rhythmic accompaniment in the left hand. The tempo is marked ALLEGRETTO.

The second system of music continues the composition. It features the same voice and piano parts as the first system. The piano accompaniment continues with the same melodic and rhythmic patterns, maintaining the 2/4 time signature and two-flat key signature.

Musical notation for the first system, featuring a vocal line and piano accompaniment.
