

To Dorothy.

WHEN BIRDS HAVE HUSHED.

ANITA MULDOON BROWN.

MILDRED J. HILL.

p Quietly.

When birds have hushed — and gone to rest, — My lit - tle dove, my lit - tle dove, my lit - tle dove — We'll close our eyes — and go to sleep, We'll Copyright 1912 by Clayton F. Summy Co.

International Copyright.

p

day _____ to keep, The day _____ to keep.

Quietly

When birds have hushed _____ and gone to rest, _____ My lit - tle dove, my lit - tle dove, my lit - tle dove, _____ We'll close our eyes _____ and go to sleep, We'll close our eyes and go to sleep, To p lands of peace, — To lands of love, — To Sleepily.

p lands of peace, To lands of love, To lands of love.

rit. pp