First system of musical notation. The treble clef staff contains a melodic line with a trill (tr) and a dynamic marking of f. The bass clef staff contains a simple accompaniment. The text f (II. Man. 8;4) is written below the treble staff.

Second system of musical notation. The treble clef staff features a complex melodic line with a trill (tr). The text sempre II. Man. is written below the treble staff.

Third system of musical notation. The treble clef staff has a melodic line with a trill (tr). The bass clef staff has a more active accompaniment. The text sempre II. Man. is written above the treble staff, and II. Man. is written below the bass staff.

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble clef staff has a melodic line with a trill (tr). The bass clef staff has a complex accompaniment.

First system of musical notation. It consists of three staves: a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) and a separate bass clef staff. The grand staff contains a melodic line with various ornaments and a bass line with a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The separate bass staff is marked with a forte f dynamic and contains a more complex rhythmic pattern. A trill ornament tr is indicated above a note in the second measure of the separate bass staff.

Second system of musical notation. It consists of three staves. The grand staff continues the melodic and bass lines from the first system. The separate bass staff is marked with a forte f dynamic and contains a complex rhythmic pattern. A trill ornament tr is indicated above a note in the second measure of the separate bass staff. The instruction sempre f e II. Man. is written across the grand staff.

Third system of musical notation. It consists of three staves. The grand staff continues the melodic and bass lines. The separate bass staff is marked with a forte f dynamic and contains a complex rhythmic pattern. A trill ornament tr is indicated above a note in the second measure of the separate bass staff. The instruction III. Man. f (8, 4, 16') is written above the grand staff. The instruction (sempre II. Man.) sempre poco a poco cre - scen - is written across the grand staff.

Fourth system of musical notation. It consists of three staves. The grand staff continues the melodic and bass lines. The separate bass staff is marked with a forte f dynamic and contains a complex rhythmic pattern. A trill ornament tr is indicated above a note in the second measure of the separate bass staff. The instruction do ff is written above the grand staff.

(+ C. III.)

The first system of the musical score features a vocal line on a treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature has one sharp (F#) and the time signature is common time (C). The lyrics 'Sieh! Dein Herr und Gott ist da' are written above the vocal line. The piano accompaniment consists of chords and moving lines in both hands. A marking '(+ C. III.)' is placed in the upper left of the piano part.

The second system continues the piano accompaniment from the first system. It features a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. The music is characterized by flowing sixteenth-note patterns in the right hand and more rhythmic accompaniment in the left hand. There are markings 'trm' (trills) above some notes in both hands.

The third system continues the piano accompaniment. It maintains the same key signature and time signature. The right hand features intricate sixteenth-note passages, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment. The system concludes with a final chord.
