The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in a single system with a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The melody is written in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The melody consists of a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some measures containing triplets and sixteenth-note runs. The accompaniment features a steady eighth-note pattern in the bass. The score is divided into measures by vertical bar lines. Below the staff, there are performance instructions: 'Ped.' (pedal) and '' (crescendo or accent) markings. The piece concludes with a double bar line and a final '' marking.

The musical score is for a piece titled "The Song of the Lark" by Maurice Strakosck. It is written in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. The score is presented in two systems. The first system begins with a treble staff containing a melody and a bass staff with a piano accompaniment. The melody starts with a quarter note G4, followed by a quarter rest, then an eighth note G4, and a quarter note A4. The bass staff starts with a half note G2, followed by a half note A2. The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The melody includes a triplet of eighth notes (G4, A4, B4) and a quarter note C5.
