UNION TUNE BOOK.

WITH SUPPLEMENT.

A Selection of Tunes and Chants

SUITABLE FOR USE IN

CONGREGATIONS AND SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

EIGHTH EDITION

London:

SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION:
56, OLD BAILEY, E.C.

The Gresham Press,
UNWIN BROTHERS,
CHILWORTH AND LONDON.

P R E F A C E.

IN the year 1837, the Committee of the Sunday School Union published the first edition of the UNION TUNE Book, in the hope of supplying a collection of agreeable and useful tunes, which should contain such a variety as would be adapted to religious services in general. The effort was successful, and the work obtained a large circulation.

The continued demand for the collection induced the Committee, in the year 1842, to undertake a revision of the entire book and the selection of additional tunes, in order to render it still more acceptable and complete. In doing this, the Committee secured the best professional assistance available at the time, and the result was a large increase in the demand for the work.

In the year 1854, an effort was again made to increase the variety of the contents and thereby the usefulness of the book, and in the form of a "Continuation" 112 Tunes and 37 Chants were added to the original collection. This attempt to render the UNION TUNE Book more acceptable was as successful as those which had preceded it, and the work continued to grow in public favour.

Since that date, however, much has been done to improve devotional psalmody, both by the teaching of the art of singing and by the publication of suitable tunes for the exercises of the school and the sanctuary. The greatly improved musical taste which has thus been created has rendered a further extension of the work desirable; and as there is still a considerable demand for the book, and as also modern hymnology embraces a variety of metres for which previous editions make no provision, the Committee determined to issue it in its present form with a SUPPLEMENT, which will be found commencing with Tune No. 484.

In reference to this new Supplement, the Committee have spared neither pains nor expense in the endeavour to render it acceptable to the Christian public. In requesting Mr. Hullah to undertake its editorship, the Committee felt that they were entrusting it to a gentleman not only thoroughly competent, but to one who, perhaps more than any living musician, had made the advance of musical knowledge among the people his life-work. The tunes that have been written by Mr. Hullah, those selected by him, as well as those written by other eminent composers at his request specially for this work, will prove how fully he has entered into the views and carried out the wishes of the Committee.

The Committee thankfully acknowledge their obligation to the following gentlemen, either for permission kindly granted by them to insert very valuable tunes, or for assistance cordially rendered:—The Proprietors of “Hymns Ancient and Modern;” the Proprietors of “The Bristol Tune Book;” the Proprietors of “The Bradford Tune Book;” the Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge; Messrs. Nelson & Co.; Messrs. Nisbet & Co.; Messrs. Novello & Co.; Messrs. Routledge & Co.; the Rev. H. Allon, D.D.; A. H. Brown, Esq.; the Rev. R. R. Chope, M.A.; R. F. Coules, Esq.; C. Darnton, Esq.; Sir G. Elvey, Mus. Doc.; H. Gilbert, Esq.; E. J. Hopkins, Esq.; A. King, Esq.; A. E. Leigh, Esq.; C. E. Mudie, Esq.; A. R. Reinagle, Esq.; H. Smart, Esq.; Dr. A. Sullivan; Dr. Steggall; and others.

For the sake of portability and convenience the present enlarged edition is issued in Compressed Score.

In once more issuing an improved edition of this work, the Committee hope for the same success which has attended previous efforts of the kind, and trust that the book, in its enlarged form, will greatly aid the Church’s service of praise.
