But onely thou vvhose ayde I craue,
vvhose mercte still is prest:
To ease all those that come to thee,
for succour and for rest.
And sith thou seest my restless eyes,
my teares and greuous grone:
Attend vnto my sute (O Lord)
marke vvell my plaint and mone.

For sinne hath so enclosed mee,
and compass mee about:
That I am novv remedilesse,
If mercie help not out.

For mortall men cannot release,
or mittigate this paine:
But euen thy Christ my Lord and God,
vvhich for my sinne vvas slaine.

Vvhose bloody vvwounds are yet to see,
Though not vvvith mortall eye:
Yet doe thy Saints behold them all,
and so I trust shall I.
Though sinne doth hinder mee a vvhile,

 thy vvill and pleasure is, release me of my smart. Thou seest my sorrowes vvhhat they are, my grieffe is knowvne to thee, & there is none that can remoue, or take the same from mee.

And as thine Angells, and thy saints,
 doe novv behold the same:
 So trust I to possesse that place,
 vvith them to praise thy name.
 But vvhist I liue heere in this vale,
 vvhere sinners doe frequent:
 Assist mee euer vvith thy grace,
 my sinnes still to lament.
 Least that I tread in sinners trace,
 and giue them my consent:
 To dwell vvith them in vvickednesse,
 vvhereto nature is bent.

Onely thy grace must bee my stay,
 least that I fall downe flat:
 And beeing downe then of my selfe,
 cannot recouer that.

VVherefore this is yet once againe,
 my sute and my request:
 To graunt mee pardon for my sinne,
 that I in thee may rest.
 Then shall my heart, my tongue, & voice,
 bee instruments of praise:
 And in thy church & house of Saints,
 sing Psalmes to thee alwaies.

TENOR.

like beeliefe he must, before all things retaine. VVhich faith vnlesse he holy keep, & vndefiledly: VVithout all doubt eternally, he shall be sure to dye.

The Catholike beeliefe is this,
 that God vvee vvorship one In Trinitie, and Trinitie
 in vnitie alone.
 So as vvee neither doe confound,
 the persons of the three:
 Nor yet the substance vvhole of one,
 in sunder parted bee.

One person of the Father is,
 another of the sonne:
 An other person proper of the holy Ghost alone.
 Of Father, Sonne and holy Ghost,
 but one the Godhead is:
 Like glory, coeternall eke
 the maigentie likewise.

Such as the Father is, such is the Sonne in each degree:
 And such also vvee doe beleeue,
 the holy Ghost to bee.
 Vncreate is the Father, and
 vncreate is the Sonne:
 The holy Ghost vncreate, so
 vncreate is each one.

Incomprehensible Father is,
 incomprehensible Sonne; Incomprehensible also is,
 the holy ghost of none.
 The Father is eternall, and
 the Sonne eternall so:
 And in like sort eternall is
 the holy ghost also.

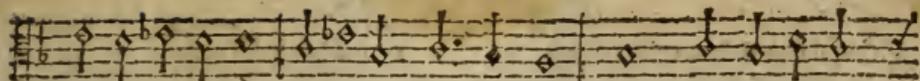

And yet though vve beleeue that each,
 of these eternall bee:
 Yet there but one eternall is,
 and not eternalls three.
 As ne incomprehensible vves,
 ne yet vncreate thee:
 But one incomprehensible, one
 vncreate hold to bee.

Almightie so the Father is,
 the Sonne almightie so:
 And in like sort almightie is
 the holy Ghost also.
 And albeit that euery one,
 of these Almighty bee:
 Yet there but one Almighty is,
 and not Almighties three.

The Father God is, God the Sonne, God holy Ghost also:
 Yet are there not three Gods in all,
 but one God and no moe.
 So likewise Lord the Father is,
 and Lord also the Sonne:
 And Lord also the holy Ghost, yet are
 there not three Lords but one.

For as vvee are compeld to graunt,
 by Christian veritie:
 Each of the persons by himselfe,
 both God and man to bee.
 So Catholike religion,
 forbiddeth vs alyuaies:
 That either Gods bee three, or that there Lords be three to say.

like beliefe he must, before all things retaine. VVhich faith vnlesse hee holy keep, and vndefiledlie, vwithout all doubt eternallie, he shall be sure to die.

Of none the Father is, ne made
ne create, nor begot:
The Sonne is of the Father, not create, ne made, but got.
The holy Ghost is of them both
the Father and the Sonne:
Ne made, ne create, nor begot,
but doth procede alone.

So vvee one Father hold, not three,
one Sonne also not three:
One holy Ghost alone and not threeholy Ghost to bee.
None in this Trinitie before
nor after other i:
Ne greater any then the rest,
ne lesser bee likewise.

But every one among themselues,
of all the persons three:
Together coeternall all,
and all coequall bee.
So vnitie in trinitie,
as sayd it is beefore:
And Trinitie in vnitie,
in all things vvee adore.

Therefore vwhat man soeuer that
saluation vwill attaine:
This faith touching the Trinitie,
of force he must retaine.
And needfull to eternall lyfe,
it is that euery vnight:
Of the inatnating of christ,
our Lord beleeue aright.

For this the right faith is, that vvee
beleeue and eke doe know:
That Christ our Lord the sonne of God
is God and man also.
God of his Fathers substance, got
beefore the vworld began:
And of his mothers substance, borne
in vworld a very man.

Both perfect God, and perfect man,
in one one Iesus Christ:
That doth of reasonable soule,
and humaine flesh subfist.
Touching his Godhead, equall vwith
his father God is hee:
touching his manhood, louver then
his father in degree.

VVho though hee bee both very God,
and very man also:
Yet is hee but one Christ alone,
and is not persons two.
One, not by turning of Godhead
into the flesh of man:
But by taking manhood to God,
this beeing one beegan.

All one not by confounding of
the substance into one:
But onely by the vnitie,
that is of one person.
For as the reasonable soule,
and flesh but one man is:
So in one person God and man,
is but one Christ likewise.

 But yet the Lord was my defence,
 my succour and reliefe.

18 He brought mee forth in open place,
 whereas I might bee free:
 And kept mee safe because he had,
 a fauour vnto mee.

19 And as I was an innocent,
 so did hee mee regard:
 And to the cleanness of my hands,
 hee gaue mee my reuward.

20 For that I walked in his wayes,

 And did refraine from wickednesse,
 and sinne in any case.

23 The Lord therefore will mee reuward,
 as I haue done aright:
 And to the cleanness of my hands,
 appearing in his sight.

24 For Lord with him that holy is,
 wilt thou be holy too:
 And with the good and vertuous men,
 right vertuously wilt doe.

25 And to the louing and elect,
 thy loue thou wilt reuerue:
 And thou wilt vse the wicked men,
 as wicked men deserue.

26 For thou dost saue the simple folk,
 in trouble when they lye:
 And dost bring downe the countenance
 of them that looke full hie.

27 The Lord will light my candle so,
 that it shall shine full bright:
 The Lord my God will make also,
 my darknesse to bee light.

28 For by thy help an host of men,
 discomfise Lord I shall:
 By thee I scale and ouerleape,

So that my feete shall neuer slip,
nor stumble at a balke.
36 And fiercely I pursue and take,

to battaile and to fight:
To breake in sunder barres of brasse,
hee gaue myne armes the might.
34 Thou teachest mee thy sauing health,

- 37 So I suppress and vvound my foes,
that they can rise no more:
For at my feete they fall downne flat,
I strike them all so fore.

 28 vvhich he did cast amid the place,
 vvhere all their tents dyd stand.
 29 Then did they eate exceedingly,
 and all men had their fills:
 Yet more and more they did desire,
 to serue their lusts and vvills:
 30 But as the meat vvvas in their mouths
 his vvyrath vpon them fell:
 31 And slevv the flouvvre of all their youth
 and choise of Israell.
 32 Yet, fell they to their vvonted sinne,
 and still they did him greuee:
 For all the vvonders that he vvrought,
 they vvould him not beleeue.
 33 Their daies therfore he shortened,
 and made their honor vaine:
 Their yeeres did vvast and passe avvay,
 vvith terrors and vvith paine.
 34 But euer vvhen he plagued them,
 they sought him by and by:
 Rememvring that he vvvas their strength

 36 For vvhy? their harts vvvere nothing
 to him nor to his trade: (bent,
 Nor yet to keepe or to performe,
 the couenant that vvvas made.
 37 Yet vvvas hee still so mercifull,
 vvhen they deserude to dye:
 That hee forgauve them their misdeeds,
 and vvould not them distroy.
 38 Yet many a time he turnd his vvyrath,
 and dyd himselie aduise:
 And vvould not suffer all his vvhole
 displeasure to arise.

39 Considering that they vvvere but flesh
 and euen as a vvinde:
 That passeth avvay and cannot vvell
 returne by his ovvne kinde.
 40 Howv oftentimes in vvilderneffe,
 dyd they their Lord provoke?
 Howv did they moue and stir the Lord,
 to plague them vvith his stroke?
 41 Yet did they turne againe to sinne,
 and tempted God estsoone:
 Prescribing to the holy Lord,
 vvhat things they vvould haue done.
 42 Not thinking of his hand and povver,
 nor of the day vvhen hee:
 Deliuered them out of the hands,
 of the fierceemie.
 43 Nor howv he vvrought his miracles,
 as they themselues beeheld:
 In Egypt, and the vvonders that hee did in Zion field.
 44 Nor howv he turnd by his povver,
 their vvaters into bloud:
 That no man might receaue his drink,
 at riuer or at floud.
 45 Nor howv hee sent them svvarms of vvhich did them fore annoy: (flies,
 And fld their countrie full of frogs,
 vvhich should their land destroy.
 The fift part
 46 Nor howv he did commit their fruits
 vnto the Caterpillar:
 And all the labor of their hands,
 hee gauve to the Grashopper.
 47 VVith hailstones he destroid their

 And not so much as vvilde fig trees
 but he consumd vvith frosts.
 48 And yet vvith hailestones once againe
 the Lord their cattell smot:
 And all their flocks & heards likevvise,
 vvith thunderboults full hot:
 49 He cast vpon them in his ire,
 and in his fury strong,
 Displeasure vvyrath and euell spirits,
 to trouble them among.

TENOR.

Lord the Gentiles doe inuade, thine heritage to spoile:

50 Then to his vvrath he made avvay,
and spared not the least:
But gaue vnto the pestilence,
the man and eke the beast.

51 Hee strake also the first borne all,
that vp in Egypt came:
And all the chiefe of men and beasts,
within the tents of Ham.

52 But as for all his ovvne deere folk,
hee did preferue and keepe:
And carried them through vilderneffe,
euen like a flock of sheepe.

53 without all feare both safe & sound,
hee brought them out of thrall:
Vvheras their foes vvith rage of sea,
vvete ouerwhelmed all.

54 And brought them out into the coasts
of his ovvne holy land:
Euen to the Mount vvich he had got,
by his strong arme and hand.

55 And there cast out the heathen folk,
and did their land deuide:
And in their tents hee set their tribes,
of Israell to abide.

56 Yet for all this their God most lie,
they sturd and tempted still.
And vvould not keepe his testament,
nor yet obey his vvill.

57 But as their fathes turned back,
euen so they went astray:
Much like a bovv that vvill not bend,
but slip and start avvay.

The sixt part.

58 And greued him vvith their hil al-vvith offerings & vvith fire: (tars
And vvith their Idoles vehemently, protoked him to ire.

59 Thervvith his vvrath began againe,
to kindle in his brest:
The naughtinesse of Israell,
hee did so much detest.

60 Then he forsooke the Tabernacle,
of Silo vvhere hee vvvas:
Right conuersant vvith earthly men,
euen as his dvvelling place.

61 Then suffered he his might & povver
in bondige for to stand:
And gaue the honor of his Arke,
into his enemies hand.

62 And did commit them to the svword,
vvroth vvith his heritage:
63 The young men vvete deuourd vvith
maydes had no marriage. (fire)

64 And vvith the svword the priests also did perish euery one:
And not a vvidovv left aliue,
their death for to beemone.

65 And then the Lord began to vvake,
like one that slept a time:
And as a valiant man of vvar;
refreshed after vvine.

66 Vvith Emrods in the hinder parts,
hee strake his enemies all:
And put them then vvnto a shame,
that vvvas perpetuall.

67 Then he the tent & tabernacle,
of Ioseph did refuse:
As for the tribe of Ephraim,
hee vvould in no vvise chuse.

68 But chose the tribe of Iehuda,
vvheras hee thought to dvvell:
Euen the noble Mount Syon,
vvich hee did loue so vvell.

69 Vvheras he did his temple build,
both sumptuously and sure:
Like as the earth vvich he hath made,
for euer to endure.

70 Then chose he David him to serue,
his people for to keepe:
VVhich he tooke vp & brought avvay,
euen from the folds of sheepe.

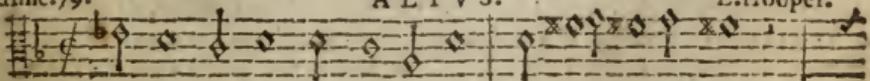

71 As hee did followv the eves vvith
the Lord did him advance: (young)
To feede his people Israell:
and his inheritance.

72 Thus David vvith a faithfull hart,
his flock and charge did feede,
And prudently vvith all his povver,
did gouerne them in deede.

14 How sundry O Lord
are all thy vworks found ?

VVith vvifdome full great
they are in deed vvrought:

25 So that the vvhole vvorld
of thy praise doth found :

And as for thy riches,
they pas all mens thought.

So in the great sea,
vvhich large is and broad:

VVhere things that creep svvarme,
and beats of ech sort.

26 There both mighty ships faile,
and some lie at road:

The VVhale huge and monstrous,

27 All things on thee wait
thou doest them relieue :

And thou in due time
full vvell doest them feed.

28 Novv vvhen it doth please thee,
the same so to giue :

They gather full gladly
those things vvhich they need,

Thou openest thy hand
and they finde such grace :

That they vvith good things,
are filled vvee see :

29 But fore are troubled,
if thou turn thy face :

For if thou their breath take,

vile dust then they bee.

30 Againe vvhen thy spirit,
fro thee doth proceed :

All things to appoint,
and vvhat shall ensue.

31 Then are they created,
as thou hast decreed :

And doest by thy goodnesse
the dry earth renue.

32 The praise of the Lord,
for euer shall last :

So long as I liue,
my God praise vvill I :

34 Then am I most certaine,
my vvords shall him please :

VAV. The sixt part.
 Thy mercies great and manifold,
 let mee obtaine O Lord :
 Thy sauing health let mee enjoy,
 according to thy vword.
 So shall I stop the slaunderous
 of leu'd men & vnjust: (mouthes,
 For in thy faithfull promises,
 stands my comfort and trust.

The vword of truth vwithin my mouth
 let euer still bee prest :
 For in thy iudgements v wonderfull,
 my hope doth stand and rest.
 And whilst that breath vwithin my doth naturall lyfe preserue: (breast)
 Yea, till this vworld shall be dissolu'd,
 thy law vwill I obserue.

So vwalk vwill I as set at large,
 and made free from all dread:
 Because I sought how for to keepe,
 thy precepts and thy read.
 Thy noble acts I vwill describe,
 as things of most great fame:
 Euen before Kings I vwill them blaze,
 and, shrink no whit for shame.

I vwill reioyce then to obey,
 thy vworthy hefts and vwill :
 VWhich euermore I haue lou'd best,
 and so vwill loue them still.
 My hand vwill I lift to thy lawes,
 vvhich I haue dearely sought:
 And practise thy commaundements,
 in vwill, in deed, and thought.

ZAIN. The vij. part.
 Thy promise vvhich thou madst to me
 thy seruant Lord remember :
 For therein haue I put my trust,
 and confidence for euer.
 It is my comfort and my ioy,
 vwhen troubles mee assaile:
 For vwere my life not by thy vword,
 my lyfe vwould soone mee faile.

The proud & such as God contemne,
 still made of mee a scorne :

Yet vwould I not thy law forsake,
 as hee that vrete forlorne.
 But call to minde Lord thy great
 shev'd to our fathers oid : (vworks)
 VWhereby I felt thy ioy surmount,
 my grieffe an hundreth fold.

But yet alas for feare I quake,
 seeing how vicked men :
 Thy law forsooke and did procure,
 thy iudgements vwho knowes vwhen?
 And as for mee I framd my songs,
 thy statutes to exalt :

VWhen I among the strangers dvvelt,
 and thoughts gan mee assault.

I thought vpon thy name O Lord,
 by night vwhen others sleepe :
 As for thy law I also kept,
 and euer vwill it keepe,

This grace I dyd obtaine because,
 thy couenants vsweet and deare:
 I dyd embrace and also keepe,
 vwith reuerence and vwith feare.

HETH. The eight part.
 O God vvhich art my part and lot,
 my comfort and my stay :
 I haue decreed and promised,
 thy law to keepe alway.

Mine carenest heart did humbly see,
 in presence of thy face :
 As thou therefore hast promised,
 Lord graunt wee of thy grace.

My lyfe I haue examined,
 and tride my secret heart :
 VWhich to thy statutes caused mee
 my feete straight to conuert.

I dyd not stay nor linger long,
 as they that bothfull are :
 But hastely thy lawes to keepe,
 I dyd my selfe prepare.

The cruell bands of vicked men,
 haue made of mee their pray :
 Yet vwould I not thy law forget,
 nor from thee goe astray.

Thy righteous iudgements towards
 so great is and so hie: (mee)
 That euen at midnight vwill I rise,
 thy name to magnific.

Companion an I to all them,
 vvhich feare thee in their heart:

And neither vwill for loue nor dread,
fro n thy commaundements start.

64 Thy mercies Lord most plentifull:
doe all the vworld fullfill :

O teach mee hovv I may obey,
thy statutes and thy vwill.

TEIH. The ix. part.

65 According to thy promise Lord,
so hast thou vwith mee dealt:

For of thy grace in sundry sorts,
haue I thy seruant felt.

66 Teach mee to iudge alvway aright,
and giue mee knowvledge sure:

For certainly belecue I doe,
that thy precepts are pure.

67 Ere thou didst touch me vwith thy rod
I erred and vvent astray :

But now I keep thy holy vword,
and make it all my stay.

68 Thou art both good and gracious,
and giuest most liberally,

Thine ordinances hovv to keep,
therefore O Lord teach mee.

69 The proud & vvicked men haue forgd
against mee many a lye :

Yet thy commaundements still obserue,
vvith all my hart vvill I.

70 Their harts are svolve vvith vvorldly
as greate so are they fat: (vvealth

But in thy lavv doe I delight,
and nothing seek but that.

71 O happy time may I vvell say,
vven thou didit mee correct :

For as a guide to learne thy lavves,
thy rod did mee direct.

72 So that to mee thy vword and lavv,
is dearer manifold :

Then thousands great of siluer and gold
or ought that can bee told.

I O D. The x. part.

73 Seeing thy hands haue made mee
to bee thy creature: (Lord,

Graunt knowvledge likewise hovv to
to put thy lavves in vre. (learne

74 So they that feare thee shall reioyce,
vven euer they mee see :

Because I haue learn'd by thy vword,
to put my trust in thee.

75 VVhen vvith thy rods the vvorld is
I knowv the cause is iust: (plagued,

So vven thou dost correct mee Lord,

the cause iust needs bee must.

76 Novv of thy goodnesse I thee pray,
some comfort to mee send :

As thou to mee thy seruait herst,
so from all ill mee shend.

77 Thy tender mercies pover on mee,
and I shall surely liue :

For ioy and consolation both,
thy lavves to mee doe giue.

78 Confound the proud vvwhose false pre-
is mee for to destroy: (tence,

But as for mee thy hefts to knowv,
I vvill my selfe imploy.

79 VVho so vvith reuerēce do thee feare
to mee let them retire :

And such as doe thy couenants knowv,
and them alone desire.

80 My hart vvith out all vvauering.
let on thy lavves bee bent :

That no confusion come to mee,
vvhereby I should bee shent.

CAPH. The xi. part

81 My soule doth faint and ceaseth now,
thy sauing health to crane :

And for thy vvords sake still I trust,
my harts desire to haue.

82 Mine eies do faile vvith looking for,
tly vword and thus I say :

Oh vven vvilt thou mee comfort Lord &
vvhy dost thou thus delay :

83 As a skin bottle in the smoke,
so am I parcht and dried:

Yet vvill I not outof my hart,
let thy commaundements slide.

84 Alas hovv long shall I yet liue,
before I see the hovvre:

That on my foes vvwhich mee torment,
thy vengeance thou vvilt poure.

85 Presumptuous men haue digged pits,
thinking to make mee sure:

Thus contrary against thy lavve,
my hurt they doe procure.

86 But thy commandments are all true,
and causelesse they mee grieue :

To thee therefore I doe complaine,
that thou mightst mee relieue.

87 Almost they had mee cleane destroyed
and brought mee quite to ground:

Yet by thy statutes I abode,
and therein succour found.

88 Restore mee Lord againe to life,
for thy mercies excell:
And so shall I thy couenants keep,
till death my life expell.

L A M E D. The xij. part.

89 In heauens Lord vvhether thou dost thy vword is stablist sure: (dwell
And shall for all eternitie,
fast grauen there endure.

90 From age to age thy truth abides,
as doth the earth vvitnesse:
Vvhose ground vvorke thou hast laid so
as no tounge can expresse. (sure,

91 Euen to this day vvee may vvell see,
how all things perseuere:
According to thy ordinaunce,
for all things thee reuere.

92 Had it not bene that in thy law,
my soule had comfort sought:
Long time ere now in my distres,
I had bene brought to nought,

93 Therefore I vwill thy precepts aye,
in memory keep fast:
By them thou hast my life restord,
vwhen I was at last cast.

94 No vvhight to mee can title make,
for I am onely thine:
Sauce mee therefore for to thy lawes,
mine eares and hart incline.

95 The vicked men doe seeke my bane,
and therefore lye in vwait:
But I the vvhile considered,
thy noble acts and great.

96 I see nothing in this vvide vworld,
at length vvhich hath not end:
But thy commaundments and thy vword,
beyond all end extend.

M E M. The xiiij. part.

97 VVhat great desire, and seruient loue
doe I beare to thy law?
All the day long my vvhole deuise,
is onely on thy law.

98 Thy vword hath taught mee farre to
my foes in policy: (passe,
For still I keep it as a thing,
of most excellency.

99 My teachers, vvhich did me instruct,
in knowledge I excell:
Because I doe thy couenants keep,
and them to others tell.

100 In vvisdome I doe passe also the auncient men in deed:

And all because to keep thy lawes,
I hild it aye best reed.

101 My feet I haue refrained eke
from euery euill vway:
Because that I continually,
thy vword might keep I say.

102 I haue not sverru'd from thy iudge,
nor yet shronk any dell: (ments
For vwhy? thou hast mee taught thereby to liue godly and vvell.

103 O Lord how sweet vnto my tast,
finde I thy vwords alvway:
Doubtlesse no hony in my mouth,
feele ought so sweet I may.

104 Thy lawes haue me such vvisdome that vtterly I hate: (learnd,
All vicked and vngodly vvaies,
in euery kinde of rate.

N V N. The xiiij. part.

105 Euen as a lanthorne to my feet,
so doth thy vword shine bright:
And to my pathes vvhether euer I goe,
it is a flaming light.

106 I haue both sverorne and vwill per-most certainly doubtlesse: (forme
That I vwill keep thy iudgements iust,
and them in life expresse.

107 Affliction hath mee sore opprest,
and brought mee to deathes dores:
O Lord as thou hast promised,
so mee to life restore.

108 The offerings vvhich vwith hart and most franckly I thee giue: (voice Accept and teach mee how I may after thy iudgements liue.

109 My soule is aye now in my hand,
that dangers mee assaile:
Yet doe I not thy law forget,
nor it to keep vwill faile.

110 Although the vicked lay their nets
to catch mee at a bay:
Yet did I not from thy precepts,
once sverue or goe astray.

111 Thy lawes I haue so claimed alas mine ovne heritage: (vway
And vwhy? for therein I delight,
and set my vvhole courage.

112 For euermore I haue bene bene,
thy statutes to fulfill:

Euen so likewise vnto the end,
I will continue still.
SAMECH. The xv. part.
113 The crafty thoughts & double harts,
I doe alwayes detest:
But as for thy lawv and precepts,
I count them euer best.
114 Thou art my hid and secret place,
my shield of strong defence:
Therefore I haue thy promises,
lookt for vwith patience.
115 Goe to therefore yee vicked men,
depart from mee anone:
For the commendements vvill I keep,
of God my Lord alone.
116 As thou hast promised to performe,
that death mee not assaile:
Nor let my hope abuse mee so,
that through distrust I quaile.
117 Vphold mee and I shalbe safe,
for ought they doe or say:
And in thy statutes pleasure take,
vvill I both night and day.
118 Thou hast trod such vnder thy feete,
as doe thy statutes breake:
For naught availes their subtilty
their counsell is but vweake.
119 Like drosse thou casts the vicked out
where euer they goe or dwell:
Therefore can I as thy statutes,
loue nothing halfe so vvell.
120 My flesh alas is taken vwith feare,
as though it were benumbd:
For vwhen I see thy iudgements straight,
I am as one astound.
AIN. The xvi. part.
121 I doe the thing that lawvfull is,
and giue to all men right:
Resigne mee, not to them that vvould,
opresse mee vwith their might.
122 But for thy seruant surety bee,
in that thing that is good:
That proud men giue mee not the foyle,
vvhich rage as they were vvood.
123 Mine eyes vwith vvaying are novv
thy health so much I craue: (blinde,
And eke thy righteous promise Lord,
vvhereby thou vvilt mee saue.
124 Intreat thy seruant louingly,
and fauor to him shovv:
Thy statutes of most excellency,

teach mee also to knowv.

125 Thy humble seruant Lord I am,
graunt mee to vnderstand:
Howv by thy statutes I may knowv,
best vwhat to take in hand.
126 It is novv time Lord to beginne,
for truth is quite decayd:
Thy lawv likewise they haue transgress,
and none against them said.
127 This is the cause vvherefore I loue
thy lawves better then gold:
Or ieuells fine vvhich are esteemd,
most costly to bee sold.
128 I thought thy precepts are most iust,
and so them layd in store:
All crafty and malicious vvaies
I doe abhorre therofore.
PE. The xvii. part.
129 Thy counsaits are most vvonderful,
and full of things profound:
My soule therefore doth keep them sure,
vwhen they are tryde and found.
130 VVhen men first enter into thy vvord,
they finde a light most cleere:
And very idiots vnderstand,
vwhen they it read or heare.
131 For ioy I haue both gapt & breath'd
to knowv thy commaundement:
That I might guyd my life thereby
I sought vwhat thing it ment.
132 VVith mercy and compassion both,
behold mee from aboue:
As thou art vvont to behold such,
as thy name feare and loue.
133 Direct my footsteps by thy vvord,
that I thy vvill may knowv:
And neuer let iniquitie,
thy seruant ouerthrowv.
134 Froe slandrous tongues & deadly hate
preferue and keep mee sure:
Thy precepts then vvill I obserue,
and put them eke in vvre.
135 Thy countenance vvhich doth sur-
the Sunne in his bright be vv: (mount Let shine on mee and by thy lawv,
teach mee for to eschevy.
136 Out of mine eyes great flouds gush
of dreary teares and fell: (out VVhen I behold howv vicked men
thy lawves keep neuer a dell.

ZADE The xvij. part.
 137 In euery point Lord thou art iust,
 the wicked though they grudge:
 And vvhē thou doest sentence pronouice
 thou art a righteous iudge.
 138 To render right and flee from guile,
 are two chiefe points most hye:
 And such as thou hast in thy lawv,
 commaunded vs straightly.

139 VVith zeale & vvrath I am cōsumd
 and euen pined avvay:
 To see my foes thy vvord forget,
 for ought that I do may.
 140 So pure and perfect is thy vvord,
 as any hart can deeme:
 And I thy seruant nothing more,
 doe loue, or yet esteeme.

141 And though I bee nothing set by,
 as one of base degree:
 Yet do I not thy hefts forget
 nor shrinke avvay from thee.
 142 Thy righteousnesse Lord is most iust
 for euer to endure:
 Also thy lawv is truth it selfe,
 most constant and most pure.

143 Trouble & grief haue seased on mee
 and brought mee vvyondrous low:
 Yet do I still of thy precepts,
 delight to heare and know.
 144 The righteousnesse of thy iudgemēt
 doth laie for euermore:
 Then teach them mee for euen in them,
 my life laieth vp in store.

KOPH. The six. part.
 145 VVith feruent hart I cald and cride,
 novv aunsvvere mee O Lord:
 That I thy commaundments to obserue,
 I may fully accord.
 146 To thee my God I make my sute,
 vvith most humble request:
 Saue mee therefore and I vvill keep,
 thy precepts and thy heft.

147 To thee cry I euen in the morne,
 before the day vvaxe light:
 Because that I haue in thy vvord,
 my confidence vvhole plight.
 148 Mine eies preuent the vvatch by and ere they call I avvake: (night
 That by deuising of thy vvord,
 I might some comfort take.

149 Incline thien eare to heare my voice
 and pittie on mee take:
 As thou vvas vvont so iudge mee Lord,
 least life should mee forsake.
 150 My foes dravv neare & do procure,
 my death maliciously:
 VVhich from thy lawv are tar gon back
 and fraid from it levdly.

151 Therefore O Lord approach thou neare
 for need doth so require:
 And all thy precepts true they are,
 then help I thee desire.
 152 By thy commaundments I haue learn'd
 not novv, but long agoe:
 That they remaine for euemore,
 thou hast them grounded so.

RESH. The xx. part.
 153 My trouble and affliction,
 consider and behold:
 Deliuer mee for of thy lawv,
 I euer take fast hold.
 154 Defend my good & righteous cause,
 vvith speed mee succour send:
 From death as thou hast promised,
 Lord keep mee and defend.

155 As for the wicked far they are,
 from hauing health and grace:
 VVherby they might thy statutes know
 they enter not thy trace.
 156 Great are thy mercies Lord I grant
 vvhat tongue can them attaine:
 And as thou hast mee iudg'd ere novv,
 so let mee life obtaine.

157 Though many men did trouble mee,
 and persecute mee fore:
 Yet from thy lawves I neuer shronk,
 nor vvent avvry therefore.
 158 And truth it is for grieffe I dye,
 vvhen I these traitors see:
 Because they keep no vvhit thy vvord,
 nor yet seek to know thee.

159 Behold for I do loue thy lawves,
 vvith hart most glad and faine:
 As thou art good & gracious Lord,
 restore my life againe.
 160 VVhat thy vvord doth decree, must
 and so it hath been euer: (bee Thy righteous iudgements are also,
 most true and decay neuer.

SCHIN. The.xxi. part 161 Princes haue sought [by cruelty,
 causeles to make mee couch :
 But all in vaine, for of thy vvord,
 the feare did my hart touch.
 162 And certainly euen of thy vvord,
 I vvvas more mery and glad:
 Then he that of rich spoiles and prayes,
 great store and plenty had.

163 As for all lies and falsity,
 I hate most and detest:
 For vvwhy ? thy holy lawves doe I,
 about all things loue best.
 164 Senē times a day I prayse the Lord
 singing vvith hart and voice:
 Thy righteous acts and vvonderfull,
 so cause mee to reioyce.

165 Great peace and rest shall all such vvhich doe thy statutes loue, (haue,
 No daunger shall their quiet state,
 empaire or once remoue.
 166 Mine onely health & comfort Lord,
 I looke for at thy hand :
 and therefore haue I done those things,
 vvhich thou didst mee command.

167 Thy lawves haue been my exercise
 vvhich my soule much desir'd :
 So much my loue to them vvvas bent,
 that nought els I requir'd.
 168 Thy statutes and commaundements,
 I kept thou knowst aright :
 For all the things that I haue done,
 are present in thy sight.

And for our sinnes vpon the crosse,
 his bloud our debts did pay.

And that vvee should not yet forget,
 vvhath good hee to vs vvrought:
 A signe hee left our eyes to tell,
 that hee our bodies bought.
 In Bread and VVine heere visibill,
 vnto thine eies and tast:
 His mercies great thou maist record,
 if that his spirit thou hast.

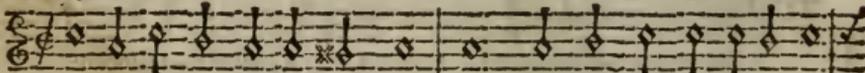

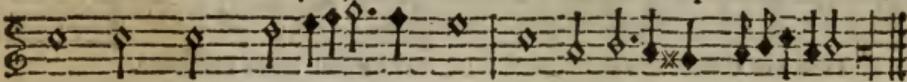

As once the corne did liue and growv,
 and vvas cut dovne vvith sith:
 And threshed out vvith many stripes,
 out of his huske to driue.
 And as the mill vvith violence,
 did teare it out so small:
 And made it like to earthly dust,
 not sparing it all all.

And as the ouen vvith fire hot,
 did close it vp in heate:
 And all this done that I haue sayd,

 Reserue vs Lord by thy deere vvord, from Turke & Pope defend vs Lord, vvhich both vvould thrust out of his throne, our Lord Itsus Christ thy deere son.

Lord Iesus Christ shew forth thy might that thou art Lord of Lords by right:
 Thy poore afflicted flock defend,
 that they may praise thee vvithout end.

God holy Ghost our comforter,
 bee our patron help and succour:
 Giue vs one minde and perfect peace,
 all gifts of grace in vs increase.

that it should bee our meat.
So vvas the Lord in his ripe age,
cut dovvne by cruell death :
His soule he gaue in torment great,
and yelded vp his breath.

Because that hee to vs might bee,
an euerlasting bread:
VVith much reproch & troubles great,
on earth his life hee led.
And as the grapes in pleasant time,
are pressed very fore :
And plucked dovvne vwhen they be ripe,
nor let to growv no more.

Because the iuce that in them is,
as comfortable drinck :
vvee might receaue and ioyfull bee,
vwhen sorrowes make vs think.
So Christs blood out pressed vvas,
vwith nailes and eke vvith speare :
The iuce vvherof doth saue all those,
that rightly doe him feare.

And as the cornes by vnitie,
into one loafe are knit ;
So is the Lord and his vvhole Church,
though hee in heauen sit.
As many grapes make but one vyne,
so should vvee bee but one :
In faith and loue in Christ alone,
and vnto Christ alone.

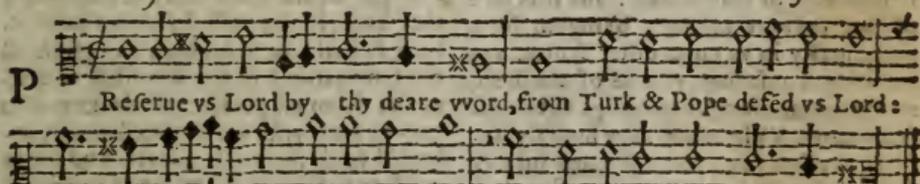

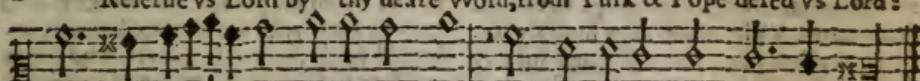

Leading a life vvithout all strife,
in quiet rest and peace :
From enuie and from mallice both,
our harts and tongues to cease.
vvhich if vvee do then shall vvee shew,
that vvee his chosen bee :
By faith in him to lead a life,
as alvvaies vvilled hee.

And that vvee may so doe in deed,
God send vs all his grace
Then after death vvee shall bee sure vvith him to haue a place.

174 ¶ A generall confession of finnes, with other prayers for the Morning and Euening, to be vsed in families & publick assemblies.

Most mercifull and louing
 father whose loue is infinit, whose mercy endureth
 for euer. VVee sinful creatures trusting in thine vn-
 speakable goodnes & loue
 towards vs, do appeare this morning before thy diuine maiestie, most humbly confessing our manifold finnes, and innumerable transgressions of thy commaund-ments and fatherly vwill : against thee
 onely, against thee (O Lord) haue vve sinned, vvee acknowledge our offences, vvee
 accuse our selues vnto thee, (O mercifull Lord) & vwill not bide our vnrighteousnesse. VVe finde in our selues nothing but ignorance of thy vwill, disobedience,
 mistrust, doubtfulness in thy goodnesse,
 and incredulity, hatred and contempt of spirituall things, selfeloue, confidence in our selues, and seruem, lusting after car-nall things of this vworld : and this tree
 of our corrupt nature, bringeth forth continually in vs none other fruits, but rotten and vsfauory vworks of the flesh,
 in thoughts, vwords, and doings vnto condemnation. VVherefore vvee humbly beseech thy fatherly goodnesse, euen for thy sonne Iesus Christs sake, vvhom thou hast
 set forth for a purchaser of mercy to vs,
 through faith in his blood, make our harts cleane, take avway our stony harts, and giue vnto vs true and liuely faith, vworking in vs vsfained repentance & amendment of our sinfull life. Haue mercy vpon vs and forgine vs our finnes for thy sonns sake, certifie our consciences of the remission of the same by thy holy Spirit : by vvhose operation so mortifie in vs our old man the vvhole body of sinne, that vvee
 continually dying vnto sinne, may vwalk
 in newnesse of life, to the glory of thy holy name, through Iesus Christ our Sa-uiour, Amen.

A prayer to bee said in the Morning.

○ Eternall God and heauenly father seeing that by thy great mercy, vvee
 haue quietly passed this night, graunt
 vvee beseech thee, that vvee may bestovv
 this day vvholy in thy seruice, so that al our thoughts, vwords, and deeds, may redovv

 to the glory of thy name, and good example of our bretheren. And as it hath pleased thee to make the Sunne to shine vpon
 the earth to giue vs bodily light : euen
 so voutsafe to illuminate our vnderstand-ing vwith the brightnesse of thy spirit, to direct vs in the vway of righteousnessse, so that vwhat thing soeuer vvee shall apply
 our selues vnto, our speciall care and purpose may bee to vvalke in thy feare, &
 to serue and honor thee, looking for all our vwealth and prosperitie, to come from thy onely blessing, and that vve may take nothing in hand, vvhich shall not bee agreeable to thy most blessed vwill. Furthermore, that vvee may in such sort trauell for our bodies, and for this present
 life, that vvee may haue alwaies a further regard : that is, to the heauenly life,
 vvhich thou hast promised to thy childre :
 & in the meane season that it may please thee to preserue and defend vs both in body & soule, to strengthen vs against all the temptations of the Diuell, & to deli-uer vs from all perills and dangers that may happen vnto vs, if vvee bee not defended vwith thy godly power. And for as much as to begin vvel, & not to continue,
 is nothing : vvee beseech thee to receaue
 vs, not onely this day into thy holy protection, but also for the time of our vvhole life continuing and increasing in vs dayly thy good grace and gifts thereof,
 vntill thou shalt bring vs to that happy
 state, vvhich vvee shall fully and for euer bee ioined vnto thy son Iesus Christ our sauour, vvhich is the true light of our soules, shining day and night perpetually : & to the end that vvee may obtaine such grace at thy hand, vouchsafe (most merci-full father) to forgine and forget all our finnes, vvhich vvee haue heretofore committed against thee, and for thine infinite mercies sake to pardon the same, as thou hast promised to those that aske of thee vwith vsfained harts, for vvhom as for our selues, vvee make our humble peti-
 cions vnto thee, in the name of thy sonne
 our Lord and sauour Iesus Christ, in such

PRAYERS.

Sort as hee hath taught vs saying. Our father which art. &c.

An Euening praier.

O Lord God Father euerlasting and full of pitie, vvee acknowledge and confesse, that vvee bee not wvorthy to lift vp our eies to heauen, much lesse to persert our selues before thy diuine maiestie, vwith confidence that thou wilt heare our praier & graunt our requests, if vvee consider our ovvne vvretched deservings. For our consciences do accuse vs, and our sinnes vvittesse against vs, & vve know that thou art an vvright iudge, vvwhich doest not iustifie the sinners and vvicked men, but punishest the faults of such as transgresse thy commandements. Yet, most mercifull father, since it hath pleased thee to commaund vs to call vpon thee, in all our troubles and aduersities, promising euen then to help vs, vvhen vvee seeie our selues, as it vvere sv allowed vp of death and desperation, vvee vtterly renounce all vvorldly confidence and trust and fly to thy soueraigne goodnesse as our onely stay and refuge, beseeching thee not to call to remembrance our manifold sins and vvickednes; vvherby vvee continually prouoke thy vvraith and indignation against vs, neyther oir negligence, nor our vvkindnesse vvwhich haue neither vvorthely esteemed, nor in our lines sufficiently expressed, the svveet comfort of thy gospel, revealed vnto vs, but rather to accept the obedience and death of thy sonne Iesus Christ our Lord, vvho by offering vp his body in sacrifice once for all, hath made a sufficient recompence for all our sinnes. Haue mercy therefore vpon vs (O Lord) and forgive vs our offences, teach vs by thy holy spirit that vvee may rightly vvaye them & earnestly repent vs for the same: And so much the rather (O Lord our God) because that the reprobate, and such as thou hast forsaken, cannot praise thee nor call vpon thy name: but the repenting hart, the sorrowfull minde, the conscience oppressed, hungering, and thirsting for thy grace, shall euermore set forth thy praise and glory. And albeit vvee bee but vvormes & dust, yet thou art our creator and vvee bee the vvork of thy hands, yea thou art our father, & vvee thy children, thou art our sheephard & vvee thy flock; thou art our redeemer and vvee thy people vvhom thou hast dearely bought; thou art our God, & vvee are thine inheritance. Correct vs not therefore in thine anger (O Lord our God) neither according to our deserts do thou punish vs, but mercifully chastise vs vvith a fatherly affection, that all the vvorld may know, that at vvhat time soeuer a sinner doth repent him of his sinne from the bottome of his hart, thou wilt put avvay all his vvickednesse out of thy remembrance, as thou hast promised by thy holy Prophet. Finally, forasmuch as it hath pleased thee to make the night for man to rest in, as thou hast ordained him the day to trauil, graunt O deare father that vvee may so take our bodily rest, that our soules may continually vvatch for the time that our Lord Iesus Christ shall apeare, for our full deliuerance out of this mortall life, and in the meane season, that vvee bee not ouercome by any fantasies, dreams, or other temptations, but may fully set our mindes vpon thee, loue thee, feare thee, & rest in thee, in such sort that our very sleep also may bee to the glory of thy holy name. Furthermore, that our sleep bee not excessiue or ouer much, after the insatiable desire of the flesh, but onely sufficient to content our vvweak nature, that vvee may the better bee disposed to liue in all Godly conuersation, to the glory of thy holy name, and profit of our brethren, through Iesus Christ our lord, in vvwhose name vvee make our humble petitions vnto thee, as hee hath taught vs. Our father. &c.

A praier for true repentance.

Most gracious God and mercifull father of our sauour Iesus Christ, because I haue sinned and done vvickedly, and through thy goodnesse haue receaued a desire of repentance, vvhereunto his thy long suffering doth dravv my hard hart, I beseech thee for thy great mercies sake in Christ, to vvork the same repentance in mee, & by thy spirit, povver and grace, so to humble, mortifie, and feare my conscience for my sinnes to saluation, that in the good time thou maiest comfort and quicken mee againe through Iesus Christ thy dearely beloved sonne. So be it.

PRAYERS.

A prayer to bee said before the receauing of the holy Communion.

O Father of mercy and God of all consolation, seeing all creatures doe acknowledge and confesse thee to bee their gouerner and Lord, it becommeth vs, the vvorkeanship of thine ovne hands, at all times to reuerence & magnifie thy godly maiestie: first for that thou hast created vs to thine ovne Image & similitude, but chiefly because thou hast deliuered vs from that euerlasting death and danation, into which Sathan dreu mankind by the meanes of sin, from the bondage vvhich thereof, neither man nor Angell vvas able to make vs free: but thou (O Loyd) rich in mercy and infinit in goodness, hast provided our redemption, to stand in thine onely & vvelbeloued sonne: vvhom of very loue thou didest giue to bee made man like vnto vs in all things sinne excepted, that in his body he might receaue the punishment of our transgression, by his death to make satisfaction to thy iustice, and by his resurrection to destroy him that vvas the author of death, and so to bring againe life to the vvorld, from vvhich the vvhole offspring of Adam vvas most iustly exiled. O Lord vvee acknowledge that no creature vvas able to comprehend the length, breadth, deepnesse and height, of that thy most excellent loue vvhich moued thee to shew mercy vvhich none vvas deserued, to promise and giue life, vvhich death had gotten victory, to receiue vs into thy grace vvhich vvee could doe nothing but rebell against thy maiestie.

The blind dulnesse of our corrupt nature wil not suffer vs sufficiently to vvaie these thy most ample benefits. Yet neuertheles at the commaundment of Iesus Christ our Lord, vvee present our selues to this thy table, vvhich hee hath left to bee vsed in remembrance of his death vntill his coming againe) to declare and vvitnesse before the vvorld, that by him alone vvee haue receaued liberty and life: that by him alone thou doest acknowledge vs to bee thy children and heires: that by him alone vvee haue entraunce to the throne of thy grace, that by him alone vvee are possessed into our spirituall kingdome to eate & drinck at his table, & vvhich vvhom vvee haue our conuersation presently in heauen, and by vvhom our bodies shall bee raised vp againe from the dust, and shall bee placed vvhich him in that endlesse ioy, vvhich thou (O father of mercy) hast prepared for thine elect before the foundation of the vvorld vvas laide. And these most inestimable benefits vvee acknowledge & confesse to haue receaued, of thy free mercy & grace, by thine onely beloued son Iesus Christ. For the vvhich therefore vvee thy congregation moued by thy holy Spirit doe render to thee all thanks praise, and glory, for euer & euer.

A thanks giuing after the receauing of the holy Communion.

Most mercifull Father, vvee render vnto thee all prayse, thanks honor and glory, for that it hath pleased thee of thy great mercies to graunt vnto vs miserable sinners, so excellent a gift and treasure, as to receaue vs into the fellowship and company of thy deere Sonne Iesus Christ our Lord, vvhom thou hast deliuered to death for vs, and hast giuen him vnto vs a necessary food and nourishment vnto euerlasting life. And now vvee beseech thee also (O heauenly father) to graunt vs this request, that thou neuer suffer vs to become so vnkinde as to forget so vworthy benefits, but rather imprint & fasten them sure in our harts, that vvee may grow and increase daily more and more in true faith, vvhich continually is exercised in all manner of good vvorke, and so much the rather (O Lord) confirme vs in these perelous daies and rage of Sathan, that vvee may constantly stand & continue in the confession of the same, to the aduancement of thy glory vvhich art God ouer all things bee blessed for euer.

402 PSALMS.—The Whole Booke of Psalmes: with their Wonted
 Tunes, as they are sung in Churches, composed into foure Parts:
 Being so placed, that foure may sing each one a severall part in this Booke: wherein the Church tunes are carefully corrected, and thereunto added other short tunes vsually sung in London, and most places of this Realme: with a Table in the beginning of the Booke, of such Tunes as are newly added, and the number of each Psalme placed to the said Tune. Composed by X sundry authors, who haue so laboured herein, that the vnskilfull with small practise may attaine to sing that part, which is fittest for their voyce. Printed at London for the Companie of Stationers, 1611. Sm. 8vo, with woodcut border to title, and musical notation in four separate parts throughout, blue morocco extra, gilt edges, 8l. 8s.

The ten composers of the tunes were Richard Allison, E. Blancks, Michael Cavendish, William Cobbold, John Douland, John Farmer, Giles Farnaby, Edmund Hooper, Edward Johnson, and George Kirby, the name of the composer being given to each tune. Some of the tunes are distinguished by names, such as "Glassenbury Tune,"
 "Kentish Tune," "Suffolk Tune," and "Cheshire Tune," an early instance of this practice. This is the fourth edition of Thomas East's Psalter (first published in 1502).

3rd Ed of Estes Practice (1st 1572

2nd 1594)

She has dropped 9 of the times
now in Damens Practice (put by him) & the 5 he has taken after as 'newly added'. 4 of these are those of Thomas Stinner as Cambridge, Oxford, Canterbury & Windsor.
The 1st 3 must already have become great favorites with the first Ed.
Since Cambridge is repeated 29 times Oxford 2) & Canterbury 33. The repetition is therefore in a new form-Cible, than the other of repeating being long times once or twice; less the repetition is confined almost wholly to these 3. Five really new times (C.M.) have been added. Three are Latin names for the 1st time, the other afterwards became London & Winchester. For the musical qualities of the 4 the arrangements, for which
