CANTVS.

TO THE MOST RARE AND ACCOMPLISHED LADY THE LADY

MARYE
COVNTES OF PEMBROKE.

MOST excellent Lady, give mee leaue to take this simple occasion of presenting my humble deuotion to honor you: and if boldnesse in it selfe bee not too great a fault, pardon and forgine the same, since the cause thereof in mee being diuerse from that in other men; doth in all right craue a most kinde and fauourable interpretation. For wheras they doe dedicate with hope of after benefit: so far am I from this, that your Ladiship in accepting this of mee, doth binde mee to you: and I in giueing thereof doe infinitely thank you for the same. Not so much because hereby I shall make knowne the greatnesse of your deserts to mee, as that now I shall make knowne to the world mine owne iudgement in this my choise: nor so much shew you worthy to receiue, as my selfe wise thus to giue: nor yet binde you any way so much to mee by this gift; as I shall binde my selfe to my selfe by this acknowledgement. Receiue then (most worthy Lady) these simple gifts, worthy to be receiued, euen of the greatest Princes that the world hath (not because they are mine, but because now they are yours) to which if at any time your Ladiship shall but vouchsafe your heauenly voice; it cannot bee but they will so returne perfumed with the sweetnesse of that breath, as the Ayre wilbe made euen delightfull thereby, and for that cause come to be in request and sought for ener after. Vpon which assurance resting my selfe, I humbly take my leaue in all reuerence kissing your honorable hands.

Vnto your Ladiship deuored

in all affection,

THOMAS MORLEY.

MARYE
COVNTES OF PEMBROKE.

MOST excellent Lady, give mee leave to take this simple occasion of presenting my humble deuotion to honor you: and if boldnesse in it selfe bee not too great a fault, pardon and forgiue the same; since the cause thereof in mee being diuerse from that in other men; doth in all right craue a most kinde and fauourable interpretation. For whereas they doe dedicate with hope of after benefit: so far am I from this, that your Ladiship in accepting this of mee, doth binde mee to you: and I in giueing thereof doe infinitely thank you for the same. Not so much because hereby I shall make knowne the greatnesse of your deserts to mee; as that now I shall make knowne to the world mine owne iudgement in this my choise: nor so much shew you worthy to receiue, as my selfe wise thus to giue: nor yet binde you any way so much to mee by this gift; as I shall binde my selfe to my selfe by this acknowledgement. Receiue then (most worthy Lady) these simple gifts, worthy to be receiued, euen of the greatest Princes that the world hath (not because they are mine, but because now they are yours) to which if at any time your Ladiship shall but vouchsafe your heavenly voices, it cannot bee but they will so returne perfumed with the sweetnesse of that breath, as the Ayre wilbe made euen delightfull thereby, and for that cause come to be in request and sought for euer after. Vppon which assurance resting my selfe, I humbly take my leaue, in all reuerence kissing your honorable hands.

A Rise get vp, my deere.
Blow shepheards, blow.
Cease mine eyes.
Cruell you pull away too soone.
Deepe lamenting.
Doe you not know.
Farewell, disdainfull.
God morrow, faire Ladies.
Hould out my heart.
Ioy, ioy doth so arise.
Lady, those eyes.
Lady, if I through griefe.
Loue learns by laughing, first to speake.
Now must I dye.
O flye not, O take some pittie.
Say, deere, will you not haue mee?
See, see, mine owne sweet Iewell.
Spring time mantleth euery bough.
Thirfts.
This loue is but a wanton fit.
Though Philomela lost her Loue.
What ailes my darling?
Where art, wher art thou?
Whether away to fast.

TO THE MOST RARE AND ACCOM-PLISHED LADY THE LADY

MARYE
COVNTES OF PEMBROKE.

MOST excellent Lady, give mee leave to take this simple occasion of presenting my humble deuotion to honor you: and if boldnesse in it selfe bee not too great a fault, pardon and forgiue the same; since the cause thereof in mee being diuerse from that in other men; doth in all right craue a most kinde and fauourable interpretation. For whereas they doe dedicate with hope of after benefit: so far am I from this, that your Ladiship in accepting this of mee, doth binde mee to you: and I in giueing thereof doe infinitely thank you for the same. Not so much because hereby I shall make knowne the greatnesse of your deserts to mee; as that now I shall make knowne to the world mine owne iudgement in this my choise: nor so much shew you worthy to receiue, as my selfe wise thus to giue: nor yet binde you any way so much to mee by this gift; as I shall binde my selfe to my selfe by this acknowledgement. Receiue then (most worthy Lady) these simple gifts, worthy to be receiued, euen of the greatest Princes that the world hath (not because they are mine, but because now they are yours) so which if at any time your Ladiship shall but vouchsafe your heavenly voice; it cannot bee but they will so retorne perfumed with the sweetnesse of that breath, as the Ayre wilbe made euen delightfull thereby, and for that cause come to be in request and sought for euer after. Vppon which assurance resting my selfe, I humbly take my leaue, in all reuerence kissing your honorable hands.

Vnto your Ladiship deuoted

in all affection,

THOMAS MORLEY.
