frivolous a character for the sacred purpose for which they have been used, others being too difficult and complicated in their movement for a mixed congregation.

"Whoever may have had occasion to examine the Psalm tunes composed of late, will perceive, that for the most part they are without that simplicity which characterizes the ancient style, and are very far removed from the true ecclesiastical mode of composition. Solemnity in the melody, equability in the movement, depth and richness in the harmony, have been superseded by the graces which belong to florid or figurative music; divisions of notes, accented passages, chromatic modulations, may be all highly ornamental in their proper places; but they are just as suitable to the Psalmody of our church, as the Corinthian acanthus or Ionic volute would be to the massive grandeur of a Tuscan column. There are some tunes which have found their way into modern collections, which seem to have been written in open defiance of all sound opinions and established principles upon the subject; they carry with them the rhythm and levity of a ballad air, and differ from one in nothing but their time. Even the old tunes themselves are found in some of the late editions so deformed by slurs, and binding notes, and flourishes, by combinations of crotchets and quavers, where there once was nothing but simple breves and semibrevres, that Mr. Warton might well presume 'that much of their primitive harmony was lost by additions, variations, and transpositions.' All these strange deviations from the old paths of Psalmody-and many more might be enumerated-shew, that it daily becomes more necessary to revert to the genuine original tunes and to endeavour to restore Psalm-singing to its primitive simplicity." †

The following tunes may be taken as favourable specimens of the proper style of Psalmody:—St. David's,

Nottingham, Brandenburg, Glastonbury, Dundee, St. Mary's, St. Michael's, Wartburg, St. Stephen's, St. Peter's, Luther's Hymn, St. Ebb's, Wittenberg, Arundel, Windsor, Bavaria, Savoy, Abbey Tune, Nayland, Hamburg, Berlin, St. Mark's, Leyden.

The majority of these were composed in the 16th and 17th centuries, and are deservedly admired; many of them were harmonized by Morley, Allison, Ravenscroft, and other great masters; but some of them are of a still earlier date. "The most sublime Psalm Tunes are the most ancient we have." †

It will be remarked in the above-mentioned tunes, that for the most part, there is a separate note for every syllable; this seems necessary for the distinct articulation of the words. Where several notes are sung to the same syllable, it is difficult, if not impossible, for those who sing, distinctly to articulate the words, or for those who listen to understand them; hence, as Dr. Crotch remarks, "the worst style of Psalmody" is that which abounds with slurs.

If some tunes have been allowed a place in this selection, which do not altogether accord with the principles here laid down, it is because they are too generally used to be omitted in any modern publication of this kind; but we may hope, as public attention is now directed to this subject, that a more correct taste will soon prevail in our congregations, and that the simple, but solemn and majestic compositions used by the Reformers, and those of the great modern masters formed on these models, will again be heard within the walls of our churches. We should not forget, that, "in church music, curiosity and ostentation of art, wanton or light or unsuitable harmony, such as only pleaseth the ear, and doth not naturally serve to the very kind and degree of those impressions, which the matter that goeth with it leaveth, or is apt to leave in men's minds, doth rather blemish and disgrace that we do, than add either beauty or furtherance unto it." †

The Hymns in this selection, with one exception, are those which have been sanctioned by the "Association for promoting the knowledge and practice of the Christian religion," and are to be found at the end of the prayer-books circulated by that Society.

1st PSALM.

VERSES 1, 2, 3, 6.

Harmonized by

RAVENSCROFT.

 $\mathbf{2}$

But makes the perfect law of God His business and delight; Devoutly reads therein by day, And meditates by night.

Like some fair tree, which, fed by streams,
With timely fruit does bend,
He still shall flourish, and success
All his designs attend.

For God approves the just man's ways, To happiness they tend; But sinners, and the path they tread, Shall both in ruin end.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom we adore,
Be glory; as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

2ND PSALM.

NOTTINGHAM.

The great in counsel and in might Their various forces bring; Against the Lord they all unite, And His anointed King.

Must we submit to their commands?
Presumptuously they say:
No, let us break their slavish bands,
And cast their chains away.

A

But God who sits enthron'd on high, And sees how they combine, Does their conspiring strength defy, And mocks their vain design.

10

Learn then, ye princes; and give ear Ye judges of the earth; Worship the Lord with holy fear; Rejoice with awful mirth.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom we adore,
Be glory; as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

VERSES 1, 3, 4, 5, 8. Harmonized by BRANDENBURG. MORLEY. D. C. M. Air, and 2d Treble, or Alto. How ma-ny, Lord, of late are grown The And, trou-blers as their of my peace! So does their rage hour - ly rise, in-crease.

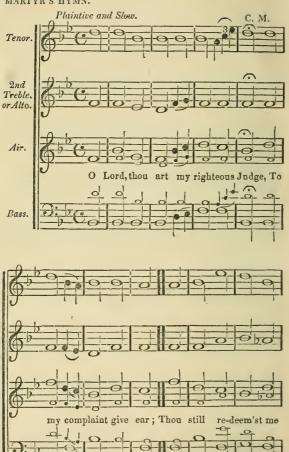

- 4. Since whensoever in distress To God I made my pray'r, He heard me from His holy hill, Why should I now despair? 5. Guarded by Him I laid me down,
- My sweet repose to take; For I through Him securely sleep, Through Him in safety wake.
- 8. Salvation to the Lord belongs, He only can defend; His blessing He extends to all That on His pow'r depend. To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, The God whom we adore,

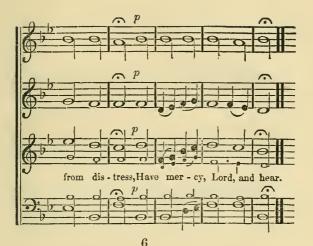

Be glory; as it was, is now, And shall be evermore.

4TH PSALM.

VERSES 1, 6, 7, 8,

While worldly minds impatient grow More prosp'rous times to see, Still let the glories of Thy face Shine brightly, Lord, on me.

So shall my heart o'erflow with joy,
More lasting and more true,
Than theirs, who stores of corn and wine
Successively renew.

Then down in peace I'll lay my head,
And take my needful rest;
No other guard, O Lord, I crave,
Of Thy defence possest.

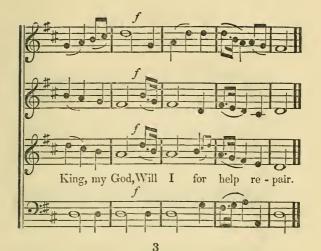

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom we adore,
Be glory; as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

PSALM.

HOWARD'S. MRS. CUTHBERT. Plaintive and Slow. C. M. hear the voice of my complaint, Acse-cret pray'r; To thee a-lone, my

Thou in the morn my voice shalt hear,
And with the dawning day
To thee devoutly I'll look up,
To thee devoutly pray.

And when thy boundless grace shall me
To thy lov'd courts restore,
On thee I'll fix my longing eyes,
And humbly there adore.

12

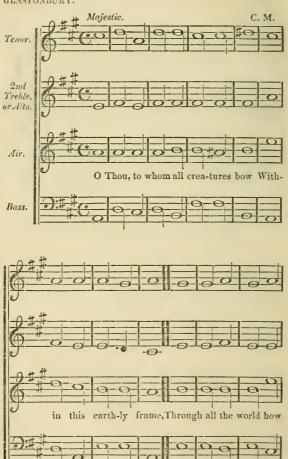

To righteous men the righteous Lord His blessing will extend, And with his favour all his saints, As with a shield, defend.

Gloria Patri.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom we adore,
Be glory; as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

8TH PSALM.

VERSES 1, 3, 4, 9.

GLASTONBURY.

When heav'n, Thy beauteous work on high, Employs my wond'ring sight; The moon that nightly rules the sky, With stars of feebler light;

What's man, say I, that, Lord, Thou lov'st
To keep him in Thy mind?
Or what his offspring, that Thou prov'st
'To them so wondrous kind?

O Thou, to whom all creatures bow Within this earthly frame, Through all the world how great art Thou! How glorious is Thy Name!

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
The God whom we adore,
Be glory; as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

9TH PSALM.

VERSES 1, 2, 9, 10, 11.

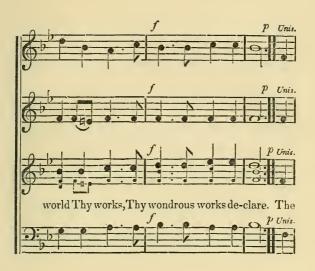

CANTERBURY.

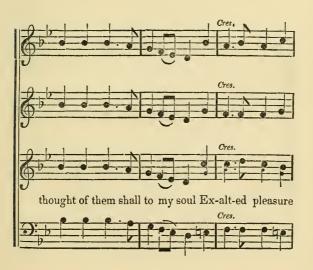

DR. CHARD.

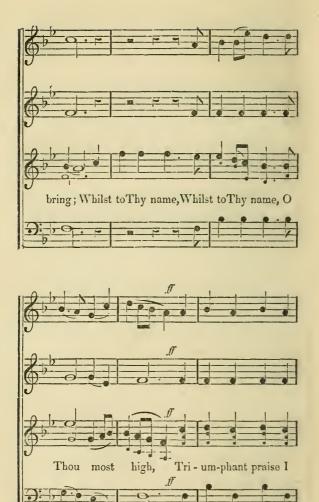

According to his original Harmonization.

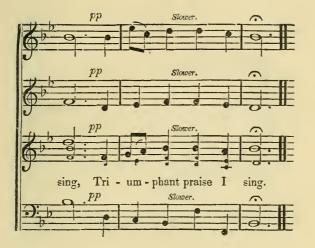

- God is a constant sure defence
   Against oppressing rage;
   As troubles rise, His needful aids
   In our behalf engage.
- All those who have His goodness prov'd
   Will in His truth confide;
   Whose mercy ne'er forsook the man
   That on His help relied.
- 11. Sing praises, therefore, to the Lord,
  From Sion, His abode;
  Proclaim His deeds, till all the world
  Confess no other God.
  Glory to Thee, bless'd Three in One,
  The God whom we adore;
  As was, and is, and shall be done,
  When time shall be no more.

13TH PSALM.

VERSES 1, 2, 3, 5, 6.

How long shall anxious thoughts my And griefmy heart oppress? [soul, How long my enemies insult, And I have no redress? O hear, and to my longing eyes, Restore Thy wonted light; And suddenly, or 1 shall sleep In everlasting night.

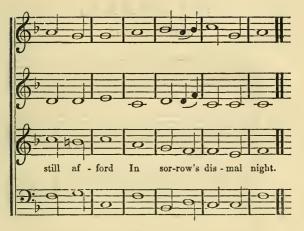

Since I have always plac'd my trust Then shall my song, with praise in-Beneath Thy mercy's wing, To Thee, my God, ascend; [spir'd, Thy saving health will come, and then Who to Thy servant in distress, My heart with joy shall spring. Such bounty didst extend.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom we adore,
Be glory; as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

16TH PSALM.

VERSES 7, 8, 9, 11, Harmonized by RAVENSCROFT. DUNDEE bless the Lord, Whose

I strive each action to approve
To His all-seeing eye;
No danger shall my hopes remove,
Because He still is nigh.

Therefore my heart all grief defies My glory does rejoice; My flesh shall rest in hope to rise, Wak'd by His pow'rful voice.

11

Thou shalt the paths of life display,
That to Thy presence lead;
Where pleasures dwell without allay,
And joys that never fade.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom we adore,
Be glory; as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

VERSES 1, 2, 3, 6, 46.

Thou my deliv'rer art, my God, My trust is in Thy mighty pow'r: Thou art my shield from foes abroad, At home my safeguard and my tow'r.

To Thee will I address my pray'r, To whom all praise we justly owe; So shall I, by Thy watchful care, Be guarded from my treach'rous foe.

To heav'n I made my mournful pray'r. To God address'd my humble moan; Who graciously inclin'd His ear,

And heard me from His lofty throne. 46 Let the eternal Lord be prais'd, The rock on whose defence I rest;

O'er highest heav'ns His name be rais'd, Who me with His salvation blest.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, The God whom earth and heav'n adore, Be glory; as it was of old, Is now, and shall be evermore.

23RD PSALM.

In tender grass He makes me feed,
And gently there repose;
Then leads me to cool shades, and where
Refreshing water flows.

In His most righteous ways.

I pass the gloomy vale of death,
From fear and danger free;
For there His aiding rod and staff
Defend and comfort me.

Since God does thus His wond'rous love Through all my life extend, That life to Him I will devote, And in His temple spend.

VERSES 7, 8, 9, 10.

Lift up your heads, ye gates, unfold
 In state to entertain
 The King of Glory; see, He comes

With all His shining train.

10. Who is the King of Glory? who?

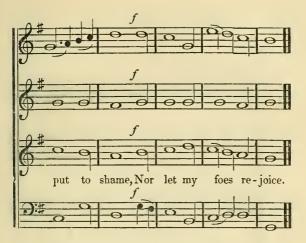

The Lord of Hosts renown'd:
Of glory He alone is King,
Who is with glory crown'd.

CHORUS, from Rev. vii. 12.
Blessing, honor, might and power,
Be unto our God for ever:
Hallelujah; Amen!

DUDLEY.

To me Thy truth impart,
And lead me in Thy way;
For Thou art He that brings me help,
On Thee I wait all day.

Thy mercies and Thy love, O Lord, recall to mind; And graciously continue still, As Thou wert ever, kind.

His mercy and His truth
The righteous Lord displays,
In bringing wand'ring sinners home,
And teaching them His ways.

To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit, glory be;
As 'twas, and is, and shall be so
To all eternity.

FIRST PART.

ST. MARY'S.

VERSES 1, 3, 4, 5. OLD GERMAN TUNE.

Through Him my heart, undaunted, dares With mighty hosts to cope; Through Him, in doubtful straits of war For good success I hope.

Henceforth within His house to dwell I earnestly desire;
His wondrous beauty there to view,
And of His will enquire.

For there may I with comfort rest,
In times of deep distress;
And safe, as on a rock, abide
In that secure recess.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,

The God whom we adore,
Be glory; as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

SECOND PART.

When us to seek Thy glorious face
Thou kindly dost advise;
Thy glorious face I'll always seek,
My grateful heart replies.

Then hide not Thou Thy face, O Lord, Nor me in wrath reject; My God and Saviour, leave not him Thou didst so oft protect.

Gloria Patri.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom we adore,
Be glory; as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

31st PSALM.

VERSES 1, 2, 10, 14, 24.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

Bow down Thy gracious ear, And speedy succour send; Do Thou my stedfast rock appear, To shelter and defend.

-10

Sad thoughts my life oppress;
My years are spent in groans;
My sins have made my strength decrease,
And e'en consum'd my bones.

14

But still my stedfast trust
I on Thy help repose;
That Thou, my God, art good and just,
My soul with comfort knows.

24

Ye that on God rely, Courageously proceed; For He will still your hearts supply With strength in time of need.

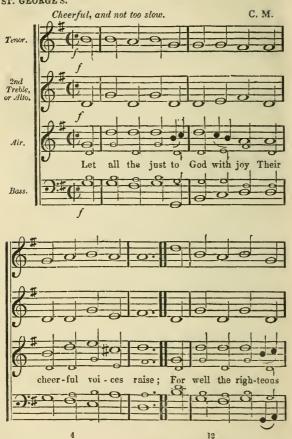

Gloria Patri.

To God the Father, Son,
And Spirit. glory be:
As 'twas, and is, and shall be so
To all eternity.

33RD PSALM.

VERSES 1, 4, 12, 20, 22.

ST. GEORGE'S.

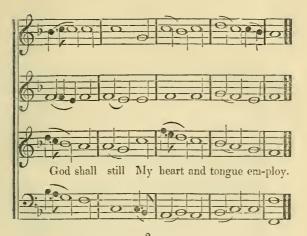

For faithful is the word of God, His works with truth abound; He justice loves, and all the earth Is with his goodness crown'd. How happy then are they, to whom The Lord for God is known; Whom He from all the world besides Has chosen for His own.

Gloria Patri.
To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom we adore,
Be glory; as it was, is now,
and shall be evermore.

VERSES 1, 2, 3, 8, 9. IRISH. ISAAC SMITH. C. M.

Of His deliv'rance I will boast, Till all that are distrest,

From my example comfort take, And charm their griefs to rest.

-3

O magnify the Lord with me, With me exalt His Name; When in distress to Him I call'd, He to my rescue came.

O make but trial of His love! Experience will decide, How bless'd are they, and only they, Who in His truth confide.

Fear Him, ye saints, and you will then Have nothing else to fear; Make you His service your delight, Your wants shall be His care.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom we adore,
Be glory; as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore

VERSES 5, 6, 7, 8, 9.

EATON. WYVILL.

Thy justice, like the hills, remains;
Unfathom'd depths Thy judgments are;
Thy providence the world sustains;
The whole creation is Thy care.

Since of Thy goodness all partake,
With what assurance should the just
Thy shelt'ring wings their refuge make,
And saints to Thy protection trust.

8

Such guests shall to Thy courts be led To banquet on Thy love's repast; And drink, as from a fountain's head, Of joys that shall for ever last.

With Thee the springs of life remain;
Thy presence is eternal day:
O let Thy saints Thy favour gain;
To upright hearts Thy truth display.

Gloria Patri.

To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom earth and heav'n adore,
Be glory; as it was of old,
Is now, and shall be evermore.

VERSES 1, 4, 17, 21. WARTBURG. Thy chast'ning wrath, O Lord, re-strain, Tho'

My sins, that to a deluge swell,
My sinking head o'erflow;
And for my feeble strength to bear
Too vast a burden grow.

17

And, with continual grief opprest,

VERSES 4, 5, 6, 7, 12, 13.

6. Man like a shadow vainly walks, 12. Lord, hear my cry, accept my tears. With fruitless cares oppress'd; And listen to my pray'r; Who sojourn like a stranger here, He heaps up wealth, but cannot tell By whom 'twill be possess'd; As all my fathers were. 7. On thee alone my stedfast hope

My wasted strength restore;
Before I vanish quite from hence,

Shall ever, Lord, depend.

And shall be seen no more.

FOR CHRISTMAS DAY.

Good-will to sinful men is shown,
And peace on earth is giv'n;
For lo! th'incarnate Saviour comes
With messages from heav'n.

Justice and grace, with sweet accord, His rising beams adorn; Let heav'n and earth in concert join, To us a Child is born.

Glory to God in highest strains, In highest worlds be paid; His glory by our lips proclaim'd, And by our lives display'd.

When shall we reach those blissful realms
Where Christ exalted reigns;
And learn of the celestial choir
Their own immortal strains?

2ND HYMN.

FOR CHRISTMAS DAY.

Christ, by highest heav'n ador'd, Christ the everlasting Lord, Late in time behold Him come, Offspring of a virgin's womb: Veil'd in flesh the Godhead see! Hail th'incarnate Deity! Pleas'd as man with man to dwell, Jesus, our Immanuel.

Halle ujah; Angul

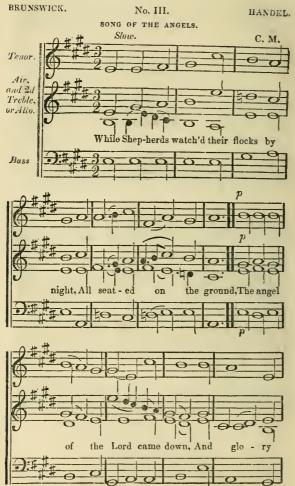

Hail the heav'n-born Prince of Peace!
Hail the Sun of Kighteousness!
Light and life to all He brings,
Ris'n with healing in His wings.
Mild He lays flis glory by,
Born that man no more may die:
Forn to raise the sons of earth,
Born to give them second birth.

Hallelujah; Amen!

3RD HYMN.

FOR CHRISTMAS DAY.

Fear not, said he, (for mighty dread Had seiz'd their troubled mind,) Glad tidings of great joy I bring To you and all mankind, The heav'nly Babe you there shall find

To human view display'd,
All meanly wrapt in swathing-bands,
And in a manger laid,

To you, in David's town, this day
Is born of David's line,
Appear'd a shining throng
The Saviour, who is Christ the Lord; Of angels, praising God, and thus
And this shall be the sign:
Address'd their joyful song;

All glory be to God on high;
And to the earth be peace;
Good-will henceforth from heav'n to men
Begin, and never cease.

FOR EASTER DAY.

RESURBECTION.

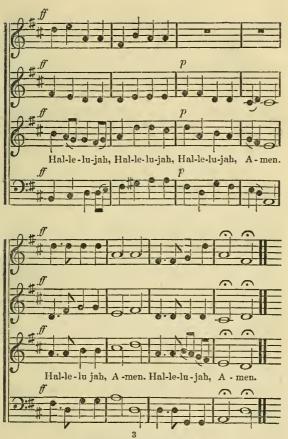

No. I.

Vain the stone, the watch, the seal, Christ hath burst the gates of hell; Death in vain forbids His rise; Christ hath open'd Paradise.
Lo! He rises, mighty King,
Where, O death! is now thy sting?
Lo! He claims His native sky;
Grave, where is thy victory?
Hallelejah; Amen!

Christ, the Lord, is ris'n to day,
Our triumphant holy-day;
Loud the song of triumph raise,
Sing your great Redeemer's praise.
Hail! the Lord of earth and heav'n!
Praise to Thee by both be giv'n;
Thee we greet triumphant now:
Hail! the Resurrection Thou,
Hallelujah; Amen

Hymns of praise then let us sing Unto Christ our heav'nly King; Who endur'd the cross and grave, Sinners to redeem and save.

But the pains which He endur'd Our salvation have procur'd; Now above the sky He's King, Where the angels ever sing. Hallelujah!

Hallelujah!

Hallelujah!

Hallelujah! Hallelujah!

Hallelujah!

FROM THE ORDINATION SERVICE.

Enable with perpetual light
The dulness of our blinded sight.
Anoint and cheer our soiled face
With the abundance of Thy grace.
Keep far our foes, give peace at home:
Where Thou art guide, no ill can come.

Teach us to know the Father, Son, And Thee, of both, to be but One: That, through the ages all along, This, this may be our endless song: Praise to Thy eternal merit. Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

ST. LUKE'S.

DR. WAINWRIGHT.

Thou art the Comforter, the gift
Of God most high; the fire of love,
The everlasting spring of joy,
And holy unction from above.

Thy gifts are manifold; Thou writ'st
God's laws in ev'ry faithful heart;
The promise of the Father, Thou
Dost heav'nly eloquence impart.

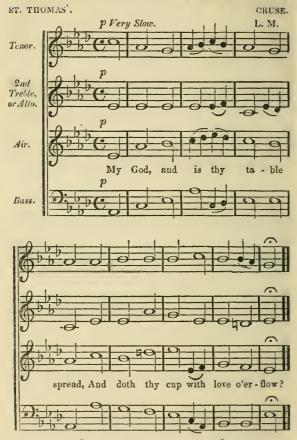

Enlighten our dark souls, till they Thy love, Thy heav'nly love embrace; And (since we are by nature frail) Assist us with Thy saving grace.

Drive far from us the mortal foe, And grant us to have peace within; The Son, who was from death res-That, with Thy light and guidance blest, And sacred Comforter, one God, [tor'd, We may escape the snares of sin.

Teach us the Father to confess, And Son, who from the grave reviv'd; And, with the Father and the Son, Thee, HolyGhost, from both deriv'd.

To endless ages he ador'd.

FOR THE HOLY COMMUNION.

Hail, sacred feast, which Jesus makes, Why are its dainties all in vain
Rich banquet of His flesh and blood! Before unwilling hearts display'd?
Thrice happy he who here partakes Was not for you the victim slain?
That sacred stream, that heav'nly flood. Are you forbid the children's bread?

Ot let Thy table honour'd be; And furnish'd well with joyful guests:

guests; And may each soul salvation see, That here its sacred pledges tastes!

Let crowds approach, with hearts prepar'd, With hearts inflam'd let all attend;

Nor, when we leave our Father's board,
The pleasure or the profit end.

Revive Thy dying Churches, Lord, And bid our drooping graces live; And more, that energy afford, A Saviour's blood alone can give.

GLASTONBURY.

And worthy is the Lamb, all pow'r,

Honour, and wealth to gain,

Glory and strength; who for our sins

A sacrifice was slain.

All worthy Thou, who hast redeem'd
And ransom'd us to God,
From ev'ry nation, ev'ry coast,
By Thy most precious blood.

Blessing and honour, glory, pow'r,
By all in earth and heav'n,
To Him that sits upon the throne,
And to the Lamb be giv'n.

FROM THE THANKSGIVING IN COMMUNION SERVICE.

EMMANUEL. BEETHOVEN.

And thanks for Thy great glory give,
That fills our souls with light;
O Lord! God! heav'nly King! The God

And Father of all might.

And Thou, begotten Son of God, Before all time begun; O Jesu Christ! God, Lamb of God! The Father's only Son!

Have mercy, Thou that tak'st the sins Of all the world away! Have mercy, Saviour of mankind, And hear us when we pray!

O Thon, who sitt'st at God's right hand, Upon the Father's throne, Have mercy on us, Thon, O Christ, Who art the Holy One!

Thou, Lord,—who with the Holy Ghost, Whom earth and heav'n adore, In glory of the Father art Most high for evermore.

THE LAMENTATION OF A SINNER.

We need not to confess our fault, And need we then, O Lord, repeat For surely, Thou can'st tell; The blessing which we crave; What we have done, and what we are, When Thou dost know, before we ask, O Lord, Thou knowest well: Wherefore, to beg and to entreat,

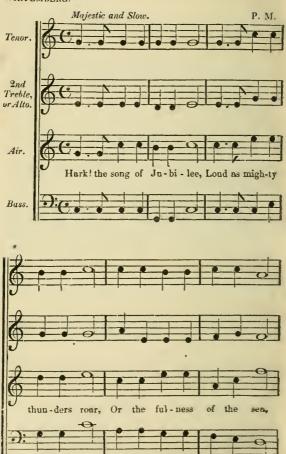

With tears we come to Thee, As children that have done amiss, Fall at their father's knee.

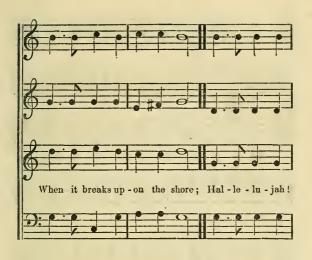

The thing that we would have ? Mercy, good Lord, mercy we seek: This is the total sum;

For mercy, Lord, is all our suit; O let Thy mercy come!

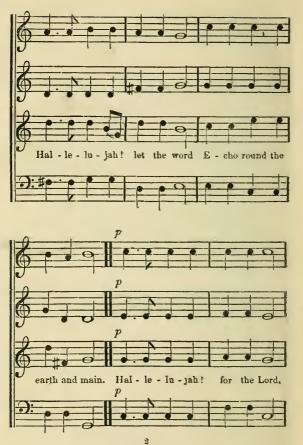

HALLELUJAH.

WIRTEMBERG.

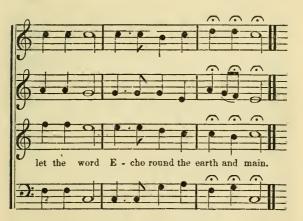

Hallelujah!—hark! the sound,
From the centre to the skies,
Wakes above, beneath, around,
All creation's harmonies:
See Jehovah's banners furl'd,
Sheath'd His sword; He speaks—'tis cone,
And the kingdoms of this world
Are the kingdoms of His Son.

He shall reign from pole to pole
With illimitable sway;
He shall reign, when like a scroll
Yonder heav'ns have pass'd away;
Then the end;—beneath his rod,
Man's last enemy shall fall
Hallelujah! Christ in God,
God in Christ is all in all.
