The musical score consists of five systems of piano music. Each system is written for two staves (treble and bass clef). The notation is highly decorative, featuring numerous arpeggiated figures, mordents, and grace notes. The first system concludes with a double bar line, a repeat sign, and the word "Fine." The second system includes first and second endings. The third system also includes first and second endings. The fourth system is a continuous passage. The fifth system includes first and second endings and concludes with a double bar line and the instruction "Da Capo."
