THE SUN IS IN THE WEST.

BALLAD

T. T. BARKER.

Andante, e con Espressione.

The sun is in the west, The stars are on the sea, Each kind - ly hand I've cres.....

espress:

prest,..... And now, fare-well to thee The cup of part - ing

cres:

done, 'Tis the dark-est I can sip I have pledg'd them ev' - - ry

cres:

rall:

one With my heart and with my lip, But I came to thee the

rall:

cres:.....

last, That togeth - - er we might throw One look up-on the

rall:
past..... In sad - ness ere I go.

Belov'd one! oh farewell— And

cres:.....
though no hope be giv'n, Thy name shall be a spell..... To lift my thoughts to heav'n, And thy mem - o - ry shall be What the dew is to the rose ~ It shall come as grate - - ful - ly As the

cres:..... rall:

hour of my re-pose It shall be what it hath been A lamp with-in the tomb To burn though all un - - seen..... And

cres:..... rall:

lighten up its gloom.
