THE LAST SWEET SMILE THAT YOU GAVE ME.

By WILL. S. HAYS.

Allegretto.

1. How the bright lit - tle stars shine up - on me,	And the moon rolls so gen - tly a -
2. O, I think of the hour we part - ed,	And re - mem - ber the last fond "Good
3. Oh, 'tis ma - ny long years since we part - ed,	And it may not be long ere we long;	Now the birds' have all done with their sing - ing,	The bye,"	And the last ten - der kiss of af - fec - tion,	And the meet,	Yet the thought, we are true to each oth - er,	Is night bird a - lone sings his song, My young heart now op - ens its tear drop that shone in thine eye. No, no, I can nev - er for - one that is pleas - ant and sweet. Soon, soon will we wel - come each win - dows, How hap - py in - deed it must be, For 'tis get it, The last sweet smile that you gave me, When you oth - er, Till then, oh how lone - ly I'll be, And be - filled with the light of thy friendship, To - night I am thinking of thee.

 whis - per'd "Good bye and God bless you;" To - night I am think - ing of thee.
 lieve me, my own dear be - lov'd one, To - night I am think - ing of thee.

CHORUS.

SOPRANO
ALTO
TENOR
BASS

Think-ing of thee, still think-ing of thee, Lov'd one, I know thou must be,
Think-ing of thee, still think-ing of thee; Lov'd one, I know thou must be,

Hap-py in feel-ing and know-ing, To-night I am think-ing of thee, of thee.
Hap-py in feel-ing and know-ing, To-night I am think-ing of thee, of thee.
