TESTIMONIALS FROM CELEBRATED PIANISTS, To Wm. B. Bradbury's New Scale Piano-Fortes.

WILLIAM MASON.

"MR. WM. B. BRADBURY:—Dear Sir,—After repeated tests of your new Scale Piano-Forte, in almost every variety of musical composition and expression, I find that they possess, in the highest degree, all the essentials of a PERFECT PIANO-FORTE.

"The GRANDNESS, purity, equality, and DURATION of tone are combined in a degree rarely to be met with, while the elasticity and perfection of the action gives the most rapid response to the touch. I consider them a VERY SUPERIOR INSTRUMENT, and as such they will command the highest commendation of the artiste, the critic, or amateur.—Yours, very truly,

"New York, July 25, 1863.

"WM. MASON."

HARRY SANDERSON.

"After a thorough and careful examination of your New Scale Piano-Fortes, I take great pleasure in expressing my gratification at finding so perfect an instrument. Of the many qualifications so requisite in a good piano, I must say I have never met with any which, in every particular as to quality of tone, elasticity of touch, and beauty of workmanship, so happily combines them all as do your New Scale Pianos. I can most cheerfully recommend them to all interested in the progress of Musical Science.—Yours truly,

"September 16, 1863.

"HARRY SANDERSON."

GEO. W. MORGAN.

ORGANIST OF GRACE CHURCH, N. Y.

"TO WM. B. BRADBURY, ESQ.:—Dear Sir,—As you wish me to give my candid opinion of your New Scale Piano-Forte—I can assure you that I admire them in the highest degree. The quality of tone is remarkably fine, and the action everything that can be desired, and I can only add—let the Pianos speak for themselves, and they will give every satisfaction, and I have never seen any instrument of the kind that has pleased me more.—Most faithfully yours,

"New York, May 2, 1861.

"GEO. W. MORGAN."

J. N. PATTISON.

"MR. WM. B. BRADBURY:—Dear Sir,—Having thoroughly examined and tried your New Scale Piano-Fortes, I take great pleasure in recommending them to those desiring a superior instrument. For duration, fullness, and singing quality of tone, elasticity and delicacy of touch, and perfect workmanship throughout, I consider them equal to any I have seen.

"New York, September 8, 1863.

"J. N. PATTISON."

ROBERT HELLER.

"MR. WM. B. BRADBURY:—Dear Sir,—The little affair at your Piano-Forte Rooms the other day, when I chanced to meet Sanderson, Morgan and others was a musical treat. I enjoyed it immensely; not only on account of the excellent music made on the occasion, but also because it is always pleasant to have a good first class instrument to play upon; and when Harry Sanderson asked me to visit your Establishment, I was not prepared to find such Pianos. What more can be desired than the excellence of these instruments I don't know; for in every particular as to tone, touch, quality or power they are PERFECT.

"The duets played by Sanderson and myself proved the equality of the Pianos, for no matter which instrument we played upon, and I believe we tried eight or ten of them, the effect was always the same.—Truly yours,

"New York, June, 1861.

"ROBERT HELLER."

Entered, according to Act of Congress, in the year 1862, by WM. B. BRADBURY, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court for the District of New Jersey.

P R E F A C E .

"WHAT! another new music book for Sunday Schools? We thought the GOLDEN CHAIN was so popular that no school would adopt it would soon lay it aside or allow another to take its place." So we, the editor of GOLDEN CHAIN and GOLDEN SHOWER, thought, and still think and believe. But friends, into whose mouths we have put the above exclamation (because some there are, doubtless, who will think it, if they do not say it), please remember that many Sunday Schools sing a great deal. Singing, with them, is an exercise that they find beneficial in many respects: 1. As an attraction; it draws into the school many who would otherwise spend the sacred hours of the Sabbath in the street. 2. It is a most delightful and successful means of communicating Gospel truths. We may often sing the Gospel into hearts that would otherwise be closed to its teachings. Sweet music opens these hearts, and bearing upon its angel wings "Heavenly Breezes"—precious words of "Invitation"—thoughts of "The Cross" and the "The beautiful Land," which is "The Christian's dear Home," it awakens emotions of tenderness, love and contrition. 3. It is an exercise of devotion, of praise and prayer. Many of the hymns are prayers, others songs of praise; others songs of thanks for the blessed Sabbath day, "The best day of all the week," and for the dear "Sabbath School," etc., etc. And when our children can be interested in such pieces as "Just as I am," "Yes, Jesus loves me," "What shall I do to be saved?" "The Lord is my Shepherd," and "Come unto me all ye that labor and are heavy laden," we cannot but believe that, if we are faithful, the Holy Spirit will open their hearts to receive and love that blessed Saviour, so that they shall mean what they say when they sing. "I ought to love my Saviour, He loves me well, I know." And may we not joyfully respond.

"Sing them, dear children, sing them still,
Those sweet and holy songs;
Oh, let the psalms of Zion's hill
Be heard from youthful tongues."

Many schools have thus adopted music as their right-hand companion and helper in the work of teaching, and, having introduced the GOLDEN CHAIN when it was first issued, and sung it through pretty thoroughly are now asking for additional new music and hymns. To such we offer THE GOLDEN SHOWER, of new, sparkling, and, if we mistake not, refreshing melodies.

Most of the hymns have been written expressly for this work, by different authors, and neither pains nor expense have been spared in enriching its pages with the purest and best of their productions.

The music, as will be observed, is also mostly new. It has been composed for and to the hymns, and in attractiveness and popularity will, we think, be found fully "up to the standard" already set in former successful works. And may these melodies cheer and strengthen the heart of many a faithful Sunday School teacher, while the dear youth find their purest joys in attuning their voices to the Songs of Zion.

DIRECTIONS FOR THE MOVEMENT.—It will be observed that directions, partly in figures, are given to the different pieces at their beginning, as "24—two to the measure," etc., the meaning of which is Take a string and attach a light weight to one end of it, holding the other between the thumb and finger, at a distance of twenty-four inches from the weight. Set the string in motion, oscillating like the pendulum of a clock. Two of these vibrations mark the time of a measure of this piece of music. The explanation being in brief thus: "String 24 inches long—two vibrations to the measure." "20—one to each quarter note," means that the string should be held twenty inches from the weight, and then one vibration to each quarter note will indicate the exact movement of that piece. By this simple process, and without the necessity of a Metronome, the teacher can "time" the different pieces at home, so that in taking them up in his class he will not be under the necessity of guessing at the proper movement. The little pocket circular tape measure we have found very convenient for this purpose, the case serving for the weight.

NOTICE OF COPYRIGHT.

WITH the exception of four or five of the old familiar tunes, such as St. Thomas, Silver St., China, &c., the Music and Poetry of THE GOLDEN SNOWER have all been composed, written and arranged expressly for it, and having been "Entered according to Act of Congress" by the author, are his copyright property. Persons desirous of reprinting one or more pieces, from either words or music, or both, MUST FIRST OBTAIN PERMISSION OF THE AUTHOR; as any reprint for any purpose whatever without having first obtained such permission, would be an infringement upon the copyright, for which the person so trespassing is liable and will be held accountable.

FULL CHORUS.

On this Sabbath day. Let us keep, well keep this bless-ed Sabbath day, This o - ly Sabbath day, This ho - ly Sab-bath day, Let us keep, well keep this ho - ly Sab - bath day, 'Tis the best day of all the week.

3 Be it ever our care in that place of prayer,
Our spirits above to raise.
et us try to drive out each vain worldly
thought,

From God's holy courts of praise;
Let no folly there intrude,
Naught to mar our tranquil mood,
Naught but what is true and good,
On this Sabbath day. Chorus.

8 And our joy is full when the dear Sabbath school,
Throws open its friendly door;
For we're sure there to find our teachers so kind.
With riches of sacred lore

As our voices all we raise
In sweet songs of love and praise
May we tread in wisdom's ways,
On this Sabbath day. Chorus.

4 And when we go back to our week-day track
Our lessons, and work, and play;
Let us hold ever dear the counsels we hear,
On the holy Sabbath day,
And remember that God's eye
Ever watches from on high,
And each day he is as nigh,
As the Sabbath day. Chorus

SCHOOLARS

3.

Angels rolled the rock away,
 Death gave up his mighty prey,
 Jesus triumphed o'er the tomb,
 Rising with immortal bloom,
 On a Sunday morning.

ALL.

4.

Lift ye saints, lift up your eyes,
 Now to glory see him rise ;
 Hosts of angels on the road,
 Hail and sing th'incarnate Go:^d
 On a Sunday morning.

5.

Vain the stone, the watch, the seal,
 Jesus burst the gates of hell ;
 Death in vain forbids his rise,
 Jesus opened Paradise
 On a Sunday morning.

6.

"Peace" our every heart shall fill,
 "Peace on earth, to men good will ;"
 We will join the angel's song,
 And the pleasant notes prolong
 On a Sunday morning.

ON A CHRISTMAS MORNING. 2D HYMN.

Children can you truly tell,
 Do you know the story well,
 Every girl and every boy,
 Why the angels sing for joy,
 On the Christmas morning ?

2 Yes we know the story well,
 Listen, now, and hear us tell
 Every girl and every boy,
 Why the angels sing for joy
 On the Christmas morning.

3 Shepherds sat upon the ground,
 Fleecy flocks were scattered round,

When the brightness filled the sky,
 And a song was heard on high,
 On the Christmas morning.

4 "Joy and peace" the angels sang,
 Far the pleasant echoes rang,
 "Peace on earth, to men good will,"
 Hark! the angels sing it still,
 On the Christmas morning.

5 "Peace" our every heart shall fill
 "Peace on earth, to men good will!"
 Hear us sing the angel's song,
 And the pleasant notes prolong
 On the Christmas morning.

THE LAND OF PLEASURE.

1 There is a land of plea-sure, Where streams of joy for - ev - er roll. 'Tis
2 I'm on my way to Ca - naan, Still gui - ded by my Saviour's hand; Oh.

there I have my trea - sure, And there I hope to land my soul. Long come a - long, poor sin - ner, And see Im-man-uel's hap - py land! To dark-ness dwelt a - round me, With scarce-ly once a cheering ray, But al' that stay be - hind me, I bid a long, a last fare-well! But since my Sav-iour found me, A light has shone a-long my way, But come, dear friends, go with me, And with the ransomed ev-er dwell, But since my Sav-iour found me, A light has shone a-long my way.

come, dear friends, go with me, And with the ransomed ev-er dwell.

3.

Death's waves shall not affright me,
Although they're deeper than the grave,
If Jesus will stand by me,
I'll calmly ride on Jordan's wave.
His word hath calmed the ocean,
His lamp hath cheered the gloomy vale;
Oh, may this friend be with me.
Whent'ro' the gates of death I sail!

5.

Soon, soon th'archangel's trumpet
Shall shake the globe from pole to pole,
And all the wheels of nature
Shall in a moment cease to roll:
Then shall I see my Saviour,
With shining ranks of angels come,
To execute his vengeance,
And take his ransomed people home

THE MERCY-SEAT. L. M. with Chorus.

40—Two to the measure.

1 From ev'-ry storm-y wind that blows, From ev'-ry swell-ing tide of woes,
2 There is a place where Je-sus sheds The oil of gladness on our heads;

There is a calm, a sure re-treat, 'Tis found be-neath the Mer-cy-seat.
A place than all be-sides more sweet, It is the blood-bought Mer-cy-seat.

CHORUS.

The Mer-cy-seat, the Mer-cy-seat, the bless-ed Mer-cy-seat

THE MERCY-SEAT. Concluded.

The Mer - cy - seat, The Mer - cy - seat, The bless - ed Mer - cy - seat.

3.

There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend,
Tho' sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common Mercy-seat.
CHO.—The Mercy-seat, &c.

4.

There—there on eagle wings we soar,
And sin and sense seem all no more,
And heaven comes down our souls to greet.
And glory crowns the Mercy-seat,
CHO.—The Mercy-seat. &c.

OBERLIN. L. M.

1 O Jesus, full of truth and grace, O all-atoning Lamb of God! I wait to see thy glorious face. I seek redemption in thy blood

2 Thou art the anchor of my hope :
The faithful promise I receive :
Surely thy death shall raise me up,
For thou hast died that I might live.

3 Satan, with all his arts, no more,
Me from the gospel hope can move ;
I shall receive the gracious power.
And find the pearl of perfect love.

SECOND HYMN.

1 Dismiss us with thy blessing, Lord,
All that has been amiss forgive,
Help us to feed upon thy word,
And let thy truth within us live.

2 As all the hours of life, now gone,
Have been with mercy richly crowned,
So let that mercy still flow on.
Forever sure as time rolls round.

1 Just as thou art, without one trace
 Of love or joy, or inward grace,
 Or meetness for the heavenly place.
 O guilty sinner come, O come.
 2 Come leave thy burden at the cross,
 Count all thy gains but empty loss,
 His grace repays all earthly loss,
 Then needy sinner! come O come.

This low vale is free from contention,
 Free from strife or warring dissention:
 No dark wiles of evil invention,
 Can find out this region of peace.
 Here the pure, the meek and the lowly,
 Bathe in bliss all sacred and holy;
 All is peace and joy in this valley,
 This valley of goodness and love.

3.

Come, then, brothers, sisters, come hither
 Where joys bloom and never shall wither,
 Where faith binds all Christians together,
 In love to the sovereign I Am;
 There surrounded with heavenly glory,
 Lord, we'll worship ever before thee,
 Shouting still redemption's glad story,
 The song of Moses and the Lamb.

THE SHEPHERD OF SOULS. Words by Rev. W.M. HUNTER

1 The Shepherd of souls, In his life-book unrolls The names of all the lambs of his flock The juvenile bands are en graved on his hands, As if they were engraved on the rock.

2 He looks in his love
From his watch-tower above.
The flocks he bought with blood to survey
And points with his rod,
To the pastures of God
And guards them there from going astray.

3 The little ones share
In his tenderest care;
The lambs are his peculiar delight;
At noon they are laid
in the cool of the shade,
And nestle in his bosom at night

4 Great Shepherd, be near.

PRAYER.

From the 'JUBILEE,' by permission

1 Lord! when we bend before thy throne, And our confessions pour, O may we feel the sins we own, And hat' what we deplore

2 Our contrite spirits pitying see,
True penitence impart;
And let a healing ray from thee
Beam hope on every heart

3 When we disclose our wants in prayer,
O let our wills resign;
And not a thought our bosom share,
Which is not wholly thine.

1. Just as I am—with-out one plea, But that thy blood was shed for me,
2. Just as I am—and waiting not To rid my soul of one dark blot.

And that thou bidd'st me come to thee, O Lamb of God, I come!
To thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot, O Lamb of God, I come!

3.
Just as I am—though tossed about
With many a conflict many a doubt,
Fightings within, and fears without,
O Lamb of God, I come!

4.
Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind—
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God I come!

5.
Just as I am, thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve
Because thy promise, I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come!

6.
Just as I am, thy love, unknown,
Has broken every barrier down;
Now to be thine, yea, thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come!

THE BLUE BIRD'S TEMPERANCE SONG.

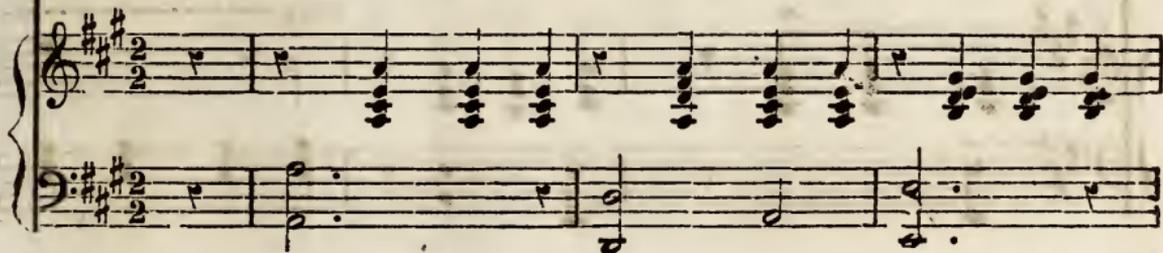

57

29 - Two to 1st measure.

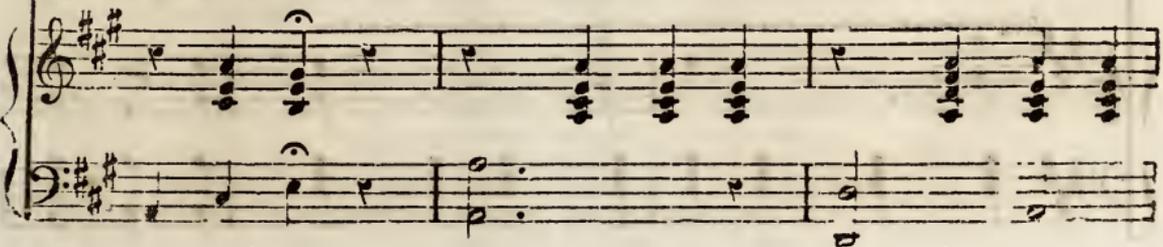

Words by Mrs. N. A. KIDDER.

1. Oh! I'm a hap-py blue bird, sober, as you see ; For pure cold water's the drink for me:— I take a drop here, and a - no - ther drop there And make the woods ring with my temperance air. O dont de - fy it,

REPEAT IN CHORUS

Musical score for 'The Blue Birds' (Concluded). The score consists of three staves: a vocal line (treble clef), a piano accompaniment (treble and bass clefs), and a grand staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 2/4. The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

Better, better try it, Better, better try it, Try it sir? try it sir? do.

- 2 There is little Bobby-Linkum sitting on a tree
He's singing a temperance song as you see.
'Tis "Bobolink, take a drink, take a drink to-day,
And Mister Bobolink, not a cent to pay!"
Cho. Oh! don't defy it, better, &c.
- 3 As down among the lillies every day I go,
To take my bath in the lake below,
If I chance to meet a drunkard all so pale and thin,
I say sir, "how d'ye do?" and sir, "pray walk in!"
Cho. Oh! don't defy it, better try it, &c.
- 4 Come rise up with the songsters, early in the morn,
See the thirsty grass and the waving corn—
How their emerald faces brighten in the dazzling sun
While catching the dew drops one by one.
Cho. Oh! don't defy it, better try it, &c.
- 5 All up above the mountains all below the sea,
Will with my temperance song agree—
That for man in his toil, or the bird upon her nest
Cold water, cold water, the purest and best!
Cho. Oh! don't defy it, better try it, &c.

Ne'er think the victory won, nor lay your armor down,
 March on in duty, 'till you gain the starry crown,
 When the war is o'er and the battle you have won,
 Jesus will say, "well done." Cho

Moderato. 22—One to each quarter note.

WM. B. BRADBURY.

1 Through a strange country as pilgrims we stray, For we're go-ing, go-ing, go-ing home. }
On-ward we go through the swift fading day, For we're go-ing, go-ing, go-ing home. }

Wear-y our march since the fair ro-sy dawn, Long is the dis-tance we've trav-eled since morn

But we re-gret not the hours that are gone, For we're go-ing, go-ing, go-ing home.

2 Why should we gather earth's withering flowers

When we're going, going, going home :

Soon shall we tread the fair Heavenly bowers

For we're going, going, going home :

There, fragrant garlands immortal will bloom,

Untouched by blight, and unshadowed by gloom,

And never strewing the path to the tomb ;

For we're going, going, going home.

3 Hark ! 'tis the storm crashing loud through the pines

We are going, going, going home ;

See the faint glimmering light that now shines

We are going, going, going home.

Little we heed the wild roar of the wind,

Onward we still look, and never behind ;

This thought alone gives sweet peace to our mind

We're going, going, going home.

4 Soon we shall hear the glad welcoming voice,

We are going, going, going home -

Bidding our spirits forever rejoice,

We are going, going, going home :

Home to our mansion prepared in the sky,

Where we can never more suffer or die,

O ! let our anthem of praise ring on high !

We are going, going, going home.

"SING US ONE OF THE SONGS OF ZION."

W. H. BRADBURY.

7 ME.

D. C.

D. C.—And sing them round the evening hearth, When fires are blazing near.

- 2 Sing them when Sabbath Schools are met,
 And your young voices raise,
 Your Sabbath evening melodies
 To their Redeemer's praise.
 So shall each unforgotten word,
 When distant far you roam,
 Call back your heart which once it starr'd,
 To childhood's blessed home.

- 3 Sing them, dear children, many a sain
 These holy strains have sung.
 These walls of ours have echoed them
 From many a pilgrim's tongue.
 Oh sing them in a land like this,
 Where pilgrim's steps have roved;
 Oh children sing these melodies—
 The songs our fathers loved.

EARTH'S SHADOWY YEARS*

SECOND HYMN.

- 1 Earth's shadowy years will soon be o'er—
 Heaven's blissful morn arise,
 And sorrow's night will then no more
 O'ercloud our weeping eyes.
 Then will the Lord of life and love
 Unveil his beaming face;
 And never from our sight remove
 The bright celestial rays:
- 2 The precious jewels Jesus sent
 To be our solace here,
 Were only for a season lent,
 They're shining brighter there.
 And we shall soon their lovely forms

In glorious robes behold;
 Shall sing with them in angel's songs,
 With harps of shining gold.

- 3 In that blest place no loved ones part
 No mourning there, no sighs;
 For God himself will gently wipe
 All sorrow from their eyes.
 There everlasting peace and joy,
 And transport shall be thine;
 Praise shall our utmost powers employ,
 In melody divine.

☞ If designed for a concert, the above piece may be sung with good effect as a Song and Chorus, playing the harmony parts only as an accompaniment. The Chorus should commence with the unison passage, "To the land where no night is," &c. If three pure and well-balanced voices can be located in an adjoining room, or at a sufficient distance (out of sight) from the choir and audience to represent "Music in the air," and take up the Trio "Speed away," at the close of the unison passage, singing it quite through as a Trio, the effect will be much increased. In such an arrangement the Chorus bass may stop at the 5th measure, upper brace, indicated by a star. This latter part may then be repeated by the choir as written.

JESUS LOVES ME.

"Jesus saith unto her, 'Woman why weepest thou?' She supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, 'Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.'
 "Jesus saith unto her, 'Mary.' She turned herself, and saith unto him 'Raboni;' which is to say 'Master.'"
 John 20; 15, 16.

- 2 "In vain was my care those spices to prepare,
 To embalm my dear Saviour alone ;
 Taken home from my view, what alas shall I do."
 ||: Ah, Mary! ah, Mary! the Master is gone !:||
- 3 "I seek but in vain to relieve my heart's pain,
 From bosoms as callous as stone ;
 No one here can calm by sweet sympathy's balm,"
 A heart full of sighs for the Master she loves.
 Ah, Mary! ah, Mary! the Master is gone.

NOTE.—The first and third lines may be sung as Solos with good effect—the Chorus commencing at the words "Happy," &c.

The image shows a musical score for the hymn 'Happy in the Lord'. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff at the top and a bass clef staff at the bottom. The key signature is one flat (B-flat) and the time signature is 4/4. The melody is written in the treble staff, and the bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment. The lyrics are printed below the treble staff, aligned with the notes. The score concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots.

Cross the riv - er of Jor - dan, Hap - py in the Lord.

2.

I leave this world of sin behind, happy, happy, happy,
 That better home in heaven to find, happy in the Lord ;
 Fair lands are here, and houses fair, happy, happy, happy,
 But fairer is my home up there, happy in the Lord.

Chorus.—We'll cross the river of Jordan, &c

3.

In that fair clime of endless day, happy, happy, happy,
 The Lord shall wipe all tears away, happy in the Lord :
 To living founts, through verdant meads, happy, happy, happy,
 The Lamb his ransomed followers leads, happy in the Lord.—Chorus.

The fruits and flowers of Paradise, happy, happy, happy,
 In plenteous showers round them rise, happy in the Lord ;
 No death shall visit them again, happy, happy, happy,
 No sickness there, no touch of pain, happy in the Lord.—Chorus

5.

Farewell! vain world, I'm going home, happy, happy, happy,
 My Saviour smiles and bids me come, happy in the Lord ;
 No mourning there, no funeral gloom, happy, happy, happy,
 But health and vouth for ever bloom happy in the Lord —Chorus.

Je - sus is King, Je - sus is King.

The musical score consists of two staves, treble and bass clef, in a key signature of one sharp (F#). The melody is written in the treble clef, and the bass line is in the bass clef. The music is marked 'FULL ff' (Full Forte). The lyrics 'Je - sus is King, Je - sus is King.' are written below the notes. The score ends with a double bar line.

Many little ones are there,
 Gathered in that shining throng;
 Listen! through the Sabbath air
 You may hear their joyful song.
 CHO.—Come let us join to sing,
 Loud let the sweet words ring—
 Jesus is King.

3.

Yes, our loved and lost are there,
 They have reached the happy land,
 Now white robes and crowns they wear,
 They have joined the angel band.
 CHO.—They strike each golden string,
 And loud the sweet words ring—

SWAN. Arranged

1 Why do we mourn departing friends, Or shake at death's alarms? 'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends, To call them to his arms.
 2 Are we not tending upward too, As fast as time can move? Nor should we wish the hours more slow, To keep us from our love.

2 Why should we tremble to convey
 Their bodies to the tomb?
 There, the dear flesh of Jesus lay,
 And left a long perfume.

3 Then let the last loud trumpet sound,
 And bid our kindred rise;
 Awake, ye nations under ground!
 Ye saints! ascend the skies.

THE REALMS OF THE BLEST.

Slow and gentle.

1 We speak of the realms of the blest, Of that coun-try so bright and so
2 We speak of the pathways of gold, Of its walls deck'd with jew-els so fair. And oft are its glo-ries con-fessed: But what must it be to be rare. Of its won-ders and pleasures un-told: But what must it be to be there. To be there, To be there. But what must it be to be there

3 We speak of its freedom from sin,
From sorrow, temptation and care,—
From trials without and within:
But what must it be to be there?

4 We speak of its service of love,
Of the robes which the glorified wear,
Of the church of the first-born above;
But what must it be to be there?

5 O Lord, midst our gladness or woe,
Still for heaven our spirits prepare,
And shortly we also shall know
And feel, what it is to be there.

6 Then anthems of praise we will sing
When safe in that heavenly rest
To Jesus, our Saviour and King
Who reigns in those realms of the blest,

1 } Lord I hear of show'rs of blessings, Thou art scattering full and free, }
 { Show'rs the thirsty land re fresh-ing, Let some droppings fall on me. } E ven me

E - ven me, Let some droppings fall on me.

2.
 Pass me not, O God, my Father,
 Sinful though my heart may be ;
 Thou might'st leave me, but the rather
 Let thy mércy light on me.—
 Even me

3.
 Pass me not, O gracious Saviour
 Let me live and cling to thee:
 Fain I'm longing for thy favor ;
 Whilst thou'rt calling, call for me—
 Even me.

5.
 Love of God, so pure and changeless :
 Blood of Christ, so rich and free ;
 Grace of God, so rich and boundless,
 Magnify it all in me,—
 Even me.

4.
 Pass me not, O mighty Spirit,
 Thou canst make the blind to see.
 Witnesses of Jesus' merit,
 Speak the word of power to me—
 Even me

6.
 Pass me not, thy lost one bringing ;
 Bind my heart, O Lord, to thee ;
 Whilst the streams of life are springing
 Blessing others, oh, bless me,—
 Even me.

lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, praise the Lord.
lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah, praise the Lord.

3.

Now I go with gladness to our home,
 With gladness thou shalt come ;
 There I will wait
 To meet thee at Heaven's gate.
 Hallelujah !

4.

Dearest ! what delight again to share
 Our sweet communion there !
 To walk among
 The holy ransomed throng.
 Hallelujah !

5.

Not to mortal sight can it be given
 To know the bliss of Heaven ;
 But thou shalt be
 Soon there, and sing with me,
 Hallelujah !

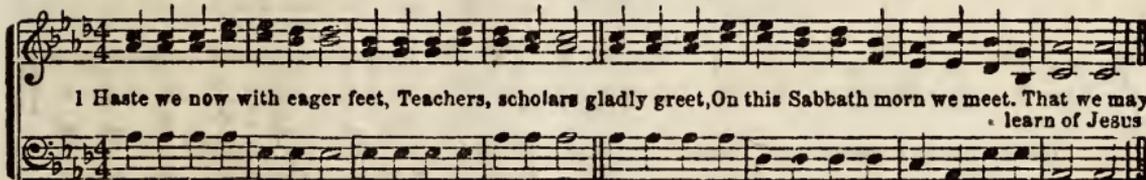

6.

Meet again ! yes, we shall meet again,
 Though now we part in pain !
 Together all
 His people Christ shall call.
 Hallelujah !

LEARNING OF JESUS.

4—One to each quarter note.

Words by MISS H. MEKER.

1 Haste we now with eager feet, Teachers, scholars gladly greet, On this Sabbath morn we meet. That we may learn of Jesus

2 Help us, Lord, throughout this day,
 While we sing and while we pray,
 Let thy Spirit with us stay,
 While here we learn of Jesus.

3 Lord our hearts are full of sin.
 Let thy Spirit enter in,
 Make them pure, all white and clean.
 And full of love to Jesus

4 As we learn thy righteous will,
 Help us, Holy Father, still.
 Each commandment to fulfill,
 And give the praise to Jesus.

THE SABBATH SCHOLAR'S REQUEST.

87

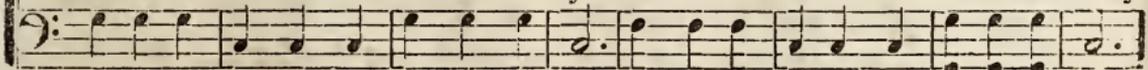

Sprightly. 7—One to each quarter note.

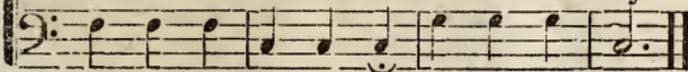

1 Look on us kindly, friends, Met here to-day, Here from all worldly joys Turn we away.
2 Six days of toil and work Our portion are; Often our hearts must know Something of care:

We ask not wealth or fame, This boon we pray : Teach us the Savior's love Each Sabbath day.
But from our sorrows all We turn a-way, To learn the Savior's love Each Sabbath day.

Teach us the Sa-vior's love Each Sabbath day.
To learn the Sa-vior's love Each Sabbath day.

3 Follies beset our path,
Dangers surround ;
Often our feet must tread
Enchanted ground ,
But from all vanity
Turn we away,
To learn the Savior's love
Each Sabbath day

4 Look on us kindly, friends ;
Watch us with care ;
Aid us with counsels good
Help us by prayer.

Guide back our wandering feet,
Whene'er we stray ;
Teach us the Savior's love
Each Sabbath day.

THE INVITATION.

Words by K. C.

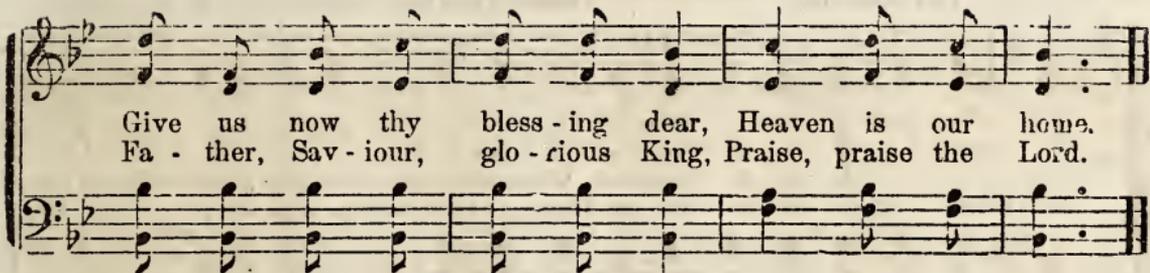

Arranged from a melody of the "CONTRABANDS."

1. "Let lit - tle child.en come to me" The Lord the Saviour said,

For - bid them not, for such shall be, The saints in glo - ry made.

CHORUS.

Joy - ful are the words we hear, Saviour to thy arms we come
Hal - le - lu - jah we will sing Praise for - ev - er to the Lord,

Give us now thy bless - ing dear, Heaven is our home.
Fa - ther, Sav - iour, glo - rious King, Praise, praise the Lord.

2.

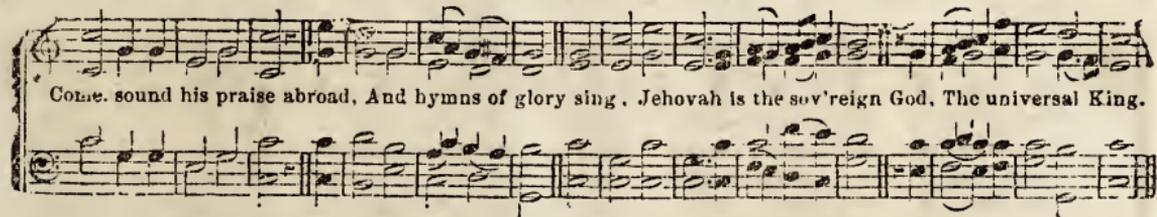

Why should we wait for life to fade
And earthly joys grow dim?
When they the happiest are made.
Who early go by him,
Blessed are the words we hear,
Saviour to thy arms we come,
Keep our souls from doubt and fear,
Heaven is our home. Hallelujah, &c

3.

O! let us not a moment wait,
But haste to meet our friend;
The way is narrow—straight the gate
But blissful is the end.
Precious are the words we hear,
Saviour, to thy arms we come,
Loving thee with hearts sincere,
Heaven is our home. Hallelujah, &c

Come, sound his praise abroad, And hymns of glory sing. Jehovah is the sov'reign God, The universal King.

2 Come—worship at his throne,
Come—bow before the Lord;
We are his work, and not our own,
He formed us by his word.

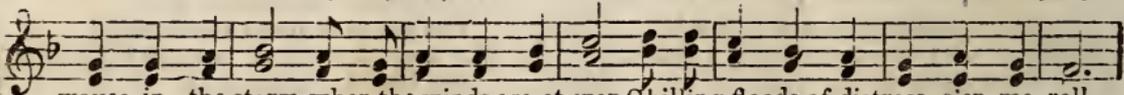

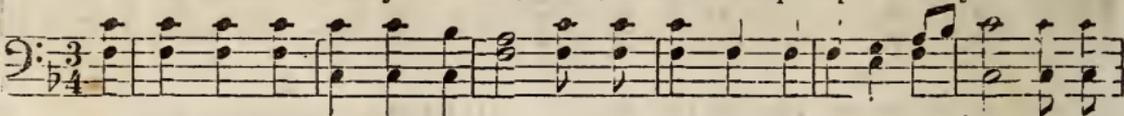

3 To-day attend his voice.
Nor dare provoke his rod;
Come—like the people of his choice,
And own your gracious God.

18—Two to the measure.

Wm. B. BRADBURY.

1. { I'm but a stranger here : Heaven is my home ; }
 { Earth is a desert drear : Heaven is my home ; } Dangers and sorrows stand

Round me on ev - ery hand, Heaven is my Fa-ther-land, Heaven is my home.

What though the tempests rage,
 Heaven is my home ;
 Short is my pilgrimage :
 Heaven is my home ;
 And time's wild, wintry blast
 Soon will be over past,
 I shall reach home at last—
 Heaven is my home

3.

Therefore I murmur not :
 Heaven is my home .
 Whate'er my earthly lot,
 Heaven is my home ;
 And I shall surely stand
 There at my Lord's right hand :
 Heaven is my Father-land—
 Heaven is my home

THE NIGHT OF DEATH.

- 2 We lay our garments by,
Upon our beds to rest ;
So death shall soon disrobe us all
Of what we here possessed.
3 Lord, keep us safe this night,
Secure from all our fears :
May angels guard us while we sleep,
Till morning light appears.

SUPERIORITY OF THE SCRIPTURES.

O Lord, thy perfect word

Directs our steps aright,
Nor can all other books afford
Such profit and delight.

- 2 Celestial beams it sheds
To cheer this vale below :
To distant lands its glory spreads,
And streams of mercy flow
3 True wisdom it imparts,
Commands our hope and fear :
Oh, may we hide it in our hearts,
And feel its influence there !

Slow and soft—Cantabile.

1 My son! know thou the Lord, Thy father's God obey, Seek his protecting care by night, His guardian hand by day.

- 2 Call while he may be found,
And seek him while he's near ;
Serve him with all thy heart and mind,
And worship him in fear.
- 3 If thou wilt seek his face,
His ear will hear thy cry ;
Then shalt thou find his mercy sure,
His grace for ever nigh.

CLOSING HYMN.

- 1 Once more before we part,
Oh bless the Saviour's name ;

Let every tongue and every heart,
Adore and praise the same.

- 2 Lord in thy grace we came,
That blessing still impart ;
We meet in Jesus' sacred name,
In Jesus' name we part.
- 3 Thus nurtured by thy word,
May each in wisdom grow,
And still go on to know the Lord,
And practice what we know.

Then a - way! away! we can't wait any longer, A - way to the Sunday-School.

2.

As Robert Raikes walked out one day,
To see if children were at play,
Some boys were seen on Sabbath day,
A playing, playing—Ah me.

Cho. Then away! away! &c.

3.

In seventeen hundred eighty-one,
Across the sea in Glous'ter town,
The glorious Sunday School begun,
Its coming! coming! along,

Cho. Then away! away! &c.

4.

O, how this little fire has spread,
And warmed to life the carnal dead,
And brought them to our living Head,—
So loving, loving and good;

Cho. Then away! away! &c.

5.

Come, parents, teachers, one and all
And never think the work is small
But listen to the heavenly call
Be workers, workers to day;

Cho. Then away! away! &c.

6.

When storms are past, and work is o'er
And Sunday Schools shall be no more
We'll gather on the golden shore,
Singing glory, glory to God;

Cho. Then away! away! &c.

7.

Then what a glorious sight 'twill be,
To see the millions of the free
All happy in eternity,—
So welcome, welcome the day!

Cho. Then away! away! &c.

Such was the exclamation of a dying child, as the red rays of the sunset streamed on him through the casement. "Good bye, good bye! Mamma has come for me to-night; don't cry papa, we'll all meet again in the morning!" It was as if an angel had spoken to that father; and his heart grew lighter under his burden; for something assured him that his little one had gone to Him who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me; for of such is the kingdom of heaven." There is something cheerful to all who are in trouble in this, "We'll all meet again in the morning!" It rouses up the fainting soul, and frightens away fear. Clouds may gather upon our path; disappointments may come: but all this cannot destroy the hope within us, if we can say truly, "All will be right in the morning!"

If you were to die to-night, would it be well with you in the morning?

The musical score is written in a 2/4 time signature with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It consists of three systems of music, each with a vocal line on a treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on a bass clef staff. The lyrics are placed below the vocal lines.

The words were full of solace,
 Falling like a healing balm
 On the heart so sorely stricken,
 That the mourner might well be calm.
 The sharp sting of anguish taken,
 The burden of grief grew more light,
 We'll all meet again in the morning,
 Like a rainbow spanned Death's night.

O, ye who sadly languish,
 Weighed down by grief and gloom,
 Beside the grave's dark portal,
 Look beyond the silent tomb!
 With God leave your precious treasures.
 Shall He not in all things do right?
 We'll all meet again in the morning
 Death's sleep is but for a night.

* Come this way, father dear, steer straight for me! Here safe on the shore I'm waiting for thee.

CHORUS

Come this way, fath-er, dear, steer straight for me, Here safe on the shore I'm waiting for thee

2 I remember that voice as it led our lone way.
 'Midst rocks and thro' breakers, and high dashing
 spray :
 How sweet to my heart did it sound from the shore,
 As it echoed so clearly o'er the dark billow's roar—
 CHO. Come this way, father dear, steer straight for me,
 Here safe on the shore I am waiting for thee.

3 I remember my joy when I held to my breast.
 The form of that dear one, and soothed it to rest ;
 For the tones of my child whispered soft on my ear ;
 I called you father dear, and I knew you would hear.
 CHO.—Come this way, father dear, o'er the dark sea.
 While safe on the shore I am waiting for thee.

4 That voice is now hushed, which then guided my way
 The form I then pressed is now mingling with clay .
 But the tones of my child still sound in my ear,
 I'm calling you, father, Oh ' can you not hear ?
 CHO.—Come this way, father dear, steer straight for me
 For on a bright shore I am waiting for thee !

5 I remember that voice in many a lone hour,
 It speaks to my heart with fresh beauty and power ;
 And still echoes far out o'er life's troubled waves,
 And sounds from loved lips now lying silent in graves.
 CHO.—Come this way, father dear, steer straight for me
 Here, safely in heaven I am waiting for thee.

* For a public performance this melody might very appropriately be sung by one with a sweet, pure voice out of sight of the audience.

Joy for the sorrowful, sight for the blind,
 The dumb singing praises, the savage made kind,
 The lame leaping high; these are signs of the day,
 When sorrow and sighing shall both flee away.

Joy for the sorrowful, laughter and song,
 Among the redeemed who journey along,
 All looking for rest at the end of the way,
 When sorrow and sighing shall both flee away

4.

Joy for the sorrowful! Spirit of God,
 If on toward Zion but feebly I've tread,
 O, strengthen my soul, and still lead me, I pray,
 Till sorrow and sighing have both fled away.

FROM THE EVENING POST AND NEW YORK TIMES.

"One of the interesting musical events of the season is the competition in instruments, and the success that has attended the exhibition of Bradbury's piano-fortes at the several fairs recently held. This success is more remarkable from the fact that a new competitor for public favor has always to contend with the prejudices of those who are interested in keeping their old favorites in the front rank, and it is only when the intrinsic merits of a new instrument are so apparent as to render opposition to it hazardous to their professional reputation that it can get a fair start.

"This has been the opening year for Bradbury's instruments, and thus far with the following result:

I. First prize at the New Jersey State Fair at Patterson.

II. First prize at the New York State Fair at Utica;

III. First prize at the Ohio State Fair at Cleveland.

IV. And now, at the Fair of the American Institute, in this city, it has also been awarded the first prize*.

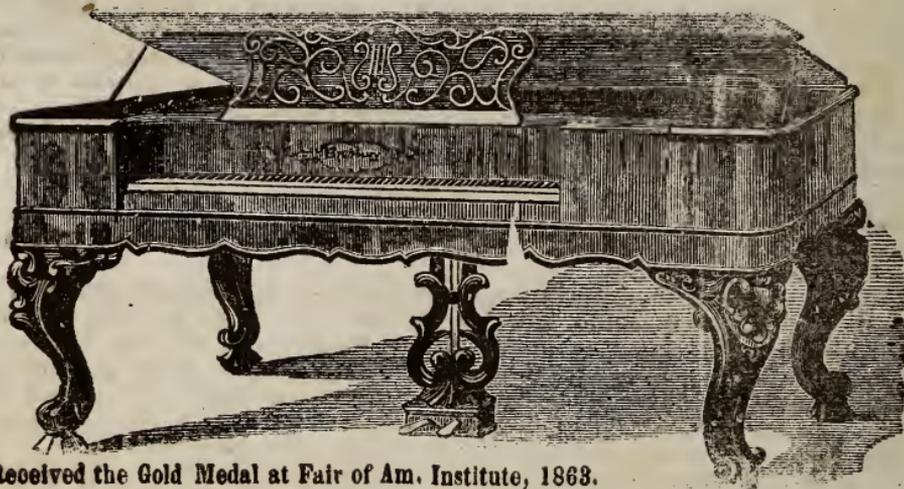

"There was a large number of fine pianos in this exhibition, and the managers of it devoted to them the largest and most prominent space in the main hall in the Academy building. Among these the beautiful square piano contributed by the manufacturer, WILLIAM B. BRADBURY, maintained a first place, being remarkable for power, brilliancy, richness, purity and equality of tone, combined with delicacy of touch, strength of frame, and general excellence of mechanical manipulation. This piano has Mr. Bradbury's new and improved scale, which is now receiving the highest commendations from first-class musical authority, as well as the public generally.

"This piano has an iron frame, overstrung base, and every real modern improvement; it is constructed of the best thorough seasoned materials, and its outward finish is second to none. We are informed by the managers that Mr. Bradbury did not manufacture this instrument especially for exhibition, but that it was taken promiscuously from his general stock.

"The public are already indebted to Mr. Bradbury for his labors as a composer of church and Sabbath-school music; but it would seem that his success in that department is to be eclipsed by the honors thrust on him in his new sphere."

* P.S.—Since the above was written, I have received the following additional First Premiums, viz.: Pennsylvania State Fair, Illinois State Fair, and Indiana State Fair. W. B. B.

WM. B. BRADBURY'S SUPERIOR PIANO-FORTES,

Received the Gold Medal at Fair of Am. Institute, 1863.

The subscriber has now so enlarged and increased his manufacturing facilities as he believes will enable him to meet the unprecedented demand for his beautiful instruments. His factory is twice its former size.

BRADBURY'S PIANOS are made of the BEST THOROUGHLY SEASONED material. He employs the BEST MECHANICAL SKILL and talent of the city.

BRADBURY'S "NEW SCALE," drawn and prepared expressly for his new instruments, is in advance of other improvements in POWER, BRILLIANCY, RICHNESS, PURITY, and EQUALITY OF TONE, combined with DELICACY OF TOUCH and STRENGTH OF FRAME. He invites the closest criticism of the best unbiassed judges. Every department of the business is conducted under Mr. BRADBURY'S own personal supervision. Every instrument fully warranted.

THE MUSICAL PROFESSION OF NEW YORK TO WM. B. BRADBURY.

STRONG INDORSEMENT OF WM. B. BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTES.

The most eminent of the musical profession of New York City, after frequent and thorough trials of my NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTES, have given me the most emphatic and unqualified Testimonials. The following is a specimen of the voluntary testimony I am constantly receiving from gentlemen entirely disinterested, and, as all will acknowledge, most thoroughly qualified to judge of the merits of a Piano-Forte.

"We have examined, with much care, Mr. WM. B. BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTES, and it is our opinion that, in power, purity, richness, equality of tone, and THOROUGH WORKMANSHIP, Mr. BRADBURY'S instruments EXCEL.

"We find GREAT BRILLIANCY and a BEAUTIFUL SINGING QUALITY of tone most happily blended. We have RARELY SEEN a square Piano-Forte combining so many of these qualities essential to a PERFECT INSTRUMENT."

GOTTSCHALK,

The renowned Pianist and Composer, AFTER A CAREFUL AND THOROUGH EXAMINATION OF WM. B. BRADBURY'S NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTES, says:

"I have examined with GREAT CARE, Mr. WM. B. BRADBURY'S New Scale Piano-Fortes, and it is my opinion that they are VERY SUPERIOR INSTRUMENTS.

"I have especially remarked their THOROUGH WORKMANSHIP, and the power, purity, richness, and EQUALITY of their tone. I recommend, therefore, these instruments to the public in general, and doubt not of their success.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL TIMES,

Published every week at $1.50 a year, in advance.

JOHN S. HART, LL. D.,
I. NEWTON BAKER, A. M., } Editors.

This journal is now the recognized leading organ of the Sabbath-School cause in our country, circulating throughout all of the states and territories, and growing in favor year by year among the thousands of superintendents and teachers who are its constant readers. Being unsectarian, and connected with no Institution, or Society, it advocates and exemplifies the spirit and principle of UNION in the Sabbath-School, and in every other Christian work; draws its encouragement and information from all denominations, and endeavors to note the progress and to speak the truth candidly and lovingly of all.

THE SUNDAY-SCHOOL TIMES is a live, wide-awake, practical paper, one that no superintendent or teacher, who wishes to be helped to improvement and success in his labor of love, can well afford to be without. The publishers are gratified to be able to announce that they have secured as regular and occasional contributors an able corps of writers, including some of the leading Sunday-School spirits of the land.

OUR CONTRIBUTORS.—Rev. Richard Newton, D.D., Rev. John Todd, D.D., Rev. J. T. Crane, D.D., Rev. Joseph Alden, D.D., Rev. Morris C. Sutphen, Rev. J. Heyl Vincent, Rev. Henry C. McCook, Rev. Alfred Taylor, Rev. A. A. E. Taylor, Ralph Wells, and R. G. Pardee. ALSO, Mrs. J. E. McConaughy, Miss Caroline F. Kelly, Miss Catherine M. Trowbridge, Mrs. Ellen Huntington Gates, and many others whose names we need not mention—who under modest nom. de plumes contribute to the enjoyment and edification of our readers.

No effort and care will be spared to make the TIMES increasingly worthy, by calling to our aid every appliance that is calculated to help the teacher to improvement in his arduous and blessed work. Let every superintendent examine this journal, and if satisfied that it is what it claims to be, aid in extending its circulation.
