Rondo Allegretto

Critical notes

This score is the first modern edition of an unfinished piece, "Duett für Flöte und Geige", G.3, for flute and violin by the Danish composer Georg Gerson (1790-1825). The duetto is composed in Hamburg 1806.
The source is:
MS "Partiturer No. 1", "George Gersons samling: mu 7105.0963 C II, 6b", a collection of manuscript scores by Gerson preserved at the Royal Library of Copenhagen, Denmark. The duetto is found found on pp. I-VIII.

According to the preface of his own thematic catalogue, ("Verzeichniss über Zwei Hundert meiner Compositionen", "George Gersons samling: C II, 6 b mu 7105.0962 ") Gerson wrote this and another duetto (probably lost) for a colleague and himself. In 1806 Gerson settled in Hamburg for business and music education and was appointed to a trade office (Fürst & Haller). His music teacher, Andreas Romberg (1767-1821) was a famous composer at the time.

In his manuscripts Gerson made use of various shorthand notations like slashed notes representing repeated notes. Such notation types are also found in music prints from that period like Gerson's string quartet no. 5 (G.63) published as part books 1826. The full score of this modern edition comes in two versions: a score keeping as close as possible to the original notation and an alternative, 'contemporized' score expanding the shorthand notations. In the contemporized scores the beaming of vocal staffs has been adapted to modern practices. Separate parts are contemporized as well.
Performance indications added by the editor are enclosed within brackets.
