Entered according to Act of Congress by G. Willig in the Year 1840 at the Clerks Office in and for the Eastern District of Penna.

This musical score is for a waltz titled "The May flower. Waltz." It is written for piano in G major (one sharp) and 3/4 time. The score consists of six systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The first system features a flowing melody in the treble and a steady bass accompaniment. The second system includes a repeat sign and a first ending. The third system continues the melodic development. The fourth system begins with a forte (f) dynamic marking. The fifth system features a piano (p) dynamic marking. The sixth system concludes the piece with a final cadence. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, accidentals, and dynamic markings.
