

Good Morning Sweetheart

Words by Susan Evans

Music by Mildred J. Hill song in the brook-let That bab-bles so clear - Good morn-ing sweet-heart with a rose in your hair. Good morn-ing sweet-heart With a light in your eyes As soft as the twi'-light, That dim-ples the skies! There's a stain on your lips, That the straw-berry ries - Good morn-ing sweet-heart with a light in your eyes! Good slower.

h

morn-ing sweet heart with the blush-es of June there's a mist on the mead-ows, Where dais-ies are strewn, Catch hands & touch lips While hearts are a-tune - Good morn-ing sweet heart - Good morn-ing sweet heart - Good morn-ing sweet heart with the blush-es of June.

much faster.
out.