Allegro.

Rondo.

The first system of the Rondo section consists of two staves. The upper staff begins with a piano (p) dynamic marking and features a series of sixteenth-note runs. The lower staff provides a rhythmic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

The second system continues the Rondo section. The upper staff has a forte (f) dynamic marking and shows more complex sixteenth-note patterns. The lower staff continues with its accompaniment.

The third system of the Rondo section features a sforzando (sf) dynamic marking. The upper staff has a dashed line above it labeled 8^a, indicating an octave transposition. The lower staff continues with its accompaniment.

loco

The fourth system is marked loco. The upper staff features sixteenth-note runs with slurs. The lower staff has a forte (f) dynamic marking and consists of chords and single notes.

The fifth system of the Rondo section continues with sixteenth-note runs in the upper staff and chords in the lower staff.

1814, 4200?

First system of musical notation, consisting of a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. The music features a melodic line in the treble clef and a harmonic accompaniment in the bass clef. Dynamics include f and p.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It features a more active treble clef line with many sixteenth notes and a steady bass clef accompaniment. Dynamics include f.

Third system of musical notation, featuring a section labeled loco in the treble clef. The treble clef line has a series of sixteenth notes. The system is divided into two parts labeled 1^{ma} and 2^{da}. Dynamics include f.

Fourth system of musical notation, featuring a melodic line in the treble clef with some slurs and a bass clef accompaniment. Dynamics include p.

Fifth system of musical notation, featuring a melodic line in the treble clef with a cresc. marking. The system is divided into two parts labeled 1^{ma} and 2^{da}. Dynamics include f.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece with similar melodic and harmonic textures.

Third system of musical notation, featuring dynamic markings such as f, p, and f.

Fourth system of musical notation, with dynamic markings including f, p, and f.

Fifth system of musical notation, concluding the page with dynamic markings like p and f.

T. H. 2423.

First system of musical notation, consisting of a grand staff with treble and bass clefs. It features complex chordal textures and melodic lines. Dynamics include f and sf. A second ending bracket labeled '2' is present at the end of the system.

Second system of musical notation, continuing the piece. It includes a piano (p) dynamic marking. The texture remains dense with overlapping voices.

Third system of musical notation, featuring a prominent melodic line in the treble clef with a slur and a flat (b) marking. The bass clef provides a steady accompaniment.

Fourth system of musical notation, marked with first (1^{ma}) and second (2^{da}) endings. It includes a fortissimo (sf) dynamic marking. The piece concludes with a final chord in the bass clef.

Fifth system of musical notation, the final system on the page. It features a melodic line in the treble clef with a slur and a flat (b) marking. The piece ends with a final chord in the bass clef.

The first system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff is in treble clef and features a melodic line with a long, sweeping slur over several measures. The lower staff is in bass clef and provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

The second system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff continues the melodic line with various note values and rests. The lower staff continues the harmonic accompaniment with sustained chords and rhythmic patterns.

The third system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff has a melodic line with a dynamic marking of p (piano) above it. The lower staff also has a dynamic marking of p below it, indicating a piano accompaniment.

The fourth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff features a more active melodic line with many sixteenth notes. The lower staff continues the harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

The fifth system of musical notation consists of two staves. The upper staff has a melodic line with a dynamic marking of f (forte) below it and a 8^a marking above it, possibly indicating an octave. The lower staff has a dynamic marking of f below it, indicating a forte accompaniment.

8^a

First system of musical notation, featuring a treble and bass clef. The treble staff contains a melodic line with eighth notes and slurs. The bass staff contains a harmonic accompaniment with chords and eighth notes.

9^a loco

Second system of musical notation. The treble staff has a melodic line with slurs and a dynamic marking of f. The bass staff has a harmonic accompaniment with a dynamic marking of ff.

Third system of musical notation, continuing the melodic and harmonic lines from the previous systems.

Fourth system of musical notation, continuing the melodic and harmonic lines.

Fifth system of musical notation, concluding the piece with a final melodic phrase and harmonic accompaniment.

The image displays a musical score for piano, consisting of five systems of two staves each. The notation includes treble and bass clefs, various musical notes, rests, and dynamic markings. The first system begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The second system features a first ending bracket (1^a) and a loco marking. The third system includes a fortissimo (ff) dynamic. The fourth and fifth systems continue the piece with various dynamics and articulations. The score is written in a style typical of early 20th-century piano literature.

The first system of music consists of four measures. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, some beamed together, and a few slurs. The left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The key signature has one flat, and the time signature is 3/4.

The second system continues the piece with four measures. The right hand has a more active melodic line with many slurs. The left hand has a steady accompaniment. A piano (p) dynamic marking is present in the second measure of the right hand.

The third system contains four measures. The right hand continues with a melodic line, and the left hand has a consistent accompaniment. A forte (f) dynamic marking is present in the first measure of the right hand.

The fourth system consists of four measures. The right hand has a melodic line with some slurs. The left hand features a more complex accompaniment with many chords. A forte (f) dynamic marking is present in the first measure of the right hand, and a fortissimo (ff) dynamic marking is present in the first measure of the left hand.

The fifth system is the final system on the page, consisting of four measures. The right hand has a melodic line with some slurs. The left hand has a steady accompaniment. The piece concludes with a final chord in the right hand.
