

THE Standard of Freedom.

NATIONAL SONG.

Sung by the Composer
With immense Success.

Words by
H. Markinfield Addey.

MUSIC BY J. R. Thomas.

By the same Author

THE PATRIOT FLAG. SONG & CHORUS . . . 2½
MAY GOD PROTECT COLUMBIA. DO. DO. . . 2½ ONWARD MARCH TO VICTORY. DO. DO. . . 2½

NEW YORK
Published by FIRTH, POND & CO 547 Broadway

Boston. O. DITSON & CO.
Cincinnati. C. Y. FONDA.
Syracuse. T. HOUGH.
Milwaukee. H. N. HEMPSTED.
Pittsburgh. H. KLEBER & BRO.

Entered according to Act of Congress in 1862 by Firth Pond & Co in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Southern District of New York.

21392 504.

M 1640
.T

March 26/1862

THE STANDARD OF FREEDOM.

A NATIONAL SONG.

Words by H. M. ADDEY.

Music by J. R. THOMAS.

MARZIALE.

The musical score is written for piano in G major (one sharp) and common time. It consists of two systems. The first system begins with a treble clef staff containing a whole rest, followed by a piano (p) dynamic marking. The piano part features a rhythmic melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand. The second system continues the melody and bass line, ending with a double bar line. Dynamics include piano (p), fortissimo (ff), and sforzando (sf).

1. See! the Stand-ard of Freedom floats proudly on high; 'Tis the bright wa-ving banner of light — Fair sym - bol of Lib - er - ty, born of the sky — True emblem of Un - ion and might! When our fore-fathers first, 'mid the clan - gor of strife, The Star - span-gled Ban - ner un - fur'l'd; 'Twas bap-tiz'd with their blood, as sprang

p Parlante. Cresc.

ff
forth in-to life, A new na-tion, the hope of the world! See! the Standard of Freedom floats Cresc.

proud-ly on high; 'Tis the bright wa-ving ban-ner of light— Fair

sym-bol of Lib-er-ty, born of the sky— True emblem of u-nion and might!

sf ff

II. When the pa - tri - ot views that bright ban - ner, each star In his bos - om such ardor in -
 III. Yet, may Peace and its bless - ings with Lib - er - ty blend, And be al - way the lot of our -spires, That he fears not the foe, nor the ter - rors of war, As he land; And may Plen - ty for - ev - er on La - bor at - tend - Pre - cious treads in the steps of his sires. Ay! the Freedom they won, ev - er dear to his heart, He will gift of a Boun - ti - ful Hand! Let the star of our em - pire be ev - er a guide To the swear to pro - tect with his arm; And from pen, loom or plough, like a pil - grim from o - ver the sea; And the flag of our fa - thers the 7

ff

he - ro, de - part, When the trum - pet shall sound an a - larm! See! the Standard of Freedom floats glo - ry and pride Of a na - tion u - ni - ted and free!

proud - ly on high; 'Tis the bright wa - ving ban - ner of light— Fair

sym - bol of Lib - er - ty, born of the sky— True emblem of u - nion and might!

sf