

AUGUST 25th, 1874.

M. & N. HANBART, LITH.

MISS CATHERINE HAYES.

NEW YORK.

Ackerman, Lith. 379 Broadway.

PUBLISHED BY SAMUEL C. JOLLIE, No 300 BROADWAY.

BRING ME WILD FLOWERS

3

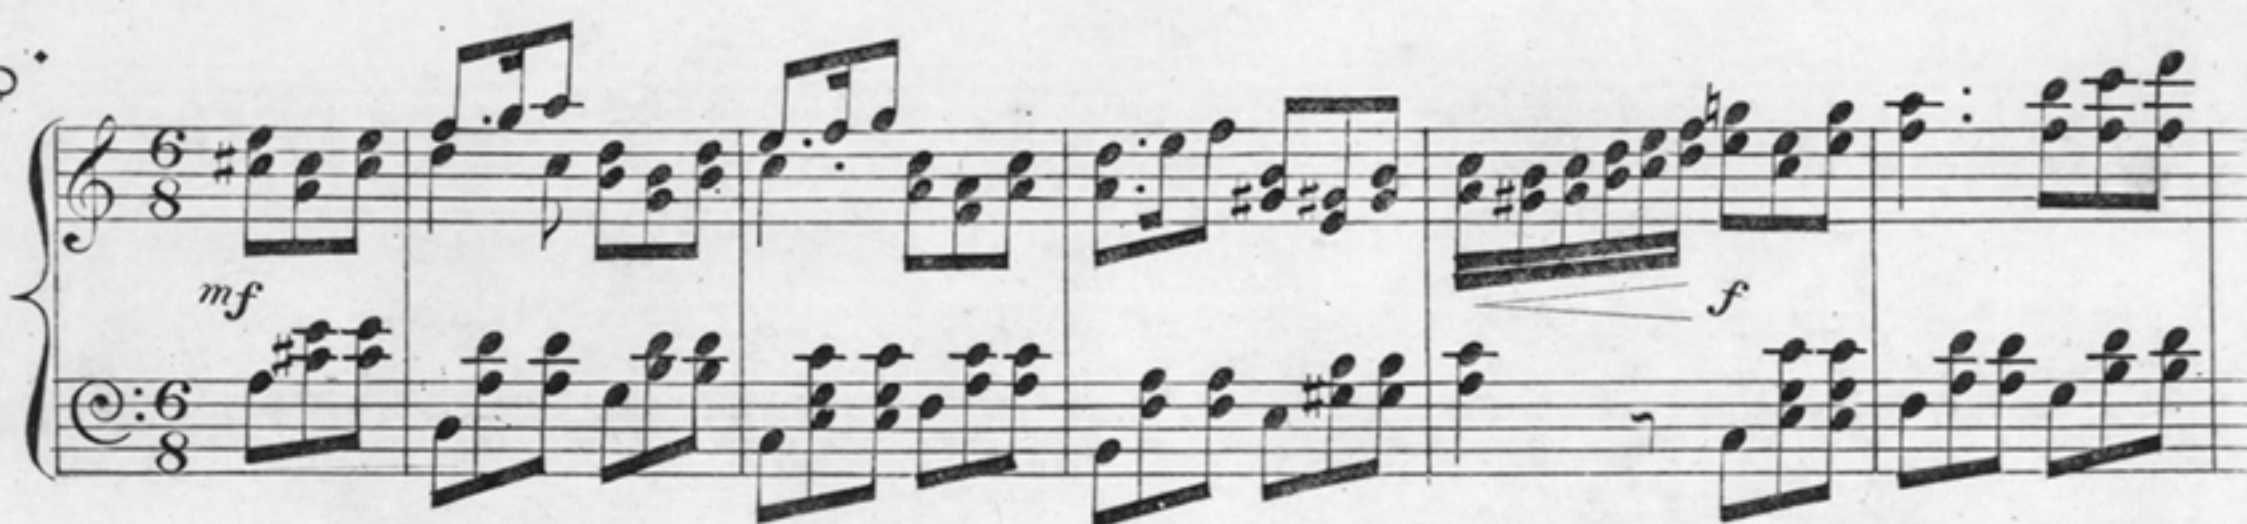

Ballad.

Composed expressly for & Sung by

Miss Catherine Hayes.

(L. LAVENU.)

ALLEGRETTO.

Bring me wild

flow'rs happy young flow'rs Blooming and sweet in the bright sunny air Let their soft lips woo'd by the breeze Speak to me still of all things fair.

mf

Poco Meno.

They'll whisper of blue and sun-lit streams whose murmuring

p

strains went float-ing by, Thro' valleys of light, like joy-ous dreams, Whose bliss-ful

Rallent. a tempo.

mem'ries will ne-ver die. Oh! fair young flow'rs! Oh sweet young flow'rs Bring me wild

flow'rs hap-py young flow'rs Blooming and sweet in the bright sun-ny air, Let their soft

lips woo'd by the breeze Speak to me still of all things fair.

2nd VERSE.

Bring me wild

flow'rs sun-ny wild flow'rs Each fai-ry bud has a soft tale to tell, Of pleasant times I've often pass'd In the lone dark woods where they dwell.

Poco Meno.

They'll tell of bright smiles a warm glad home In youth when we lov'd those nurs-ings wild 'Ere hopes fleeting visions made me roam Or time came

Tempo I^{mo}

o-ver the hap-py child Oh! fair young flow'rs Oh! sweet young flow'rs, Bring me wild

flow'rs hap-py young flow'rs Blooming and sweet in the bright sun-ny air, Let their soft lips woo'd by the breeze speak to me still of all things fair Let thy soft lips woo'd by the breeze speak to me still of all things fair Let their soft as sung by Miss Hayes.

lips woo'd by the breeze speak to me

lips woo'd by the breeze speak to me still of all things fair.

ff

Swain Eng?