SONG FOR FREEDOM.

Composed by

F. H. Pease.

Tenor Solo.

Oh list friends of free - dom list to my cry, I

The first system of the musical score is for a Tenor Solo. It consists of a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is written in a treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a time signature of 2/4. The lyrics are: "Oh list friends of free - dom list to my cry, I". The piano accompaniment is written in a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with the same key signature and time signature. The piano part features a steady accompaniment of eighth notes in the right hand and quarter notes in the bass line.

The second system of the musical score continues the Tenor Solo. The vocal line has the lyrics: "sing for the right and go gainst the wrong. May the flag of our". The piano accompaniment continues with the same rhythmic pattern as the first system.

Un ion its broad baners wave. On the bright plains of Kansas, the home of the brave.

Chorus.

day and by night. And breathes forth joy to the slave.

O list to the cry of the mangled slave,

He now calls on us to help and to save,

In the hands of the oppressor long has he lain,

Without home, friend, or kindred, to sooth his wild pain.

Chorus. Then hurrah for the song &c.

Then up friends of freedom rouse to the cry,

We'll stand for the right, we'll conquer or die,

O the bright star of Liberty never shall set,

In the land where the pilgrims for freedom once met.

Chorus. Then hurrah for the song &c.
