PUCK'S SONG.

(Quartet.)

Over hill, over dale,
    Thorough bush, thorough brier,
Over park, over pale,
    Thorough flood, thorough fire,
I do wander everywhere,
    Swifter than the moone's sphere;
And I serve the fairy queen,
    To dew the orbs upon the green:
The cowslips tall her pensioners be
    In their gold coats spots you see;
Those be rubies, fairy favours;
    In those freckles live their savours:
I must go seek some dewdrops here,
    And hang a pearl in every cowslip's ear.

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE.

QUEEN MAB.

(Song : Soprano.)

Come, follow, follow me
Ye fairy elves that be.
Light tripping o'er the green,
Come, follow Mab, your queen;
Hand in hand we'll dance around,
For this place is fairy ground.

When mortals are at rest,
And snoring in their nest,
Unheard and unespied,
Through the keyholes we do glide;
Over tables, stools and shelves
We trip it with our fairy elves.

Then, o'er a mushroom's head,
Our tablecloth we spread;
A grain of rye or wheat
The diet that we eat:
Pearly drops of dew we drink
In acorn cups fill'd to the brink.

. . . . .

Grace said, we dance awhile,
And so the time beguile;
And if the moon doth hide her head,
The glow-worm lights us home to bed.
O'er tops of dewy grass
So nimbly do we pass,
The young and tender stalk
Ne'er bends where we do walk.

OLD POEM.

* SONG OF THE WATER-NIXIES.

(Quartet.)

By the ripple, ripple of the shallow sea,
    By the rocky sea,
    By the hollow sea,
We have built a giant windmill, with its long arms free,
    And it grinds, that we
    May not hungry be.

With a rumble and a roar, sounding all along the shore,
We should vanish and should perish if our wheel were heard no more.

Little hopes of fisher maidens in the far-off town,
    In our wheel go down,
    Evermore go down,
For the fisher lads that hold them, in the deep sea drown,
    By our grinding drown,
    For our pleasures drown.

Rend the garment from the soul; let it go, we care not where;
What do mortals want with spirit? 'Tis the bodies that are fair.

Out beyond the green horizon lurks the vengeful day,
    Lurks the fateful day,
    Lurks the hateful day,
When the winds shall cease to help us in our shark-like play,
    When our calm cold sway
    Shall have passed away,
When the wreckers and the wrecked both at peace shall be,—
When the threat shall be fulfilled, and there be no more sea.

SARAH WILLIAMS.

THE WATER-NYMPH.

(Song : Tenor.)

Alas, the moon should ever beam
    To show what man should never see!—

I saw a maiden on a stream,
    And fair was she!

I stayed a little while to view
    Her cheek, that wore in place of red.
The bloom of water, tender blue,
    Daintily spread.

I stayed to watch, a little space,
    Her parted lips if she would sing;
The waters closed above her face
    With many a ring.

And still I stayed a little more,

    Alas! she never comes again!

I throw my flowers from the shore,
    And watch in vain.

I know my life will fade away,

    I know that I must vainly pine,

For I am made of mortal clay,
    But she's divine.

THOMAS HOOD.

"SHED NO TEAR!"

(Song : Contralto.)

Shed no tear ! O shed no tear !
 The flower will bloom another year.
 Weep no more ! O weep no more !
 Young buds sleep in the root's white core.
 Dry your eyes ! O dry your eyes,
 For I was taught in Paradise
 To ease my breast of melodies—
     Shed no tear.
 Overhead ! Look overhead !
 'Mong the blossoms white and red—
 Look up, look up ! I flutter now
 On this fresh pomegranate bough.
 See me ! 'Tis this silvery bill
 Ever cures the good man's ill.
 Shed no tear ! O shed no tear !
 The flower will bloom another year.
 Adieu, adieu—I fly—adieu !
 I vanish in the heaven's blue—
     Adieu, adieu !

KEATS.

* FLOWER FAIRIES.

(Duet : Soprano and Contralto.)

Flower Fairies have you found them,
 When the summer dusk is falling,
 With the glow-worms all around them,
 Have you heard them softly calling ?
 Calling through your garden spaces
 Notes like fairy bells set ringing,
 Heard from out enchanted places
 Whence the fairy bees come winging ?
 . . . . .
 I have heard them, I have seen them,
 From their petals light-like raying,
 And the trees would fain have been them,
 The great trees too old for playing.
 And they tell the trees that know them,
 As upon their boughs they hover,
 Of the things that chance below them,
 How the rose has a new lover.

PHILIP BOURKE MARSTON.

ROBIN GOOD-FELLOW.

(Song : Baritone.)

From Oberon, in fairy land,
 The King of ghosts and shadows there,
 Mad Robin I, at his command,
 Am sent to view the night-sports here.
 What revell rout
 Is kept about,
 In every corner where I go,
 I will o'ersee,
 And merry bee,
 And make good sport, with ho, ho, ho !
 More swift than lightning can I flye
 About this airy welkin soone,
 And, in a minute's space, descriye
 Each thing that's done below the moone.
 There's not a hag
 Or ghost shall wag

Or cry, " 'Ware Goblins ! " where I go,

But Robin I

Their feates will spy,

And send them home, with ho, ho, ho !

Whene'er such wanderers I meeete,

As from their revells they trudge home,

With counterfeiting voice I greet

And call them on with me to roame

Thro' woods, thro' lakes,

Thro' bogs and brakes ;

Or else, unseene, with them I go,

And laugh and kicke,

And play some tricke,

And frolicke it, with ho ! ho ! ho !

* "THE WEARY SUN, ALL GOLDEN RED."

(Song : Soprano.)

The weary sun, all golden red,
 Sinks in the sea ;
 All fiery glows his ocean bed—
     There seek me ;
 For there, my floating tresses lave
 In the golden fires of the crystal wave,
     For ever free !
 The mildly radiant Queen of Night
     Dreams o'er the sea,
 And bathes the deep in silv'ry light—
     There seek me ;
 For there I skim her watery glass,
 And I merrily watch each spirit pass,
     For ever free !

I love the Sun—I love the Moon—

So fair to see ;

I love the little twinkling stars,
     And they love me.

And now we lightly trip around

The coral tree,

And quickly beat the pearly ground

All merrily :

While o'er us, as we gaily sing,
 All the crystal domes with music ring,
     For ever free !

When sun, or stars, are shining bright

Down through the sea,

When pure domes flushed in sunset light

Change gloriously,

We play with murmuring rose-lipp'd shells,
 Or we sail a-down clear waterfalls,
     For ever free !

ANDREW JAMES SYMINGTON.

COME AWAY, ELVES !

(Quartet.)

Come away, elves ! while the dew is sweet,
 Come to the dingles where fairies meet ;
 Know that the lilies have spread their bells
 O'er all the pools in our forest dells ;
 Stilly and lightly their vases rest
 On the quivering sleep of the water's breast,
 Catching the sunshine through leaves that throw
 To their scented bosoms an emerald glow.

The musical score consists of six staves of music. The top two staves are for voices (soprano and alto), the middle two staves are for piano (right hand and left hand/bass), and the bottom two staves are for piano (right hand and left hand/bass). The key signature changes from G major (two sharps) to F major (one sharp) and then to C major (no sharps or flats). The time signature is common time throughout. The vocal parts enter at measure 1, singing the lyrics 'To dew the orbs up - on the green: The' and 'To dew the orbs up - on the green:'. The piano accompaniment begins at measure 2. The lyrics 'queen' appear twice, once under each vocal part. The piano parts feature various patterns, including eighth-note chords and sustained notes. The score concludes with the lyrics 'cowslips tall her pensioners be;— In their gold coats spots you see;—' followed by a piano part labeled 'simile'.

A musical score for a vocal piece, likely for soprano or alto, with piano accompaniment. The score consists of eight staves of music, divided into four systems by vertical bar lines. The vocal part uses a treble clef, while the piano part uses both treble and bass clefs. The key signature changes from B-flat major to E major throughout the piece. The vocal line includes lyrics such as "Hand in hand we'll dance a round," "place is fair - y ground," "When," "mor - tals are at rest," "And snor - ing in their," "nest," "Un - heard and un - es - pied Through the," "key - holes we do glide;," and "O ver ta-bles, stools and." The piano part provides harmonic support with various chords and rhythmic patterns. Dynamics like p (piano), pp (pianissimo), cresc. (crescendo), sf (sforzando), and p (piano) are indicated throughout the score.

Musical score for the first section of "The Green Hornet". The vocal part (Soprano) consists of three staves of music with lyrics: "bo - dies that are fair." The piano accompaniment features a bass line and chords. The piano part includes a dynamic marking "stacc." and a measure where the right hand plays eighth-note chords.

Musical score for the second section of "The Green Hornet". The vocal part (Soprano) consists of four staves of music with lyrics: "Out be - yond the green hor - i - zon". The piano accompaniment features a bass line and chords. The piano part includes dynamic markings "mp" (mezzo-forte) and "f" (forte).

A musical score for a vocal piece. The score consists of five staves of music. The top four staves are in treble clef, and the bottom staff is in bass clef. The key signature is one sharp (F#). The time signature is common time. The lyrics are repeated in two groups. The first group contains three staves of music, each with a different vocal line. The second group also contains three staves of music, with the first two being identical to the first group. The fifth staff at the bottom is a bass line that provides harmonic support. The score concludes with a 'rit.' (ritardando) instruction.

The musical score consists of six staves of music. The first five staves are soprano voices in treble clef, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment below. The sixth staff is a basso continuo line in bass clef, providing harmonic support. The music is in common time, with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The vocal parts sing a repeating phrase: 'We have built a gi - ant wind - mill, with its'. The piano parts provide harmonic support with chords. The basso continuo part features sustained notes and chords.

Shed no tear!

Words by Keats.

Moderato. ♩ = 66.

Contralto. PIANO.

Contralto: Treble clef, 4/4 time, key signature of one flat. The vocal part starts with a rest followed by eighth-note chords. It then begins singing with a melodic line supported by piano chords.

Piano: Bass clef, 4/4 time, key signature of one flat. The piano part provides harmonic support, with dynamics like f and p.

Lyrics:

- Shed no tear! _____ O shed no tear! The flow'r will bloom an-
- o - ther year. Weep no more! O weep no more!
- Young buds sleep in the root's white core. Dry your eyes! _____

Dynamic markings include f, p, rit., and p a tempo.
