

Lowland Fanny

Edited by Robert A. Hudson

Songs of the Old Dominion No. 2

Words & Music by
John H. Hewitt

Scherzando

8

1. We have heard thy sy - ren lay, Low - land Fan - ny, ev - er smil - ing.
2. Love has nev - er touched thy heart, Low - land Fan - ny! with his ar - row;

8

The first system of the song, starting at measure 8. It features a vocal line with two verses and a piano accompaniment. The piano part has a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand, with some chords and rests.

13

We have marked thine eyes' bright ray, Life's cares be - guil-ing. Where the proud mag - Thou hast nev - er learned his art, Or felt his sor-row. Like a gem that

13

The second system of the song, starting at measure 13. It continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment from the first system. The piano part includes some chords and rests.

18

no - lia grows, Is thy dwell - ing hid - den treas - ure! Bloom - ing with the for - est rose, steals no light, Claim - ing na - ture's beau - ty on - ly; Thou art in se - clu - sion bright -

23

Refrain

All joy and pleas - ure. Oh, Low - land Fan - ny is the star That leads us on to Joy - ous though lone - ly!

29

du - ty; She lit - tle knows how man - y are The cap - tives of her beau - ty.

34 Chorus

Oh, Low-land Fan - ny is the star That leads us on to du - ty; She lit - tle knows how

Oh, Low-land Fan - ny is the star That leads us on to du - ty; She lit - tle knows how

Oh, Low-land Fan - ny is the star That leads us on to du - ty; She lit - tle knows how

40 D.S.

man - y are The cap-tives of her beau-ty.

man - y are The cap-tives of her beau-ty.

man - y are The cap-tives of her beau-ty.