

134 Copyright music No 14 1851
Publication Deposited Jan. 23

THE FLAG OF CUBA

Written by

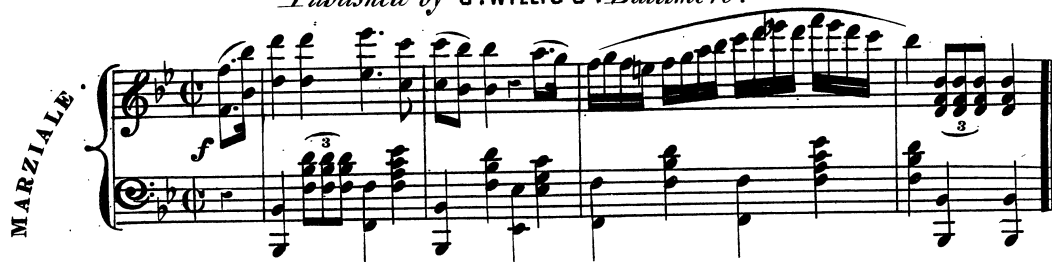

John T. Humphreys Esq.

Melody altered & Arranged

BY
J. H. HEWITT.

Gallagher

Published by G. WILLIG J^r. Baltimore.

2422

Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1851 by G. Willig in the Clerk's office of the District Court of Maryland.

Freedom's cause, O come! Till your tread shall shake the regions, Where we offer you a Refrain in Chorus.

home. Flag of Cuba! dipp'd in scarlet Southern beauties proudly smile On thy bright and golden starlit, Floating o'er our sun - ny isle.

2.
Monarchs fall and thrones are crumbling,
While we battle to be free,
Freedom's thunders far are rumbling
O'er the land and o'er the sea.
Blood hath reek'd on broad savanna,
Shall that blood flow unredress'd?
Give the breeze our beauteous banner
And the struggle will be bless'd.
Refrain, Flag of Cuba &c.