

JOHN ANDERSON, MY JO.

---

---

JOHN Anderfon, my jo, John,
When we were first acquaint,
Your locks were like the raven,
Your bonny brow was brent :
But now your brow is bald, John,
Your locks are like the snaw ;
But bleffings on your frosty pow,
John Anderfon, my jo.

John Anderfon, my jo, John,
We clamb the hill thegither ;
And mony a canty day, John,
We 've had wi' ane anither :
Now we maun totter down, John,
And hand in hand we'll go,
And sleep thegither at the foot,
John Anderfon, my jo.

John Anderson.

Violin

Slow

John An-der-son my Jo John when we were first ac -

6 6 6 5 6 3 3 3

- - quaint; Your locks were like the Ra - - ven, your bonny brow was 8 3 6 5 6 6

brent; but now your brow is bald John, your locks are like the

10 1 6 6 6 6 6 5

fnaw; but blefsings on your frofty pow John Anderson my Jo.

6 5 6 # 7 6 6 5 3 4 #