The first system of music features a treble staff with a complex, rapid melody consisting of many beamed sixteenth and thirty-second notes. The right hand plays a series of chords and single notes in the treble, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of chords in the bass.

The second system continues the piece, with the treble staff showing more intricate melodic patterns. The right hand includes some slurs and dynamic markings. The left hand maintains a consistent harmonic support with chords.

The third system is marked "Tutti" and "ff" (fortissimo) in both the treble and bass staves. It features a dense texture with rapid, repeated chords in both hands, creating a powerful and rhythmic effect.

The fourth system continues the "Tutti" section with the same dense, rhythmic chordal texture. The treble staff has some slurs, and the bass staff shows a steady progression of chords.
