

LOOK ON THE BRIGHT SIDE

SONG

BY

GEO. F. ROOT.

NEW YORK, Published by WM. HALL & SON, 239 Broadway.

ANDANTINO. O why should the moments kind heaven hath

The first system of music features a vocal line in the upper staff and piano accompaniment in the lower two staves. The tempo is marked 'ANDANTINO'. The lyrics 'O why should the moments kind heaven hath' are written below the vocal line.

lent, So of - ten in use - less re - pining be spent? Tho'

The second system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics 'lent, So of - ten in use - less re - pining be spent? Tho'' are written below the vocal line.

time hath its changes what ev - er be - tide, The sun - shine a -

The third system concludes the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics 'time hath its changes what ev - er be - tide, The sun - shine a -' are written below the vocal line.

1939

Entered according to Act of Congress, AD. 1853 by WM. HALL & SON, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the Southern District of N. Y.

110

Deposited in Clubs Misc. Dist. N.Y. April 23. 1853

-bove us look on the bright side, look, look on the bright side, look, look on the bright side.

Our sky may be dark and our path may be drear,
 Yet hope, like an angel of mercy is near;
 And softly she whispers, onward we glide,—
 "The sun is still shining, look on the bright side."

Tho' the cold wind of sorrow around us may wail,
 Tho' friends may be false and misfortune assail;
 Yet why should we murmur, what ever betide,
 There is something to cheer us, look on the bright side!

How sweet is the hope which to mortals is given,
 There's a home and a rest for the weary in Heaven;
 Then let us not murmur what ever betide,
 But still in submission, look on the bright side.