COMING HOME

OR

"THE CRUEL WAR IS OVER."

Words and Music by
CHARLES CARROL SAWYER.

Tempo di Marcia.

1 Hark! the boys are com - ing! dont you hear them tramp?
2 Hearts that seem'd as break - ing, thro' with joy to - day,

Here they come with banners stain'd and torn, See their cheerful fa - ces,
Eyes are bright that long were dimm'd with tears; Hopes that seem'd as van - ish'd

as they leave the camp, Marching on their hap - py jour - ney home, now are light and gay, Doubting ones have ban - ish'd all their fears.

rall.

CHORUS.

Soprano. Com - ing home, com - ing home, dont you hear the drum?

Tenor.

Alto. Com - ing home, com - ing home, dont you hear the drum?

Bass.

PIANO.

no - ble work is done, They're coming, they are coming from the war.

no - ble work is done, They're coming, they are coming from the war.

Boys, don't keep us waiting, quickly march along!
 Loving ones are watching at the door,
 Listening for footsteps since the early dawn,
 Come and live in peace forevermore. Chorus.

4

Now the war is over, may we soon forget
 Troubles that have past and sorrows gone;
 Hoping that the star of Peace will never set,
 Praying for the nation "Newly born," Chorus.

(End of Chorus)
