Ah, how my heart lingers ten - der-ly o - ver The scenes of long, long years a - go; The days of my child - hood so dear to my mem - ry, Bring voi - ces to me sweet and low. The home by the riv - er, the wil - low trees bending, I can see thro' the vis - ta of years. The

The "Old folks at home," Oh, sweet, tender theme! It brings back the days long a - go, When as children we played 'neath the trees by the stream, There in sight of the old cot-tage home. . . . But now all the dear ones are peace - ful - ly sleep - ing, Their
