II. When

III. Tell -

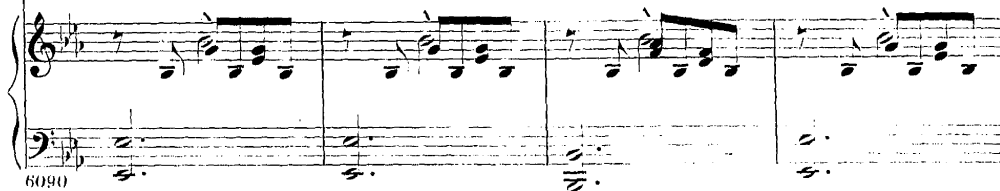

soon our wea - ry feet shall tread That land where no sad tears are shed; Soon mem - ry bells! their witch - ing chimes Have charms as dear as old - en rhymes; We Lu - na's mys - tic sil - ver light Bathes hill and dale at noon of night, Then ing of child - hood's joy - ous lays, And hopes and fears of by - gone days; Of we shall clasp the hand of friends, Where with the song no dis - cord blends. hear them oft at twi - light hour When sets the sun and shuts the flower.

 voi - ces ring with mag - ic strain, Break - ing the calm with sweet re - frain.
 bri - dal vows and farewells said, And sol - emn dir - ges for the dead.
