Out in a land a - far, Be - neath the Northern star, A Co - lo - nist was

KEY D

Out in a land a-far, Beneath the North-ern star, A Co-lo-nist was forced to go, To Ca-na-da, that Land of Snow. Though far off he might be, His heart was o'er the sea; And, to his dar-ling girl at home, He wrote so lov-ing-ly:

KEY D CHORUS.
"Re-mem-ber me to mo-ther dear! Re-mem-ber me to dear old dad; And give my love to all the friends I know- I al-ways think of them, wher-e'er I go! Re-mem-ber me to all the boys The boys with whom I used to roam And my fond-est love to you, for I know your heart is true, And re-mem-ber me to all the folks at home! "Re-mem-ber home!"

2.

At night, when war was o'er,
On that far-distant shore,
He'd sit and doze, and in his dream,
He saw his girl, with eyes a-beam!
"How long before I come
To my Canadian home?"
"Not long, my sweet! I'll soon be rich!"
Then, he'd write o'er the foam:-

CHORUS. "Remember me etc.

3.

His pretty English lass
Longs for the time to pass,
When she with her true love can be:
"Don't wait until you're rich!" wrote she.
"A plain log hut will do,
If I've got love- and you!
Send for me, dear, and write no more,
Across the waters blue:-

CHORUS. "Remember me etc.
