

No. 4.—Now a Smile, and now a Frown.

SIX TWO-PART SONGS

FOR TREBLE VOICES

BY

OLIVER KING.

---

No. 1. Day Dreams.

„ 2. The Lyre and Flower.

„ 3. Joy and Pleasure.

No. 4. Now a Smile, and now a Frown.

„ 5. Elves of the Wild-Wood.

„ 6. Good Night.

---

PRICE TWOPENCE EACH.

(Eight cents).

---

LONDON:

THE VINCENT MUSIC COMPANY, LTD.,

60, BERNERS STREET, W.

U.S. AMERICA: T. J. DONLAN, COLONIAL BUILDING, BOSTON, MASS.

NOW A SMILE, AND NOW A FROWN.

OLIVER KING.

Gavotte tempo.

1st Voice. mf a tempo.
Now a

2nd Voice. mf a tempo.
Now a

Piano. f rit. mf a tempo.

smile, and now a frown, Brightening now, and now cast down: Now 'tis

smile, and now a frown, Brightening now, and now cast down: Now 'tis cheer-ful, now it lowers; Yet sun-shine in the midst of show'rs. Such the cheer-ful, now it lowers; Yet sun-shine in the midst of show'rs. Such the

mf
face which A - pril wears, Now in smiles, and now in tears; Like the

mf
face which A - pril wears, Now ..... in tears; Like the

mf

life we lead be - low, Full of joy, and full of woe. Love - ly life we lead be - low, ..... Full of joy, and full of woe. Love - ly

f

mf
prospects now a - rise; Van - ish now be - fore our eyes: Yet, a -

mf
prospects now a - rise, ..... a - - rise, Yet, a - mid the clouds of grief, Still a sunbeam sheds re - lief. Like the face which A - pril wears, Now in smiles, and now in tears, now in smiles, and now in tears.

mf