Napoléon de Rutkowski, Op. 28

Piano. p

The first system of the piano score consists of two staves. The treble staff contains a series of chords and arpeggiated figures, while the bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment. The piece begins with a piano (p) dynamic.

The second system continues the musical development, with the treble staff showing more complex chordal textures and the bass staff maintaining its accompaniment role.

The third system shows further progression of the piece, with the treble staff's arpeggiated patterns becoming more intricate.

The fourth system concludes with a forte (f) dynamic marking, indicating a change in the piece's intensity.

forza et passione

The fifth system is marked with the instruction forza et passione, indicating a section of great force and passion. The music features more complex and dense textures in both staves.
