THE
SONG OF THE BELL

TRANSLATED FROM THE GERMAN OF SCHILLER

Entered, according to Act of Congress, in the year 1836,

By HENRY EDWARDS, Treas. of Bos. Acad. of Music, in the Clerk's Office, of the District Court of Massachusetts.

BOSTON ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Rosa Muschler

RM 207

The following translation having been undertaken with the purpose of introducing to the public the music composed for the original song, by a distinguished professor, is necessarily more close in its adherence to the measure and rhythmical divisions of the original, than is usual in the translation of lyrical productions. Besides being a generally literal version, it is also an imitation of Schiller's poem in the following respects. Each line contains the same number of accents, in the same relative position as in the original, and each is rhymed, or left without rhyme, to correspond exactly with the German versification. The attempt has been made to give to the music of Romberg the same effect as if it had been composed for the song in English; and it is hoped that the unusual difficulties to be surmounted will serve as some apology for the defects which may be observed by the critic.

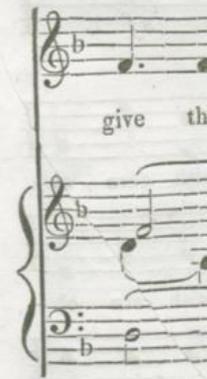

The translator acknowledges his obligations to Mr. Mason, for many improvements in the adaptation of the words to the music.
