The musical score is for the piece 'L'Espresso' by Frédéric Chopin, arranged for piano and organ. The score is divided into three main sections: 'Unis.' (Unison), 'Div.' (Division), and 'Unis.' (Unison). The piano part is written on a grand staff with a treble and bass clef, and the organ part is written on a single staff with a C-clef. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The piano part begins with a series of chords in the right hand and a single note in the left hand. The organ part provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The 'Div.' section features a more complex melodic line for the piano, with triplets and a final flourish. The 'Unis.' section returns to a simpler, unison-like texture. The score concludes with the word 'segue.' indicating a continuation of the piece.
