Teach us to pray and be resign'd, Teach us to pray and be resigned

And O! should changeful fortune frown,
Or those we love prove true no more,
Should death's relentless hand cut down
Those who returned the love we bore,
Still let us worship and adore
And seek the peace we yet may find:
Teach us, O Father, we implore,
To trust in Thee, and be resigned!
