First system of musical notation. The treble staff begins with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature. The music starts with a rest, followed by a series of chords and single notes. The word calmo is written below the first few measures. The system concludes with a ff (fortissimo) dynamic marking and a series of ascending notes in the treble staff.

Second system of musical notation. The treble staff continues with a series of ascending notes, followed by a series of chords. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with single notes and chords.

Third system of musical notation. The treble staff features a series of ascending notes, followed by a series of chords. The bass staff continues with a harmonic accompaniment.

Fourth system of musical notation. The treble staff continues with a series of ascending notes, followed by a series of chords. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment.

Fifth system of musical notation. The treble staff continues with a series of ascending notes, followed by a series of chords. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment. The system concludes with the instruction D. C. tutto e fine.
