There Let

Was a time in his-to-ry when crowned-heads ruled the world and claimed that flags of lib-er-ty should Ev'-ry true A-mer-i-can con trib ute to the cause to shield old glo ry from the hun and nev-er be un-furled, but Washington and La-fay-ette de-stroyed that an-cient pact and mil-i- ta ry laws. We'll give to ev'-ry Red Cross fund and Lib er ty Bonds we'll buy, for we've been free from ty ran-y since the Lib-er-ty Bell was cracked then Wil-liam Third and our brave boys leave home and joys and give un-til they die. That Pru-c-sian pup has Hin-den-burg de clared they'd get us all ten mil-lion men re-spon-ded to the riled us up to the spi-rit of seven ty six. We'll make them learn to like our Yan-kee call Wer'e going to fight for what is right and if it is Gods tricks. And when the Kai ser hands his sword to Per-shing all is will in Berlin's gate we'll cel-e-brate the end of Kais-er Bill o'er and that's the time in his to ry when crowned heads rule no more When
