She's The Lass For Me.

Written and Composed by Harry Lauder.

Con spirito.

Piano f

The piano introduction consists of two staves in 6/8 time. The right hand features a melodic line with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of eighth notes. The piece begins with a forte (f) dynamic.

This section continues the piano accompaniment. It features a crescendo leading to a fortissimo (ff) dynamic. The right hand has a more active melodic line with accents, while the left hand continues with a rhythmic accompaniment. The section concludes with a decrescendo and a final forte (f) dynamic.

I think the present I'll give her will be mysel'. Ever since I met her I can neither eat, sleep, nor work. I never was a big eater anyway, because two plates o'porridge and two eggs and two cups o'tea and a slice o'bread was all I could ever eat for my breakfast at any time. And I always was a light sleeper. If the cat chased a mouse through the night and ran over my face, I was up in a minute.

And work, well, that's a disease I never had. Ye know I really believe love is a disease, and I have it. Oh! don't laugh, because it's infectious. And I'll tell ye how ye'll know ye have it. When ye see yer sweetheart coming, there's something starts gnawing at yer heart, and before ye know what yer doing ye hear yersel' singing,—

Chorus.—She's the lass for me, etc.
