

THE BEEFEATER

Written and Composed by
HERBERT DARNLEY,

TO THE REFRESHMENT ROOM.

CHORUS.

It's a splendid place to spend a happy day,
Everything is free, there's not a cent to pay,
But if you haven't got a bob or two you'd better stop away,
From the Good Old Tower of London.

There is no place in all this land Like the fine old Tow'r of Lon - don; The sights in there are simply grand, It's a marv'ous Tow'r of London. The walls are high, the dungeons deep, Re - freshments there are very, very cheap - But the beer it is not warranted to keep, In the Ancient Tow'r of London Sing hay! sing ho! For the beer in the Tow'r of Lon - don!
