

Helen

The Words by

PETER PINDAR,

(The Music Composed & Dedicated to

Lady Hamilton)

BY

M<sup>RS</sup> BIANCHI,

afterwards Lady

Price 1/6

Ent at Sta Hall.

London, Printed for the Author, by L. Lavenu, at his Musical Circulating Library, 26, New Bond Str.

Voice ad lib

Andante Affettuoso Sweet Helen Sweet Helen

Piano Forte

In tempo

Say not with a sigh that time at last will bid us part that when thy bloom of youth shall die the flame of love will leave my heart, sweet heart, what

1. 2.

Bianchi

Allegretto con brio

ever change of charm I see thou al - ways wilt be fair to me what e - ver change of charm I see thou al - ways wilt be fair to me al - ways al - ways fair to me .

Ad lib.<sup>m</sup> Andante Affettuoso

Sweet Helen time from thy cheek may steal the rose: To smiles and dimples prove un-

-kind may rob thy bosom of its snows, But rob not

He - - len of her mind. Sweet mind. while

Allegretto con Brio

this bright trea - sure dwells with thee thou al - - ways wilt be fair to me while this bright trea - - sure dwells with thee thou al - - ways wilt be fair to me al - - ways al - - ways fair to me.

