Keep step with the music of Union,
What grandeur its flag has unrolled—
For the loyal, a heaven-wove rainbow,
For traitors, a storm in each fold!
The glorious shade of Mount Vernon
Still points to each patriot-grave,
Still cries—o'er the long mighty ages
That Eagle of Lexington wave!

CHORUS. While we step to the music of Union
One Banner alone o'er the sod
One voice from America swelling
In worship of Liberty's God!

3

Keep step with the music of Union!
The forests have sunk at its sound,
The pioneer's brows beam with triumph,
And Labor's broad opulence crowned;
Oh! yet must all giant rude forces
Of Nature be chained to our ears,
All mountains, lakes, rivers and oceans
Crouch under the Stripes and the Stars,

CHORUS. While we step to the music of Union
One Banner alone o'er the sod
One voice from America swelling
In worship of Liberty's God!

4

Keep step with the music of Union,
Thus still shall we nourish the light
Our fathers lit for the chained nations
That darkle in Tyranny's night!
The blood of the whole world is with us,
O'er Ocean by Tyranny hurled,
And they who would dare to insult us
Shall sink with the wrath of the world,
CHORUS. While we step to the music of Union
One Banner alone o'er the sod
One voice from America swelling
In worship of Liberty's God!

5

Keep step with the music of Union,
The music of Liberty, Right;
Singing nations by brotherhood only
Are bannered with honor and might,
Then hurrah for the Past with its glory!
For the strong, earnest Present, hurrah!
And a cheer for the starry browed Future
With Freedom, and Virtue, and Law.

CHORUS. While we step to the music of Union
One Banner alone o'er the sod
One voice from America swelling
In worship of Liberty's God!
